2002 Season Review

(by Barry Smith) National League

Averaging close to three goals a game, Napier City Rovers won the premiership by a margin of five points. The signing of Shane Smeltz from Brisbane Strikers brought an accomplished finisher to the attack and he performed with rare skill, netting 16 goals in the premiership stage and another four in the play-offs to win the golden boot award. Chris McIvor, with 12 goals, showed an uncanny knack of being in the right place at the right time while Brad Scott and Leon Birnie also caused problems for opposition defences.

Shane Cunliffe and Shaun Easthope were signed to play in midfield alongside Jimmy Cudd but injury severely restricted Cuncliffe's appearances. Without him the midfield lacked steel, hench the move, later in the season, to bring Perry Cotton into that area – a move made possible by the return of Andrew Rennie from injury.

Jonathan Taylor's defensive efforts earned him a KIngz contract and goalkeeper Steve Graham impressed local supporters sufficiently for him to be adjudged Napier's most valuable player.

Undefeated at home, Miramar Rangers suffered surprise defeats away to Waitakere, Manawatu and Tauranga. But, having lost to Central in the 2001 grand final, after winning the premiership that year, the Wellington team appeared content just to qualify as long as they ended strongly. Records will show they did just that.

The midfield area was pivotal to Miramar's overall success – Tim Butterfield, Simon George and David Batty gaining dominance was also well served on the flanks with David Johnston, in particular, adding a new dimension on his return from Denmark mid-season. His return could not have been better timed, conciding with the departure for Finland of young striker Geoff Brown. Coach Stu Jacobs had earlier expressed the hope that Brown would have eight or nine goals under his belt when he left and he fulfilled those expectations though perhaps not making quite the same impact he did in 2001. Nick Longley and newcomer Andy Hedge from England, a steady thoughtful player, were impressive in defence along with Adam Birch who free from injury for the first time since returning from a scholarship at Roanoke University in the USA, began to reveal the talent that earned him junior All White honours in 1995. But one player – Graham Little – shone out for Miramar over all others. As consistent as he was brilliant, the little Scotsman contributed not only in goal scoring but also in general play and he was deservedly voted National League player of the year.

Manawatu concluded their campaign in sixth spot, having along with Uni-Mount, made the playoff the previous season. Like their Auckland rivals they were a much-changed combination in 2002. Jeremy Brown and Jeremy Seales moved to Australia, Jon Harahap went to Miramar and Shane Cunliffe to Napier. Crickters Jamie How and Ian Sandbrook had part seasons. With responsibility of on-field leadership, Ian Robinson stepped up his game and had a commanding year, as a central midfielder. Sanjay Singh, a 1999 NZ U-17 reprsentative, impressed as a tidy and constructive sweeper. Injury restricted Mark Tesar to just 12 games but Matt Ayloff, not the tallest of centre backs, stepped into the breach and was seldom beaten.

Capital Premier

Western Suburbs won a tight race for the Capital Soccer premiership by a point from Lower Hutt City. With Lower Hutt ahead by two points and their campaign over, Wests needed to beat Petone in their final match to lift the title and responded with an emphatic 5-1 victory. Peter Satos was a significant contributor to Wests' title run with 20 goals. Future Football Kingz midfielder Raf de Gregorio came in for the last three games midway and played a pivotal roll as did midfielder Matt Wilson and goalkeeper Andrew Daube throughout the season. But Wests' best was arguable American defender Nick Haigh, a class act at the back and supplier of nine goals – chiefly through his presence at set pieces.

In a frustrating repeat of the 2000 Capital Premiership, Lower Hutt City were again forced to settle for a bridesmaid finish to Western Suburbs. The fact the Bell Park club beat Wests home (3-2) and away (2-1) showed their ability on the big occasion but they once again struggled against the premiership's stragglers and were hurt by four draws. Wairarapa United proved a case in point with Lower Hutt held to a 1-1 home draw just two days after they had eliminated the Masterton-based club from the Chatham Cup 7-0. Lower Hutt's title hopes took a further hit courtesy of a 4-2 loss in Masterton on June 29. Chilean Pedro Garcias took time to get fit but ended the season with 24 goals and the league's golden boot. Veteran Mark Foster produced 10 goals while captain Phil Patterson (player of the year) again showed his talent is wasted outside the national league.

Petone had high hopes after signing Dion Bartosh from national league outfit Tauranga City United and lived up to them when they shared the premiership lead midway through the season after drubbing Island Bay 7-2. The following week's game at Lower Hutt also produced a 7-2 score line but this time Petone was on the losing side and title hopes nose-dived. Aside from Bartosh, who finished with 17 goals, and player of the year Shane Greene, Petone had few stars so third placing, albeit nine points adrift of Wests, was a creditable effort.

Wellington United has high hopes of defending their 2001 title after nabbing highly-rated coach and 1982 All Whites Ken Cresswell from Wests. Dominic Rowe's who led United's strike force with 12 goals, the Newtown Park club lacked the firepower to compliment a steady midfield and solid defence led by the dependable veteran Imre Foldi. Midfielder Gary Minshull was again a standout and United's second top scorer with seven goals.

Waterside Karori led the premiership after season opening with 4-1 and 4-0 wins over Wairarapa United and Olympic respectively but the fast start proved a false dawn. Once Wharfies were thumped 3-0 by Wellington United in a top-of-the-table clash in round five they slipped off the pace with a lack of goals a major problem. Sam Buckle led the scoring with six goals but Waterside's tally of 26 goals was better than only Marist and Olympic, the bottom two sides.

On the surface, Wairarapa United's sixth-placing looked to be a reasonable return on the costly recruitment they undertook after winning promotion the previous year. The Hullena Park club paid for former All White Mark Cossey to commute to and from Hamilton each week along with Aucklanders Nobby Stiles and Heath Dickenson. Cossey repaid the club with nine goals, one more than Scotsman Kevin Murray who had been largely responsible for getting Waiarapa to the top-flight the previous winter. But Wairarapa's investment only masked the lack of local depth which forced the club to withdraw from the 2003 premiership once the funds had dried up. Wairarapa's low point was a 7-0 Chatham Cup thrashing by Lower Hutt City, two days before one of their highlights, a 1-1 with the same club. Wairarapa later gained Lower Hutt's scalp in Masterton.

Miramar Rangers looked destined for the chop till the completion of the national league season freed up players from the Centennial Park club's first squad. With the added depth, Rangers reserves went on to secure 14 points from a possible 18 in their final six fixtures to finish seventh, 11 points clear of the relegated Olympic. Former All White Rupert Ryan, who had been out injured for a long period of the national league season, finished the top scorer with six goals. The influx of the national league stars upset many of Miramar's rivals and promoted a review of future eligibility rules.

Island Bay United started with a creditable 1-1 draw against Lower Hutt City and finished with a 4-0 thumping of Waterside Karori. Unfortunately, there was little for the Wakefield Park club to cheer about in-between as they finished eighth, albeit a comfortable 10 points clear of the relegation zone. Coach Ian Porteous inherited a new-look squad after a host of off-season defections and would have been pleased his men conceded just 27 goals — a statistic helped by some outstanding goalkeeping from Craig Lauchlan. Salvi Vinaccia contributed seven of Island Bay's 26 goals with consistent midfielder Carl Ede adding five.

Promoted Marist cobbled together just three wins and five draws in 18 matches. Only Wairarapa United conceded more goals than the 50 Marist did despite Barry Lewis' eyecatching efforts in defence. Another telling statistic was the fact that no player scored more than three goals. As the second to last team, Marist went into a promotion-relegation play-off with Upper Hutt City, the runners-up in Division 1. Player-coach Aaron McFarland became the toast of the club after he took the field as a substitute to score the only goal of the game and keep Marist in the Premier League.

It was not long ago that a Sunday Afternoon at Newtown Park was the place to be for entertaining football. But a mass defection of players left Olympic exposed and the inexperience saw them earn just two wins and 10 points from a possible 54. A beacon among the gloom was young defender Steve Romijn whose team-high seven goals later saw him snapped by 2002 Chatham Cup winners and national league silver medalists Napier City Rovers. Jerry Packham, player of the year, and goalkeeper Paul Kotrotsos players' player received the club's awards.

Capital Premier Reserves

Petone, the 2001 runner-up, was never headed in the reserve league and finished the competition 11 points ahead of the closest rival. Maintaining a balance of youth and experience was the key to success. Benji and Simon Hall stood out with Benji being named player of the year.

Western Suburbs, a young and skillful side, earned second place despite defaulting two endof-season games.

Lower Hutt City overcame a hesitant start to climb up to third – a fair reflection of strength. Ever reliable Scott Easthope received the most valuable player award, but Peter Ung also pressed his case with several man of match efforts. The club has used the Reserve League for the development of a squad for the Napier U-19 tournament where the Green and Golds have consistently performed well in section play but have not gone much further. Perhaps a stiffening of the ranks in the Reserve League might better prepare the key youngsters for the realities of knockout football.

Newcomers Marist surprised by finishing fourth inspired by several members who had been first team players the previous year when the club won promotion from Division 1.

Waterside Karori started the season strongly with only two defeats in their first 10 games. But they lost form when Irish coach Colin McBride had to return back to his homeland midway through the season. Zac Hall was the most consistent performer while a few ex-National League players from bygone days made cameo appearances near the end of the season.

Wellington United had useful youngsters like Sven Exter, Jamie Ethridge, Tahl Theodorou and Matt de Jardine and endeavoured to support them with a raft of seasoned campaigners. But the composition of the team changed constantly, and results reflected this uncertainty in combination.

2001 champions, Island Bay United could do no better than 7th in 2002. While this appears to be significant fall from grace, in reality it is a reflection of the demand for players in Wellington city following the elevation of Marist to Premier League status. This situation is unlikely to improve with neighbours Brooklyn Northern gaining Premier League status for 2003. Matt Polaschek and Hadley Southall were two of the best Island Bay performers.

Olympic began like title contenders with nine points from three games. But the changing rooms soon began to resemble a railway station as players arrived and departed in quick order. By season's end coach Peter Halikias had used some 40 players and no team succeeds with a turnover like that. Nick Theodorou, a mid-season addition, was Olympic's player of the year while Paul Brown, one of only four players to have double digit appearances, was adjudged most consistent.

As in previous years, Miramar Rangers was represented in the Reserve League by the Wellington College 1st XI. While coach Jacques Vercauteren had no problems in fielding a settled eleven, he was without start striker Peter Halstead for much of the season and no-one stepped up to replace him. Perhaps the addition of a soccer-playing teacher, such as Marist's Aaron McFarland, might help the College at senior level.

Although never moving from the bottom of the league ladder, Wairarapa United did show character in its struggles to compete with better-endowed teams. Improvement will come when the local league players throughout Wairarapa show a willingness to meet training commitments that are part and parcel of higher-level competition.

Capital One

If there was a fairytale story in Capital Soccer in 2002, it came in the Division 1 competition, where Brooklyn Northern United, a team literally cobbled together off the street, won promotion to the Federation Premier League. The team included two Somalis, two Syrians, two Scots, an Ethiopian, a Turk a Frenchman and an Englishman.

Coach Brian Blellock credited the club's pre-season training location of Prince of Wales Park as instrumental in forming the foreign legion. He spotted half a dozen Somali schoolboys having a kick around early in the year and invited them to join him and three others at Brooklyn's low-key practice. Word soon got around the local flats and the situation snowballed. Syrian Victor Zaia, rated by Blellock as one of the more talented players in the province, got renewed interest in the game and the rest followed.

Blellock said he was walking a tightrope trying to create a playing and training environment that everyone felt comfortable in. He was caught unawares early on when a player began each game by facing Mecca and the attitudes of the young Africans to life and the game were not what he expected.

He said Somali Yahye Ali was punctual and competitive, while Ethiopian Youssof was so laid back he was almost horizontal. Ali's friend Fuad played a handful of games but the rest of the Somalians were lost as they chased weekend work on the trolley run at various supermarkets.

Blellock said the natural athleticism of the Africans was something he grew to admire. "We had a 3km run pre-season which consisted of 10 laps around the park and those two (Ali and Youssof) had lapped everyone then sprinted the last one."

Brooklyn led for the last 10 weeks of the league season, but Blellock said it was only with three rounds to go that they seriously entertained the idea of promotion. They lost just two games, with the key to success undoubtedly their defensive record – only eight goals against. Brooklyn scored just 26 goals on attack, a tally which was bettered by six other clubs, including eighth placed Kapiti Coast United.

Blellock, who is into his fourth season at Brooklyn after 10 years at Wellington United is confident the balance of his squad will be back next season, led by evergreen captain Sandy Aitchson.

The race for the minor placings was entertaining. Upper Hutt City, lead by evergreen veteran Peter Thomas emerged from mid-table halfway through the season to grab second sport. They put together a wonderful run over the last month and a half, and it was only ended in the premier league promotion-relegation play-ff match when Marist player-coach Aaron McFarland scored in 1-0 win to preserve his side's status in the top league.

In third place was the talented Tawa squad. With class players like the Musgrove brothers Jason and Hayden, Greg Parish and Ryan Sandford, Phil Crawshaw's squad was the best team on paper. However, despite some big wins and classy play, they dropped off in the run home, losing several games in shock upsets. A lack of composure and some untimely injuries were the reasons for this.

However, the biggest choker of the league was Seatoun. Coached by former softball international Wayne Nichols, Seatoun went 10 matches unbeaten at the start of the year and led by nine points at one stage. However even the MacDonald brothers Neil and Paul could not halt a horrendous second half that brought them only 4 points (including a win in their last game).

Even Wainuiomata leapfrogged them to fourth, with a solid but unspectacular team. Wainui put together a strong second half of the year, with 40, scored the league's most goals.

Kapiti Coast United was sixth, in the first year of a new club formed from the merger of Raumati, Paraparaumu and Waikanae. Inconsistency plagued them and there was further shocking news at the end of the season when standout player Garry Knott was killed in a car crash.

North Wellington was seventh, new coach Shayne Heathcote hampered by a lack of goalscoring talent until Liam Kerrisk transferred in from Olympic.

University finished eighth, again struck by deflections from school holidays when going along nicely.

At the rear of the table, newly-promoted Naenae managed to avoid the wooden spoon in their first year up. Coach Donny Stoupe will have been impressed with the way his side battled right through the year.

Last again, was Stop Out, though coach Trevor Wattam will feel there is light at the end of the tunnel. His side won three matches, their first for more than a season, and contained some promising young players. With redevelopment of the Hutt Raceway in the pipeline, things could be on the up for one of the country's former glamour clubs.

MATCH REPORT

A lack of attacking punch worried coach Mick Waitt more than the All Whites' 1-0 loss to Dunfermline Athletic last night.

Veteran striker Craig Brewster marked his debut for the Scottish premier league club with a well-taken 69th minute goal to clinch the match at Wellington's WestpacTrust Stadium.

Waitt got the tough workout he wanted in the countdown to next month's Oceania Nations Cup. But Australia will hardly be trembling when they get a look at a tape of last night's game played before a poor crowd of 3500.

Wellington's Manchester City striker Chris Killen looked likely but was limited to just two attempts on goal and was isolated up front with Aaran Lines, Paul Urlovic and second half substitute Kris Bouchenhooghe reluctant to leave their flanks.

"I'm not that worried about the result but it's a bit disappointing because in China we did create chances and to be honest I don't think they caused us too many problems," Waitt said.

"At halftime we talked about the other two up front being too wide and we did have two good chances after halftime. It's early days yet, but no excuses.

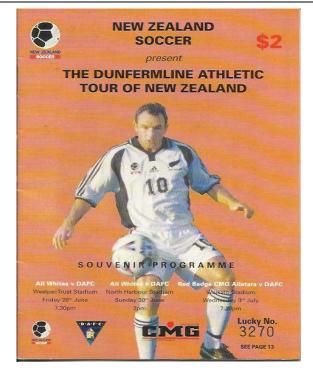

It took a lovely move to unlock the All Whites defence when Scotland international Stevie Crawford worked a one-two with substitute Gary Dempsey down the left to give Brewster a simple tap-in.

Killen hooked the All Whites' best chance wide on the hour before Mark Burton had a good chance smothered by Thomson. But Dunfermline pounced against the run of play and despite Killen's best efforts and tireless work of Chris Jackson in the midfield, the All Whites did not look capable of equalising.

Two fine saves from South African-based Wellington goalkeeper Michael Utting will give Waitt plenty to ponder with one of three custodians to be jettisoned after tomorrow's second match in Auckland.

Dunfermline won a dull first half by narrow points decision. It was a snore till Scottish winger Sean Kilgannon sent two shots whistling over the crossbar and then had a low drive tipped wide by Utting.

2002 MATCH REPORT - GRAND FINAL

Miramar Rangers atoned for their 2001 Southern Trust National League Grand Final failure on June 8, as they put Premiership phase winners Napier City Rovers to the sword at Wellington's Newtown Park, 3-1 the scoreline.

Victory was sweet for the Wellington club, whose only national successes in their ninety-five year history until this game had been two Chatham Cup triumphs, in 1966 and 1992.

For the first twenty-five minutes of this encounter, however, neither Miramar nor Napier appeared keen to lay their hands on the handsome new National League trophy - the only shot on goal of any consequence during this period was a first minute crossbar rattler from Miramar's inspirational midfield general, Tim Butterfield - the rest of the action in this spell was tedium personified!

Eventually, however, Miramar began to get on top of their Central Region rivals. A vital challenge by Perry Cotton thwarted David Batty in the act of shooting, thus concluding a slick four-pass move down the right. Jonathan Taylor then blocked a goalbound Nick Longley header, following a Butterfield corner on the half hour.

Miramar responded to Jimmy Cudd's curling effort, which careered narrowly past Jim Bannatyne's left-hand post, by opening the scoring in the 38th minute. Simon George raced to the by-line down the right, evaded Peter Howe's clutches and laid the ball back into Graham Little's path. The goalpoacher poached - his first-time drive arrowed into the bottom corner of the net, and Rangers were on their way.

Six minutes later, they doubled their advantage. After Shane Smeltz had fired a shot across the face of Bannatyne's goal, the local combination stormed forward once more. George and Little combined near the edge of Napier's penalty area, before the latter released Butterfield down the right with a superb reverse pass.

Steve Graham, Napier's goalkeeper, came to gather the cross to the near post, but George darted in, and Napier suddenly found themselves faced with a mountain to climb.

It was nearly 3-0 right on half-time, Napier scrambling clear to deny Batty the pleasure of virtually wrapping up the Grand Final with forty-five minutes to spare. The busy midfielder brought the best out of Graham just prior to the hour, as Miramar continued to press, and they were denied a third goal in the 64th minute through the offside flag, much to Little's consternation.

A little flurry by Napier followed, as they showed signs of coming back into the match - up to this point, they hadn't really been sighted as an attacking force, perhaps due to the early calf muscle injury sustained by Shane Cunliffe, which saw him depart the fray in the eleventh minute. But Leon Birnie and Smeltz both brought saves out of Bannatyne to suggest that the final wasn't yet over as a contest.

Sure enough, it wasn't, although not before Graham had produced a fine sprawling save to deny Batty's deflected twenty-five yard volley in the 72nd minute, and George had rattled the stanchion with a header from a Rupert Ryan cross four minutes later.

From the resulting goal-kick, Napier charged upfield, with Cotton playing the ball wide to Warren Gilbertson who fed David Gearey up ahead of him. The striker, who had come on as a half-time substitute, surged on, rounded Bannatyne and, from near the by-line on the most oblique of angles, fired his angled drive superbly into the far corner of the net - 2-1, game on!

Suddenly, Napier were on fire, Gearey twice forcing Bannatyne to save in the next five minutes. But in between these efforts from the Rovers' striker, Miramar struck what proved to be the killer blow, although their 79th minute match-winning effort was a somewhat controversial one, it must be said.

Butterfield's corner picked out the head of Kevin Thompson, who had come on as a substitute two minutes earlier. His header flew towards the target, and Cudd, standing on the line, in attempting to clear, sent the ball skywards.

The ball crashed back down into the field of play, but whether it hit the underside of the crossbar or the roof of the net is anybody's guess, although referee Steve Sargent, in his final season of first-class refereeing, had no hesitation in signalling a goal. Given he was better placed than most to tell, that should be reason enough not to question the official's judgment.

Miramar squandered a chance to rub salt into Napier's wounds seven minutes from time, when Little was hauled down from behind by Taylor when in the act of shooting. As the Napier defender was the last man, a strong case for a professional foul could have been made, but referee Sargent merely pointed to the penalty spot, and left it to Little to extract suitable revenge.

But the runner-up to Napier's Shane Smeltz in the Adidas Golden Boot stakes failed to do so, Graham flinging himself to his left to turn away the spot-kick, and give his side hope that perhaps all was not yet lost. Soon after, it was, much to the undisguised delight of the players and officials of Miramar Rangers - New Zealand soccer's champion club in 2002.

2002 MATCH REPORT - FINAL

NAPIER CITY ROVERS got their hands on a piece of New Zealand soccer silverware when they beat Tauranga City United 2-0 in the Chatham Cup final at Park Island, Napier, yesterday.

Napier led the national league for most of the season but could not get past Miramar, who won the final in Wellington. Yesterday, Napier made amends in a tense tussle.

They used the width of the pitch to their advantage but it was Tauranga who threatened to score early on with two clear chances in the first 10 minutes. The first was mulled by a weak shot but the second produced a brilliant save from Napier goal-keeper Steve Graham.

Tauranga goalkeeper James Pamment was not so quick when Napier defender Jonathon Taylor sent a long aerial pass through to Leon Birnie in the penalty area and his looping header lobbed over Pamment's head and into the net to open the scoring.

The second spell was a muddled affair with neither side gaining control or authority in midfield

Napier coach Charlie Howe made a bold call when he subbed All White striker Shane Smeltz and Birnie for Brad Scott and David Geary. The new pair combined to take Napier out to 2-0 on fulltime.

Geary received the ball in space and slipped a delicate pass into Scott's path and the striker's drive left Pamment with no chance.

Defender Peter Howe was aggressive and quick to bring the ball up for Napier in the second spell and lively Chris McIvor carried too much pace on the flanks for the Tauranga defence but received too few opportunities.

Birnie worked hard before being substituted. while Tauranga striker Justin Creighton stretched the Napier defence with his pace.

 $\label{thm:charlie-def} \mbox{Charlie Howe said after the game that his midfield gave the ball away too much.}$

"It was an intense game, nothing flash but Tauranga did well," Howe said. "Perry Cotton had a strong game for us in defence, as did Jonathon Taylor. Perry held the defence together as he has done so much this season."

Cotton, Howe's assistant coach. a former All White and a member of the Napier sides that won the double in 1993 and 2000, said it had been a typically tight final. "The players were nervous to start with and you could see that," he said. Tauranga captain Paul Probert agreed. "You've got to congratulate Napier for the way they played. They had a little bit more polish than us and we didn't quite have the finish when we needed it."

Probert, appearing in his third cup final, said yesterday's game was his last. "That's it for me but there were a few young players in our side who'll be in a few more finals yet."

2002 MATCH REPORT - FINAL

For two hard-fought hours on July 21, Ellerslie and Lynn-Avon United gave their all and then some in an epic Uncle Toby's Women's Knockout Cup Final at Bill McKinlay Park

That there were no goals did not do justice to a marvellous encounter, the final outcome of which deserved to read 3-3, 4-4 or higher still. As it was, five hundred-odd folk were treated to a thrilling scoreless spectacle, made so by some outstanding goalkeeping, amazing misses and resolute defending by players of both teams.

But after those two gruelling hours, with the sides still locked together on the scoreboard, it came down to the cruellest method of all to separate them, and Lynn-Avon usurped the cup holders 5-3 on penalties to claim the trophy for a record-equalling third time.

The early exchanges were, like the rest of the match, fairly even, Sue Taylor firing a twenty-five yarder wide of the mark for Ellerslie in the fifth minute, while Stephanie Puckrin saved at the feet of United's Hayley Moorwood six minutes later, after the ball had got stuck under the feet of the lively midfielder following Dana Heiford's near-post corner.

nne Vale then produced the first of the saves which ultimately earned her the much-coveted MVP award of the 2002 final. A fine Ellerslie build-up, featuring Michele Keinzley, Kristy Hill, Melanie Gooch and Vicki Rainbow, culminated in a rasping angled thirty yard drive from Taylor which Vale spectacularly tipped over the crossbar. From Rebecca Sowden's resulting corner, the goalkeeper plucked the ball off the head of Hill.

Back came Lynn-Avon, Moorwood feeding Terry McCahill, who sent Amanda Crawford scampering through Ellerslie's rearguard on the quarter-hour. An instinctive first-time drive had Puckrin back pedalling frantically, but the ball flew narrowly past the 'keeper's left-hand upright, and the cup holders breathed again.

Puckrin then smothered a Rachel Doody drive, before another flying save from Vale thwarted Keinzley, the goalkeeper tipping the striker's effort over the crossbar after Lill Summerfield's early ball forward had caught McCahill napping.

Amber Hearn and Rainbow exchanged shots on goal before the half-hour mark which gave neither goalkeeper cause for concern, but Puckrin was off her line like a cat ten minutes before the interval to save at the feet of Crawford, who had been slipped through Ellerslie's offside trap by Melissa

at Bill McKinlay Park, Auckland, 21 July 2002

Referee: Graham Whitford

Assistant Referees: Alex Paterson & Sam Tompsett

Lynn Avon United won on penalties 5-3

Keinzley and Sara Clapham then fired volleyed efforts on goal which had both goalkeepers looking on with relief as the ball whizzed narrowly past the woodwork on each occasion, while right on halftime, Puckrin produced a fine save low to her left to thwart Clapham, who had met a Crawford cross on the volley.

The second half continued in the same helter-skelter fashion, neither side giving an inch, yet giving everything and then some in a gripping final. Within two minutes of the resumption, both teams had close, Puckrin blocking at the feet of Crawford, and Keinzley rifling a drive into the sidenetting, after Gooch had battled hard to secure possession on the right.

Moorwood then sent Crawford cruising through the heart of Ellerslie's defence, the front-runner finding no-one within ten yards of her. With Puckrin to beat, the seasoned SWANZ striker let fly with an unexpectedly early shot which dipped over the goalkeeper but crashed against the top of the crossbar five minutes into the second spell.

After Gooch had spurned a grand chance to set up Keinzley, Clapham slipped Crawford through once more. Dana Humby came to Ellerslie's rescue on this occasion, but Kirsty Yallop was quickly onto the rebound, only for Summerfield to clear her goal-bound shot to safety in the 55th minute.

Back came Ellerslie, the speedy figure of Gooch leading the charge two minutes later. A stunning turn by the striker gave her two yards on her opponents, and she took full advantage before letting fly from the edge of the penalty area. The save Vale produced, late and low to her left, was phenomenal - had she missed it, Ellerslie would have been celebrating.

Instead, they were left to rue the presence of New Zealand's foremost goalkeeper once more, in the 67th minute. Vale's perfect positioning meant the save she made from Sowden's curling free-kick looked routine, and she immediately sparked a Lynn-Avon counter-attack.

Clapham was on the charge as a result of her team-mate's raking clearance, and she found herself with just Puckrin to beat. The goalkeeper stood her ground and saved splendidly at the feet of the young goal-getter, who quickly pounced on the rebound and drove the ball goalwards

Lynn-Avon were already beginning to celebrate when Hill appeared from nowhere to hammer the ball off the line and into touch - if her team-mates were in need of inspiration at this point in the game, their uncompromising colleague had just given it to them with bells on!

Last season's runners-up weren't keen on tasting defeat for a second successive occasion, however, and in the 75th minute, Crawford, of all people, squandered what, by her standards, was an absolute

A raking free-kick from McCahill sent the striker clean through on goal, and she swept past Puckrin to leave mere air between herself and the gaping target. "That's it!", thought many, but no! On the stretch, Crawford's shot flew up and up, and hit the top of the crossbar - unbelievably, the scoreline

And it remained so till the end of the ninety minutes, although Lynn-Avon were denied a scrambled goal in stoppage time by referee Graham Whitford. So to "Golden Goal" extra-time, during which two of the substitutes, Ellerslie's Kim Rowney and Lynn-Avon's Jennifer Carlisle, shone like beacons both performed outstandingly in the taxing additional half-hour of action, which, like the ninety minutes before it, was incident-packed.

McCahill was homing on a Heiford free-kick when Rowney got in a vital headed clearance on the 100 minute mark, while sixty seconds later, Puckrin produced a stunning double save to thwart Crawford

The latter then screwed a shot wide of the target when put through by the solidly-performed Melita Harrison ten minutes from time, before the former Three Kings United star produced a goal-saving tackle to deny the rampaging figure of Keinzley five minutes from the end, after she had bulldozed through United's tiring rearguard.

Doody, who had enjoyed a tremendous tussle throughout the entire match with Pip Meo in the individual duel of the final, then thwarted Keinzley in timely fashion three minutes from the end, which, when it came, meant one thing - penalties,

It's a cruel way to determine the outcome of any cup final, particularly when one considers that neither combatant had conceded a goal in any of their games leading up to this showdown. But the rules being what they are, a winner there had to be. Crawford, Puckrin, Harrison - via the post, Humby and Hearn all found the mark, before Sowden stepped up to make it 3-3.

She didn't, shooting straight at Vale, and immediately handing the initiative to Lynn-Avon. They didn't relinquish it, for, after McCahill and Keinzley had exchanged successful spot-kicks, Heiford - a superb choice as United's final penalty-taker of the first-choice quintet - drilled home the ball to secure a third Uncle Toby's Women's Knockout Cup for her team
