2001 Season Review

(by Jeff Adams) National League

The 2001 New Zealand National Club Championship, also known, due to naming-rights sponsorship, as the Qantas National Club Championship was the second season of a nationwide club competition in New Zealand football. The competition was won by Central United.

The league was played during winter, with matches played from April to September, and was run in two stages. In the first stage, each team in the ten-team league played every other team home and away.

In the second stage, the top four teams entered a knockout competition, with third place playing fourth place in one match and first playing second in the other, with home advantage being decided by final league position.

The winners of the first against second match progressed straight through to the final; the losers of that match met the winners of the other match to decide the other finalist. The bonus point system used during the 2000 season was not used for the 2001 season.

Ten teams took part in the 2001 league. Eight of these remained from the previous season. Nelson Suburbs withdrew from the competition, and Metro were relegated and had to play in a play-off series with the winners of a competition between the Northern, Central, and Southern regional competition winners for a place in the 2001 league. Metro won the playoff and thus retained their league place.

In the 2001 National League Miramar Rangers won the minor premiership by 8 points. But were defeated 2-3 by Central United in the grand final.

Central Region Team's in the National League were:

Miramar Rangers (1st in League, but runners up in playoff) had a successful 2001 season but would have been disappointed not to have won the grand final. After the 18 game league they were winners by 8 points. They won the semi final against Central United 1-0 at home (Brown). But three weeks later lost away to Central United 2-3 (Brown 2) at North Harbour Stadium. In the Chatham Cup they were beaten by Christchurch City 5-4 (Brown 2, Longley 1 Butterfield 1 were the MR scorers). Coached by NZ rep Stu Jacobs they had a pleasing season. And squad members Graham Little was 1st= in the National League Golden Boot with 17 goals. Geoff Brown was 7th= with 8 goals. David Batty and Tim Butterfied were excellent in mid-field as was Michael McKinley in defence and James Bannatyne in goal.

Manawatu were 3rd in the 2001 National League. An excellent season for the smallish Manawatu catchment area. Only Miramar Rangers and Central United finished above them. They won 12 games, had one draw and lost 7 matches. Coached by New Zealand Rep Colin Tuaa this must have been one of their most successful seasons. They had a couple of handy scorers in Shane Cunliffe (8 goals) and Jeremy Seales (7 goals). Regular sub Isaac Duker also did well scoring 8 goals coming on 12 times in the season with good effect. Other important players that season were Jeremy Brown, Hayden Engfield, John Harahap, Mark Tesar, Ian Sandbrrok and Ian Robinson. All players who regularly contributed throughout the season. Two 3-0 wins against Napier City Rovers would have been well remembered. In June and July they lost only one game. A good run that kept them well in the hunt for a top 3 position.

Napier City Rovers finished a mid-table 5th. Perry Cotton and Andrew Rennie were joint coaches with Rennie playing in 10 games also. They had no really prolific scorers in 2001, but many of the squad chipped in to keep the goals rolling. And they scored 41, but on the downside they also let in 41. Warren Gilbertson, Martin Akers and Chris McIvor played in all 18 games. They had a great keeper in Mark Paston, but all the same to many goals were conceded. They won just 8 of their league games but also added 4 points with draws. There was a big surprise when they lost 1-8 to Dunedin away. But that was really just a blip. Although they did lose 4 of their away games. They were however always competitive throughout but did not move far from mid table all year.

Capital Premier

The winning side was a very strong Wellington United team who finished 5 points ahead of the also strong Island Bay United. 12 wins, 4 draws and 2 losses were enough for United to take the 2001 title. Former prolific goal scorer Derek McKillop was their coach and he did a very good job of it. They had a couple of excellent goal scorers in Mark Clare (12 goals) and Chris Morgan (13 goals). Morgans's goals were in only 9 games. Youngster Dominic Rowe who was generally sub also scored 6 goals in just 5 starts and coming on as sub 6 times. There was lots of talent and experience in the side. Paul Bleyenga, Imre Foldi, Jason Pine and Garry Minshull were in that category. But The Jamieson brothers also were regulars as was Malcolm Campbell. 5 goals wre scored against Tawa, Olympic, and Petone such was their fire power. But a 12-1 win over the hapless Coast United team a huge one. Surprisingly they lost to Island Bay (away) in the first game of the season (1-2) but that and an away loss to Petone (1-2) was the strong United sides only sad times.

Island Bay United finished 2nd. They had a strong squad. Two great strikers in Brian Johnstone (17 goals) and Peter Satos (10 goals) ensured they were always challengers. And they did beat eventual winners Wellington United in the first game of the season 2-1. But lost the return match 2-3. They had talent in their squad also former national league players Dion Adams and Darren Cheriton. But Tony Maresca and Barry Lewis were also class acts. A 6-0 win over Miramar Reserves (away) would have been a great time post match, in which Brian Johnstone scored a hat trick.

Former New Zealand Rep Ken Cresswell was coach of Western Suburb's in 2001 and made a pretty job of it, finishing in third spot. Simon Brown was fantastic scoring 17 goals in just 13 matches. The Easthope brothers were the most regular starters throughout the season. 43 goals scored against only 27 conceded made them very competitive all season. A 7-2 win

Not far behind West's were Lower Hutt City. And Mark Foster with 11 goals from 18 starts was top class. The Patterson brothers and Kevin Stone were others who made them among the best in 2001. The last game of the season (at home) a 4-4 draw with Olympic would have been exciting. With the Patterson brothers, Mays and Foster scoring.

Olympic finished with the same points as Lower Hutt (16). But behind on goal average only. So a pleasing season there also. Tony Meinan top scored with 9 goals from 13 games. But long-time Greek favourite Chris Christie was only 1 goal behind (8) from 9 games. Simon George in midfield was also important and Dene McKay and Jeff Sole also large contributors that season. Brendan MacIntyre was coach.

Coached by Graeme Boomer, Petone finished mid-table and scored 36 and conceded 6 less (30). A 7-0 hammering of bottom placed Coast United was their highest win. They managed 8 wins and a couple of draws. A good 2-0 win over 2nd placed finishers Island Bay would have been pleasing, but to many losses (8) meant they were not challengers in 2001. Jeff McKenzie was top scorer with 7 goals from just 14 starts.

Waterside Karori finished 7th. Not the placing coach Bruce Duncan would have been hoping for. But they did score more goals (34) than they conceded. Mainly due to Michael Gendall (8) and Jason Trenberth (9). They started well with 5-1 win over Tawa and a 5-0 win in round 5 over West's. But nothing outstanding after that.

Miramar Rangers Reserves were coached by Angus Campbell for 16 games then by James Bannatyne. But it was a weakish Miramar Reserve side in the 2001 season. It was a huge squad but meant top players were often unavailable. The defence was the main problem. Mitch Brydon (7) Iain MacIntyre (4) and Bevan Holdaway (5) were regular scorers but not enough to get the team in the top league positions. Clear of relegation but no great shakes in 2001.

Tawa finished in 9th spot. Coached by Phil Crawshaw but with not a lot of quality to work with. Tawa managed only 4 wins all season. And only 2 were against higher finishing teams. Daniel Wood (8) and Daniel Cody (4) top scored but it was another side with a weak defence that conceded a massive 49 goals. Not a season to remember.

Coast United coach Steve Edwards knew his football. But it was another side that lacked enough quality in the squad. So much so that they scored only 7 and conceded a horrendous 83 goals. There were no wins and not even a draw all season. There were a few close games, but also some pretty heavy defeats. For the most part a season to forget really.

Capital One

Probably Marist's best finish since the 1950s and 1960s. They won the league by 3 points against some top clubs. Their 32 goals scored were shared among the squad. With Miles Murphy top scorer with 7 goals from his 16 games. Zane Murray played in every game and Rodney Varga added some of his experience at top levels. Mark Crowhurst was another was another important player. They lost only 3 games and a season for coach Aaron McFarland to be proud of.

Runners Up Wairarapa United were coached by the very experienced Mark Taylor. He did a great job guiding them to 2nd. Just 3 points behind Marist. Kevin Murray was fantastic scoring in every game but 3. 25 goals was brilliant. Andrew Aplin scored 9 also. The defence was not quite as strong and that was probably why they did not finish as champions. They did lose to Marist 1-0 both home and away however.

Upper Hutt City did well to finish 3rd. No prolific goal scorers but a squad where many were scorers when needed. Their defence was generally tight and gave away only 22 goals all season. Ian Mawdesley as player-coach had them working hard throughout. He also top scored with 7 goals. Seven clean sheets was a reflection of their tight defence.

A top-half finish for Kapiti Hearts was a good result for coaches David Wright and Peter Crouch. Stu Neal had a great season for them with 10 goals. And Peter Jeffery another big influence on a successful season for Hearts. Peter Ockey organised the defence well also. 2 draws with Wairarapa (2nd) and Marist (1st) were great, along with a win over Marist by 4-1 at home.

Brooklyn Northern United were coached by Brian Blellock. But BNU were mid-table only after a big tail off in form in the 2nd half of the season. With Brett Goldsack (11 goals) and BNU all-time top scorer Rob Mallon (5 goals) along with Stu Bell (7 goals) they could score. But even with the experienced Sandy Aitchison, the defence conceded to many (31) to be challengers in 2001.

Seatoun with Wellington Rep Wayne Nicols as coach. Seatoun should have done better. But while he had a few top players in Jason Donaldson and the McDonald brothers (Ian and Neil). There was to many young and inexperienced squad members to have a great season in 2001. Though they had 3 wins in their first 4 games. Wins after that were hard to come by as form tailed off for the most part.

Victoria University. A mid-table position was all that the students could manage in 2001. They were however competitive and gave many of the top finishers tough opposition. A 2-3 home loss and a 0-1 away loss to champions Marist showed that. Mark Ewing and Richard Kay (7 goals each) were top scorers. Coach Ma Mahuika as player-coach also worth a mention.

North Wellington finished 8th. Experienced player and coach Brian Bullen had his work cut out in 2001. He even had to play in 7 games and scored in 2. Nigel Ingham and Phil Barton were top scorers, but only with 5 goals each. Just 4 wins all season along with 8

Not a season to remember for Wainuiomata. Stu Bullen as coach tried his best, but a lack of quality told in the end. They did have the great finisher Mark Manzone for 12 games (12 goals) but apart from him, other prolific scorers were missing. They never got a win until game 7 and that was against the outclassed Stop Out side. 4 wins in all, was all they could achieve. Not good enough in defence was the problem.

Stop Out's player-coach Trevor Wattam played in all 18 games. And he needed to. There was very little experience or indeed talent. Especially goal scorers. 7 goals all season and 53 against says it all really. Outclassed at this level of football. Highlight - a single win all season against Kapiti Hearts 2-1

Womens Premier

Wairarapa United finished 1st with a strong side which included Wendi Henderson, Lisa Such and Pam Yates. All top women's players. With those 3 in the core they were very hard to conquer. And 1 loss all season was all that they endured. Petone were 5 points behind. They were really the only team that could challenge Wairarapa that season. They also lost just 1 game, but also drew 3. Marist who were always fairy strong in Women's football at this time finished 3rd. But were 8 points behind Petone. Of the others Seatoun (4th) were the best of the rest. But could not score as many as the top 3 sides (20). But the defence was vunerable, conceding 20. North Wellington were 8 points behind Seatoun, and conceded the same number as Seatoun (40). But could only score 9 all season. And the wooden spooners Upper Hutt did manage a win and a draw, but were outclassed at this level of women's football in 2001

MATCH REPORT

New Zealand's World Cup soccer hopes were hanging by a thread last night after a shocking mistake by Jason Batty led to a 2-0 loss to Australia at Wellington's WestpacTrust Stadium. Trailing 1-0 to a sixth-minute goal by Brett Emerton a rejuvenated New Zealand side giving the Socceroos a torrid time when Batty dropped his clanger eight minutes from the end.

There was no danger when captain Chris Zoricich played the ball back to Batty, but instead of clearing the ball quickly Batty took two touches, the second a chip straight on to head of Emerton and the ball was suddenly nestling in New Zealand's net.

Given the way the All Whites had raised their game in the second spell after a slow first-half performance, it was understandable that the players should hold their heads in horror as the drama unfolded.

Batty got no sympathy from coach Ken Dugdale

"It was disappointing to go two down to a goal like that," Dugdale said. "You expect better from players at international level than we got from Jason Batty tonight."
"That stupid goal has made it very difficult for us in Sydney but it is not impossible. We were the

"That stupid goal has made it very difficult for us in Sydney but it is not impossible. We were the better side in the second half. The mountain we are trying to climb has now got a lot of snow on it and is frozen over, but we will give it everything."

Australian coach Frank Farina agreed with Dugdale that the two-leg tie was far from over.

"New Zealand still has 90 minutes to come at us." Farina said.

"New Zealand still has 90 minutes to come at us," Farina said.
"They played exceptionally well and we have played better than we did tonight"

It was after Emerton's second goal that what had been an almost benign game suddenly boiled over

Australian substitute Danny Tiatto, who had been on the field only 21 minutes was shown the red card by Japanese referee Masayoshi Okada for a rash challenge on his Manchester City clubmate Chris Kilen. Two minutes later Killen was given a yellow card caution for a late tackle on Socceroo defender Tony Popovic.

The stirring second half that woke up the crowd was in marked contrast to the first 45 minutes which was played out slowly, and mostly in New Zealand's half.

Dugdale said the All Whites slow start was because his players were a little nervous and that they had struggled with the pace of the Australians early on.

That was the case when Australia opened the scoring in the sixth minute with Stan Lazaridis streaking down the left flank before sending in a low cross that Emerton knocked into the net after darting between Ivan Vicelich and Aaran Lines.

Conceding an early goal was just the start New Zealand had dreaded and in the rest of the first half they created only one real chance. That came when Simon Elliott out Vaughan Coveny through the middle but the striker delayed his shot and Tony Vidmar saved the Socceroos with a superb late tackla.

Had the other All White team-mates shown as much commitment as Chris Jackson, Australia would not have had so much possession in the first 45 minutes and the home side would have been pleased to reach halftime at 1-0 down.

At halftime Dugdale replaced Lines with Noah Hickey and the move almost paid immediately dividends. Within 90 seconds of the restart, Hickey's pace had earnt New Zealand a corner and Jackson forced a good save from Australian keeper Mark Schwarzer who had been unemployed in the first half.

That set the tempo for the second half. As it progressed the All Whites grew in confidence and the Australian defence suddenly did not look as solid as it had earlier.

The scenario was looking reasonable for New Zealand till Batty's error, but they lifted themselves again for one last effort and with the last touch of the match Vicelich sent a header just the wrong side of the upright.

Dugdale said the improved second half effort came through the players believing in themselves.

"We told them at halftime to start believing in themselves. When they did it was a different team."

"I put Noah [Hickey] on because I thought his pace would trouble [Kevin] Muscat and it did."
Hickey's pace and enthusiasm lifted the All Whites and he will surely be an automatic selection for the second leg in Sudney on Sunday.

2001 MATCH REPORT - GRAND FINAL

Glenn Eie was the toast of Central United on September 8, as his second half hattrick inspired his side to a come-from-behind 3-2 victory over premiership phase champions Miramar Rangers in the Southern Trust National League Grand Final at North Harbour Stadium.

But it was a result which the newly-crowned national champions hardly looked like recording in the first half of this engaging encounter, which took place on a bumpy pitch which more than one Central player suggested was "worse than last year", when they contested the Chatham Cup Final.

The Auckland team's first forty-five minutes can best be summed up in one wordpassionless. Quite literally, they didn't fire a single shot on goal, au contraire their opponents, whose lone goal did not reflect their dominance of proceedings in the opening half of the match.

Miramar had enough chances to win two games over the entire ninety minutes, but they didn't take enough of the openings they created, and ultimately, it cost them dearly - Stu Jacobs' charges were devastated come Bruce Grimshaw's final whistle, the best team over the eighteen game league competition completing their campaign with nothing to show for their efforts.

And yet, it could have been so different, had Geoff Brown not fired wildly over the crossbar from six yards out in the sixth minute, on receipt of Graham Little's cross after the co-winner - with Thomas Edge - of the Golden Boot had been picked out on the right by Taria Imam's perceptive pass.

An early goal would have helped Miramar's cause no end. They continued to pursue it, with Imam's teasing cross-shot tipped over the crossbar by Ross Nicholson six minutes later, before the goalkeeper denied the same player eighteen minutes later, four minutes after Little had volleyed wide after Derek Warke's cross had created consternation in Central's rearguard.

In the 26th minute, the goal Rangers had long threatened finally came to pass. David Johnston's cross from a short corner saw Nicholson come off his line to gather the ball. His team-mate, Greg Uhlmann, jumped in the queue before the custodian, but Brown nipped in front of the pair of them, and sent his header bulleting into the gaping goal from eight yards.

Central's rearguard was somewhat shaky for a few minutes thereafter, in which time Tim Butterfield and Imam both gave them reason to panic, with a shot and teasing cross respectively.

Warke went close with a difficult headed chance six minutes before the interval, following Little's cross on receipt of a Butterfield pass, while right on half-time, Brown directed a close-range drive straight at Nicholson, who was by far the busier of the goalkeepers in the opening stanza.

Bannatyne had plucked a few crosses out of the air, but had had little else to do in the first half, but just twenty-eight seconds into the second spell, he could only look on in horror as the ball careered past him en route to the back of his net.

The player responsible for Central's first shot on goal in the entire match was Eie, whose career to date has, most notably, seen him on the books of Lillestrom, one of the leading teams in his native Norway. Bruce Hill and Daniel Aliaga worked the opening straight from the kick-off, the latter's threaded through ball releasing Eie through Rangers' rearguard, and from twenty yards, he thundered home a beauty to level the scores.

Miramar, quite simply, didn't know what had hit them, as some decidedly choice half-time words from Central's mentor, Paul Marshall, had the desired effect, although probably a little sooner than even the ever-vocal encourager-parexcellence would have expected.

Rangers looked to respond, but Central had their tails up - it was like watching a completely different team from that which had fronted in the first half. In the 54th minute, Brian Hawke scrambled the ball out of defence to Eie, lurking wide on the left. His diagonal run took him across field, and his defence-splitting pass sent Hamish Carmody haring through.

Bannatyne hurtled off his line to save with his legs near the edge of the penalty area, the rebound arcing dangerously goalwards before Nic Longley could get in a telling clearance, despite the high-footed challenge of Campbell Banks.

Carmody's resulting corner was flapped at by Bannatyne, and Banks, on the far post, directed the ball into the goalmouth. With Rangers' defence at sixes and sevens, Uhlmann and Eie converged on the ball, the latter taking responsibility. He also took an air-shot, the ball rolling harmlessly past the right-hand post of a decidedly relieved goalkeeper.

Bannatyne capably dealt with a twenty-five yarder from Banks in the 59th minute, but was rendered helpless a minute later by Eie once again. Aliaga - the youngster had a super game in midfield - was again the launch-pad, steering the ball to Banks on half-way. Eie was ahead of his striking partner, who promptly slid a pass forward which, when the Norwegian received it, found him in an offside position.

But when Banks released his pass, video evidence showed that Michael McKinley was keeping Eie onside ... goalwards he charged, just Bannatyne standing between the Norwegian and his, and Central's, second goal of the Grand Final. The goalkeeper didn't have a chance - 2-1 to the Aucklanders, the game transformed by an amazing turnaround in fortunes.

Bannatyne denied Eie his hat-trick goal when plucking a Carmody cross off the striker's head in the 63rd minute, from which a shell-shocked Miramar found encouragement. Longley fired a twenty-five yarder at Nicholson soon after, seconds before David Batty headed a Butterfield free-kick down and inches past Central's right-hand post.

In the 67th minute, the plot twisted once more, as Brown levelled the scores. Johnston's free-kick from the left, following a foul by Banks which saw him earn the game's only caution, was flicked on by Little for Brown, who slid in to squeeze the ball under the diving Nicholson - 2-2, and the impetus clearly swinging back in Miramar's favour.

Nicholson spectacularly tipped a Brown header over the crossbar in the 71st minute, seconds after which Butterfield blazed over from ten yards. Brown then squandered another chance to complete his hat-trick, when hooking the ball wide of the advancing Nicholson, but wide of the mark, after Batty's probing pass had seen the striker slip through on the blindside of Central's defence.

The young marksman couldn't believe his luck eleven minutes from time, Little and Johnston combining to create a chance for Brown which he slipped past the far post with Nicholson beaten all ends up.

It was to be the youngster's last throw of the dice, for he was replaced five minutes from time by Kevin Thompson. So if there was going to be a Grand Final hat-trick, Eie was now the man upon whom those hopes fell, and within a minute ...

Central had certainly been under the cosh since Miramar drew level, but they had weathered the storm, and when Hawke galloped forward down the left four minutes from time, it brought his defensive team-mates a few seconds' respite to reorganise themselves. Daniel Koprivcic came up in support of the winger, who steered the ball back to the substitute, from whom a cross into the danger zone duly emanated.

It picked out Aliaga, who, for a brief moment, found himself with a clean sight of goal near the penalty spot. But Longley and McKinley quickly crowded him out, their combined challenge seeing the ball squirt loose to their left, Aliaga's right.

Bannatyne came hurtling off his line in an instant, for to Aliaga's right lurked danger, in the form of Eie. The goalkeeper's momentum saw the striker absolutely skittled by the burly custodian as they collided, but while Bannatyne was charging forward, Eie had prodded the ball under him, and into the net it crept - 3-2 Central, and how their many fans loved it, as evidenced by the passion-filled, emotion-charged "Central Roar" which followed.

Any hopes of a further Rangers' riposte were now fast receding, time now as much of an opponent as the Auckland team. Try as they might, the Wellingtonians couldn't come again, and the sound of the final whistle brought undisguised delight to the bulk of the 2500-odd folk present.

For Central were national champions for the second time in three years, courtesy their Norwegian striker - Eie, by gum!!

2001 MATCH REPORT - 2001

Over the last ten years, clashes between Central United and University-Mt. Wellington have, for mine, come to be regarded as not-to-be-missed events - it's always the first fixture I look for when the schedule comes out at the start of any given season.

Why? More often than not, the two clubs serve up an outstanding game of football, their contrasting styles almost always ensuring a spectacle worth savouring. I've had the pleasure of covering almost all of their clashes since they first locked horns in 1993, and given my knowledge of the history of these encounters, you can imagine my delight when both qualified for the 2001 Bluebird Chatham Cup Final.

Ever since, I've had this premonition that, on September 15 at North Harbour Stadium, the New Zealand soccer public would be treated to a quite stunning cup final - thanks, lads, you didn't let me down!

Fittingly, an epic encounter finished 3-3 - fittingly because every single one of the players who took the park gave their all and then some in contributing to an edge-of-the-seat thriller which had more twists and turns than a Tom Clancy thriller.

That there had to be a loser is the lone disappointment of a quite magnificent match between two teams who kept going hammer and tongs for the full ninety minutes, then for the entire thirty minutes of Golden Goal extra time.

But a loser there was, and Central United were left, for the second year running, to claim the Bob Smith Memorial Trophy, the consolation for the beaten finalists in the Chatham Cup, a result of losing 5-4 on penalties - the same manner by which Uni-Mount had been beaten in the 2000 National League Grand Final against Napier City

Defeat thwarted Central's hopes of becoming just the sixth club in New Zealand's soccer history to clinch the National League - Chatham Cup "double". But Uni-Mount's victory means they join Christchurch United and North Shore United as sixtime winners of what remains the most sought-after prize in the code in this country.

The final got off to the best possible start, Uni-Mount opening the scoring after just eight minutes. Leigh Kenyon released Heath McCormack down the left, and the striker evaded Greg Uhlmann's challenge before whipping the ball back from the byline. Travis Medhurst took the ball in his stride and emphatically swept it home from ten yards.

Central looked to respond via a Daniel Aliaga free-kick on the quarter-hour, but his long-range free-kick forcing a save from Simon Eaddy as it skidded low through the throngs in the penalty area.

Six minutes later, the Southern Trust National League champions came closer still. Josh Stick's throw-in was flicked on by Campbell Banks to Glenn Eie, who surged forth with Banks in support. The Norwegian touched the ball inside for his teammate, who stood on the ball when ten yards out on the angle, thus losing the chance Back came Uni-Mount, Ross Nicholson fumbling a Paul Temple free-kick underneath his crossbar, then recovering to scramble the sphere to safety as Paul Bunbury and McCormack came roaring in for the kill, the sight of a loose ball akin to the scent of blood on a lion's nostrils.

On the half-hour, it was game on, big-time, as Central drew level. Eie and Banks opened up Uni-Mount on the left with slick one-two. The latter's delicious back-heel gave Eie time to pick his option, and his choice was the incoming Aliaga. At full stretch from eight yards, he prodded the ball past Eaddy into the net -1-1.

Last season's beaten cup finalists were quickly into their stride, and a gorgeous onetouch move in the 35th minute deserved better fate. Scott Greenhalgh instigated the raid, but deft touches from Aliaga and Eie - a sumptuous flick - sent Bruce Hill careering through Uni-Mount's spreadeagled rearguard.

It looked odds on that Hill would be faced with the task of slipping the ball past Eaddy, but no-one had reckoned on Temple's intervention. From the right wing, the midfielder hurtled back to aid his 'keeper, getting in a splendidly timed covering tackle to leave Hill, quite rightly, wondering "Where the heck did he come from?"

Aliaga sent a twenty-five yard free-kick narrowly over the bar at the end of the first half, but just eighty seconds into the second spell, the ball was in the net once more Uni-Mount, 2-1.

Temple - a massive game - caused all sorts of problems on Central's right before

Uni-Mount's captain let fly with a twenty-five yard piledriver, but his shot had barely travelled ten yards when it struck McCormack full amidships and spun wildly away from Nicholson, who could only stand and watch in total bemusement as the ball arced into his top left-hand corner, the goalkeeper powerless to prevent a most fortuitous goal.

Talk about the proverbial red rag to a bull! Central responded like wounded lions, as, save for one incident in the next twenty-five minutes, they dominated the creativity, and the goalscoring.

Eie was first to be thwarted, Eaddy saving at his feet in the 54th minute after Uhlmann's surging run and probing pass. Moments later, James Paterson intervened to avert the danger posed by a Brian Hawke cross, which prompted a brief Uni-Mount respite, and not the first - nor the last - controversial decision from referee Steve Sargent.

The subsequent 57th minute counter-attack by last season's beaten National League Grand Finalists had last season's beaten Chatham Cup finalists all at sea defensively, to the extent that a panic-laden back-pass from Stick had Nicholson in all sorts of bother, to the point that he had to flick it to safety with his hand.

Uni-Mount raged, but the referee signalled play-on, and Central duly did, scything their way upfield with immense incisiveness. Banks was the ultimate beneficiary, the striker cutting in from the left before unleashing a piledriver which Eaddy tipped to safety.

The pair's duel continued unabated in the next ten minutes, Eaddy first turning a rising drive from Banks to safety on the hour, after the impressive Aliaga had battled past Medhurst.

The 'keeper, like his defence, was rendered helpless by Banks in the 63rd minute, as the striker's jinking run left Uni-Mount's rearguard in complete disarray. It would have been a brilliant individual goal well worthy of the stage it was gracing, but for the intervention of Eaddy's left-hand upright, the custodian beaten all ends up.

Uni-Mount somehow managed to scramble the ball to safety on this occasion, but four minutes later, fell victim to a superb goal chock-full of one-touch passes. Hill, Eie and substitute Miro Major combined in breathtaking manner, the last-mentioned fashioning a sublime pass to Banks. The striker turned Andy Brown inside out before arrowing a thunderous drive into the top far corner of Eaddy's net - fabulous stuff!

At 2-2, and with the bit between their teeth, Central kept on coming at a resolute Uni-Mount defence. Eaddy was equal to their next effort, Eie thwarted by the custodian after the striker had been put through by Hill, on receipt of a delightful touch from Major, whose presence of mind seconds later saw space created where none existed. But Brown blocked the twenty yard drive, and Paterson prevented Greenhalgh from capitalising on the rebound in similar fashion.

But the double-chasers weren't to be denied a third goal, and took the lead for the first time in the match in the 73rd minute. Again, it was shrouded in controversy, referee Sargent allowing play to continue with Greenhalgh having taken a free-kick while the ball was still rolling. As Uni-Mount stood gaping, Eie played to the whistle, and homed in on goal. Eaddy blocked the striker's effort, but the rebound fell to Banks - 3-2.

Straight from the kick-off, Uni-Mount poured forward, substitute Stu Roberts buccaneering down the left, Greenhalgh at his heels all the way. The striker eventually got the better of his marker, and cut the ball back for Temple to unleash a twenty yard screamer, which was heading for the roof of the net until Nicholson's spectacular fingertip save turned the ball over the bar.

Medhurst took the resulting corner, and picked out McCormack in the goalmouth. The striker's deft flick guided the ball between Nicholson and a defender, and into the bottom corner - 3-3 with fifteen minutes remaining, and no sign of the fun and games stopping yet!!

Sure enough, they didn't. Uhlmann and Banks went closest to altering the scoreline before full-time, the latter's effort coming in the final minute of an outstanding ninety. Of course, that meant extra-time, but if you thought these teams would adopt a different approach to the game in light of the fact that they were now faced with thirty minutes under Golden Goal rules, you thought wrong!

When these two sides clash, the only time the word 'caution' comes into play is when the referee is issuing a yellow card, as Mr Sargent did on six occasions in this absolute rip-snorter of a match. Otherwise, it's gloves-off, no-holds-barred action, and both sides were dishing it out in spades on this occasion!

Eie was his target at the near post, and the Southern Trust National League Grand Final's hat-trick hero thought he'd done the business once more, only for Temple to hook the ball, quite literally, off the line.

Back came Uni-Mount, Ghanaian international Sanni Polo, with virtually his first touch since coming on as a substitute in the 95th minute, linking with McCormack to create an opening for Leigh Kenyon. Nicholson turned the former Football Kingz player's shot away, then blocked McCormack's attempt to steer home the rebound at the foot of his right-hand post.

McCormack and Roberts both went close with scoring attempts, before Paterson again intervened at the other end of the park, Daniel Koprivcic the defender's unwilling victim, after Aliaga and Eie had weaved their wizardry on the left.

What happened right on the stroke of half-time had to be seen to be believed - and those who were watching the match on television were denied the privilege by state television's penchant for advertisements and news bulletins, a penchant which, for some obscure reason, never seems to apply when less cerebrally challenging codes are being broadcast in the same time-slot.

Eaddy was the central figure, if you'll pardon the pun. For Uni-Mount's 'keeper pulled off a quite magnificent double save in the 105th minute to keep the cup final fever fair fizzing along.

How he even saw Aliaga's rasping twenty-yarder as it came hurtling through a forest of legs towards his bottom right-hand corner was amazing in itself, but that he managed to recover in time to turn Banks' close-range piledriver from the rebound around the post, quite simply, defied logic - it was a stunning denial!

Into the second half of extra-time, and still they pressed, although in some cases, the legs were now getting weary - hardly surprising, it must be said. Six minutes remained when Polo set sail down the left on a box to box run, Central challengers struggling to keep pace.

The Ghanaian pulled the ball back for McCormack, who fired over the top, a feat matched by Banks seconds later, as Hamish Carmody and Koprivcic combined to give their team-mate another chance to get the better of Eaddy.

With seconds remaining, Theary Thou delivered a last-chance free-kick into Central's goalmouth. On the end of it, Kara Waetford, a Uni-Mount stalwart like so many members of this side. But the defender could only direct his header at Nicholson, and to penalties we went, but not before both sides had garnered a richly deserved standing ovation from the 2000 or so present, who had witnessed a classic Central v. Uni-Mount encounter - an example of New Zealand club soccer at its very best!!

Bunbury, the winner of the much-coveted Jack Batty Memorial Trophy as the cup final's Player of the Day, took the bull by the horns, and duly converted, as did Major, McCormack - via the post, Carmody, Pearce, Aliaga, Roberts and Banks in quick succession.

At 4-4, Waetford stepped forward, and put his shot to Nicholson's left. The 'keeper dived and turned it to safety, much to the delight of Central's faithful. But midst the bedlam, referee Sargent was signalling for the kick to be retaken, his assistant, Paul Smith. having indicated that Nicholson had moved prior to the kick being taken.

It was a big call, as it could be argued that both goalkeepers had moved for all preceding eight kicks. The difference on this occasion was that a save had resulted, hence the retake. Waetford accepted the second bite of the cherry, and with Uni-Mount ahead 5-4, the pressure was well and truly on the shoulders of young Scott Greenhaleb.

If he scored, it was sudden death, but if he missed, the cup was Uni-Mount's, and Central's double dreams would be over.

One kick later, the midfielder's head was in his hands, while Uni-Mount's players were running wild with delight, Greenhalgh having prodded his spot-kick past Eaddy's right-hand post. He deserved better fate, as did Central, for defeat was something which their performance, like that of their opponents, didn't merit.

But there had to be a winner, and while the beaten side have the consolation of the Southern Trust National League championship in their trophy cabinet, the blue riband of New Zealand soccer, the Bluebird Chatham Cup, will reside at Bill McKinlay Park this summer, the last occasion it graced that trophy cabinet being in 1990, ironically the year the destiny of the cup was last decided on penalties.

2001 MATCH REPORT - FINAL

Ellerslie brought to an end the reign of Lynn-Avon United as holders of the Uncle Toby's Women's Knockout Cup at North Harbour Stadium on September 15, by downing the defending champions 1-0 in an enthralling final, the first featuring two combatants from Auckland

The first-time finalists made light of their relative lack of big-match experience, compared to that of their more worldly-wise opponents, and enjoyed the better of the early exchanges.

A quick Dana Humby free-kick allowed Maia Jackman to outpace Jennifer Carlisle down the right in the eighth minute, and on cutting into the penalty area, the right-sided midfielder unleashed a rising drive which fizzed over the top of Yvonne Vale's near post.

Lynn-Avon responded through captain Terry McCahill, who found herself on the end of a Jill Gilmore (nee Corner) free-kick three minutes later, but couldn't get enough contact on the ball to steer it goalwards.

Back came Ellerslie through Jackman, who was clearly intent on claiming her fourth cup winner's medal in this competition from as many final appearances. In the eighteenth minute, she scythed open Lynn-Avon's left flank once more, and from the byline, let loose a vicious swerving cross which initially deceived Vale.

The quickly recovering goalkeeper pawed the ball out from under her crossbar, and was relieved to see the incoming Margot Bowker failing to make decisive contact with what was a difficult headed opportunity from the rebound.

Ellerslie were certainly the more incisive combination at this point, and when McCahill felled the full-of-running Bowker right on the edge of the penalty area, it presented Humby with a free-kick chance, one which the dead-ball specialist was unable to take advantage of in the 26th minute.

Within sixty seconds, Jackman had regained possession for her side, and evaded Rebecca Parkinson's challenge before being left reeling upon taking the full brunt of another robust block from McCahill, who was later involved in another tangle with Bowker.

Before the impact, Jackman had managed to squeeze the ball inside to Priscilla Duncan, whose surging run culminated in a rasping twenty yard drive which flew past Vale but cannoned back into play off the post. Kristy Hill steered the rebound into the sidenetting.

The next fifteen minutes saw Lynn-Avon enjoying their best spell of the match thus far. Angela Vujnovich failed to make clean contact with her eighteen-yard shot when put through by Amanda Crawford, the effort being comfortably saved by Rebecca Rolls, who then watched carefully as both Amber Hearn - picked out by a superb crossfield ball from Crawford - and Sara Clapham sent the ball narrowly past the uprights in the 34th and 35th minutes respectively.

Ponderous play by Zoe Albon was punished by Clapham two minutes later, the promising young midfielder surging forward before slipping a pass through to Crawford, the Uncle Toby's Women's International Player of the Year. But before the striker could make any head-way, in stepped Ellerslie's player-coach, Sue Taylor, to avert the danger with a well-timed tackle.

Fine work by Crawford on the right set up a chance for Vujnovich five minutes before the interval, but the striker slipped at the vital moment, and the chance was lost. It allowed Ellerslie to regain possession, move upfield and force a 42nd minute corner.

Taken by Humby, it was aimed at the head of Taylor, who rose high to guide an angled downward header wide of Vale and into the bottom left-hand corner of the net - 1-0 Ellerslie, and how they celebrated the fact.

Stunned, Lynn-Avon set about restoring parity before the break. Carlisle clipped the ball over the top of Ellerslie's largely well-managed offside trap to release Vujnovich on the stroke of half-time, and the leading scorer in United's history let fly with a left-foot screamer from the edge of the penalty area.

It looked a goal all the way, until Rolls, the former New Zealand goalkeeper turned wicketkeeper, flung herself to her left and turned the ball round the post for a corner. The second half saw Ellerslie again first to hurtle out of the starting blocks, Jackman leading the charge down the right in the 49th minute. A captivating solo run from half-way (Ian Abrahams has captured it brilliantly above) saw her swerve past both Carlisle and McCahill before entering the penalty area at pace. Vale hurtled off her line and blocked the Ellerslie flyer's shot, the rebound ricocheting off Jackman for a goal kick.

A goal then could well have spelt curtains for Lynn-Avon, but back they came, McCahill's header of a Helen Exler free-kick lacking the power to beat Rolls in the 55th minute.

After Vale, Lynn-Avon's best-performed player on the day, had comfortably dealt with a twenty-five yarder from Hill, the goalkeeper sparked a United raid which culminated in an awful mix-up between Rolls and Claudia Hicks near the edge of Ellerslie's penalty area.

The ball fell perfectly for Doody, who shot at the gaping target, only to see Rolls back on her feet and blocking the shot, then completing a fine double-save by scrambling to push the ball away from both Doody and Vujnovich, who was homing in on the rebound intent on levelling the scores.

A teasing cross-shot from Crawford gave Rolls cause for concern in the 65th minute, while soon after, Duncan, whose tireless industry in the heart of Ellerslie's midfield won her the much-coveted Most Valuable Player of the Final prize, set off on a buccaneering run down the left which saw her take on and beat Exler before carving into the penalty area. A sturdy challenge from McCahill brought to an end a fine individual charge.

The combination of substitutions and tiring legs impacted on the quality of the football witnessed in the last twenty minutes, but the uncompromising challenges from both sides continued unabated literally to the very end - love was not lost in this match, make no mistakel

Otago referee Linda Ritchie certainly had her hands full, but didn't aid her own cause with a number of inconsistent decisions, particularly with regard to the application of the advantage law, and ensuring clear-cut communication within her own team - that Lynn-Avon had to wait a good five minutes to make a substitution is inexcusable, particularly when the ball went out of play at least twice in this period!

Both teams had chances in the last ten minutes, a twenty-five yard curler from Ellerslie captain Vicki Rainbow going far closer to altering the scoreline than Crawford's speculative drive from the same distance.

Not long afterwards, the final whistle sounded, much to the delight of Ellerslie's players and supporters, whose joy in winning the club's first women's soccer honour since claiming the Auckland Premier Women's Knockout Shield in its inaugural season, 1973, was, quite understandably, unrestrained.
