2013 Season Review

by Dave Webster

National League

Hawke's Bay United were the best of the Central \ Capital region teas in the National League, finishing fourth and making the playoffs. Sean Lovemore lead the attack with 10 goals for Chris Greatholders's team. They went down 1-4 & 4-6 to Waitakere United in the playoff semi final.

Team Welington missed out on fourth place by three points. Matt Calcott's men lacked consistency managing only three wins in a row once.

Youngheart Manawatu had another season to forget, it started with well with a 3-0 win over Otago United. After that though Stu Jacob's team managed only one more win, 3-2 over Waikato FC. By that time they were cemented at the bottom of the league. It was the third year in a row that the franchise had finished in bottom place and as a result they were removed from the league and will play 2014 as a youth team.

National Youth League

Team Wellington did the best in the youth league getting four wins and finishing third in the Southern section. Youngheart Manawatu managed just one draw as they finished bottom. While in the Northern Section Hawke's Bay United got two wins and finished fourth.

Central League

The Central League had its closest finish since it was re-introduced in 2005, with Miramar Rangers piping Wellington Olympic for the title by the slender margin of just one goal. Miramar finished their season with a 3-3 draw against Olympic. Olympic's last game was against Petone and they needed to win by five clear goals to take the title. Olympic won the game but the final score of 5-2 wasn't enough and Miramar Rangers won their second title in three seasons.

Miramar had picked up Englishman Paul Ryder from Wairarapa United and Solomon Islander Henry Fa'araodo from FC Nelson. Ryder scored an outstanding 22 goals in 15 games, while Fa'araodo got 11 in 17 games, They suffered only one loss all season, 2-1 to Napier City Rovers and seven times they scored four or more goals in a game.

Olympic won their first seven games in a row and had a couple of big wins including 9-2 v Upper Hutt City and 8-2 v Wairarapa United. Andrew Abba with 12 and Colm Kenny with 10 led the goalscoring. While they were the top scorers in the league it was the three games they lost where they failed to score that effectively cost Mick Waitt's team the title.

Western Suburbs finished just three points off the pace. A slow start saw them win only three of their first eight games but then only one loss in the last 10 games saw them rise to third place.

If it was goals you wanted to see, Wairarapa United were a good option to watch. Nine times Phil Keinzley's team were involved in games that had four or more goals, including 5-0, 6-0 & 7-0 wins and 1-5, 3-5 & 1-8 losses. Suere Soromon top scored with 13 goals.

Napier City Rovers used 32 players and struggled for consistency not managing to get a run of two games with the same result until the end of the season when they managed three wins and a draw to finish comfortably in fifth place.

Brendan McIntyre's Lower Hutt City were another team that used a large number of players, 32 in all. While they had a couple of big wins, including 6-0 against rivals Upper Hutt City, it was draws that they specialised in, getting eight in all and finishing the season with a 4-4 draw against Napier City Rovers.

Despite having two players, Richard McClay (14) and Jono Blair (12) getting into double figures on goals, Petone let about the same amount in at the same end and finished in seventh place.

Upper Hutt City struggled in defence conceding four or more goals on eight occasions and finishing the season with the most goals against in the league with 57. They picked up just four points in their last nine games but with their four wins in the first half of the season it was enough to see them finish in eighth place.

Tawa started the season with a 1-1 draw against Wairarapa United and then went on to lose 13 games in a row and looked destined for relegation. But then they managed seven points in their last four games, including a crucial 2-0 win over fellow strugglers Wellington United saw them survive, finishing in ninth place with just eight points.

Wellington United had a new coach in Graham Little. They opened a season with a 2-2 draw at Lower Hutt City, but after that they only managed a 3-1 win over Tawa and finished the season with four points and will be playing in Capital Premier next season.

Capital Premier

It was Stop Out's year in the Capital Premier league, they lost the third game of the season 2-0 to Wainuiomata, but that was the only one they suffered in the league and they scored goals for fun four times scoring six or more goals in a game. Joe Gaughan leading the way with 27 and Miroslav Malivuk with 11. They were unable to keep the run going when they met Palmerston North Marist in the play off for Central League going down 4-3 on aggregate.

Island Bay United were another team that scored goals for fun, six times getting five or more in a game. Jamie Mason netting 25 goals for James Prossers men. Dropped points from two losses and four draws saw them finish in second place but ahead of Waterside Karori on goal difference.

Waterside Karori spent all season in the top three of the league but two draws in the last five games saw the Ian Porteous coached team drop to a final placing of third. Jo Sutherland top the scoring with 13 goals.

Miramar Rangers Reserves were plagued by the high turnover of players that occurs with reserve teams, using 39 in all. This lead to an inconsistent season best shown by two weekends in the middle when they beat Wellington United 10-0 and then lost 7-0 to Stop Out. They got some consistency at the end of the season with three wins and a draw which saw them finish in fourth place.

Petone Reserves, Wellington Olympic Reserves and Victoria University all had average seasons with slightly more losses than wins and all finished within one point of each other.

Marist's five wins and a draw looked as though they'd be enough for the Brian Blellock's men to stay up in eighth place, but when Stop Out failed to win the playoff it meant three teams would be relegated as a result Marist faced a playoff against Capital One third place team Seatoun which they lost 3-2.

Wellington United Reserves spent most of the season on the bottom of the table and used 41 players and although they managed two wins in the last four games it wasn't enough and even if it had been they would have been relegated as their first team was relegated from Central League.

Wainuiomata had two wins in their first four games and that was it, they went 10 games with out winning one and finished the season with just nine points.

MATCH REPORT

The All Whites' faint hopes of qualifying for next year's World Cup in Brazil were killed off in emphatic fashion by Mexico's Oribe Peralta tonight.

The Mexico striker scored a first half hat-trick as the visitors claimed an entertaining 4-2 win in the second leg of the World Cup qualifier in Wellington.

4-2 within the second leg of the World Cup qualifier in Weilington.

A ruthless Mexican side won the tie 9-3 on aggregate to progress to their 15th World Cup in front of 35.206 largely white-clad hopefuls.

The clever movement of Peralta, who also scored twice in the first leg, was simply too good for New Zealand's centre backs, and he struck in the 14th, 29th and 33rd minutes for a 3-0 halftime lead.

All Whites coach Ricki Herbert's eight-year tenure ended at the fulltime whistle after he announced he would not be seeking an extension on the eve of the match. Herbert unleashed an attacking XI, including debutant Storm Roux, but after a bright start they were ruthlessly exposed on the counter-attack by the world's No 24 side. Peralta's guile and pace bamboozled the All Whites defence, while midfielder Carlos Pena was also excellent.

As he did at the Azteca, All Whites midfielder Chris James grabbed a late goal, this time from the penalty spot in the 80th minute.

James, born in Lower Hutt and with his sister in the stands, struck into the top right corner before wheeling away to celebrate with the boisterous home fans.

Kosta Barbarouses had won the penalty by surging in the box to force a handball by Mexico captain Rafa Marquez.

And Rory Fallon - the hero from 2009 - volleyed in a cross with his left boot two minutes later to make for a rousing and spirited finish.

But Pena had the last say with a deserved goal of his own in the dying stages. Jeremy Brockie earlier had a penalty saved by Moises Munoz in the 40th minute. Brockie won the penalty when he was brought down in the box by Munoz, but he seemed to rush his spot kick and shot at a comfortable height to the keeper's right. It would have made for a nice story if he'd scored but the All Whites should have allowed the clinical Shane Smeltz to take the penalty.

Nonetheless the near sell-out crowd were in good spirits and optimistically chanted "we want four" before kickoff in glorious footballing conditions.

"we want four" before kickoff in glorious footballing conditions. The home side made a predictably fast and furious start and it was ironic that in Herbert's last game in charge they tried to play their most attacking football. It was good to see them have a go but while Barbarouses and Marco Rojas were dangerous, the high pressing game was also high risk.

For his first goal, Peralta timed his run perfectly in behind Kiwi skipper Tommy Smith, meeting Pena's well waited through ball, finishing calmly over the advancing Glen Moss.

The second came on the counter when Luis Montes put Miguel Layun in space and the left wing back crossed for Peralta to tap in.

Pena and Peralta connected again four minutes later to twist the knife as Moss exploded with frustration.

But the second half at least provided some cheer before Herbert waved goodbye to Wellington for the final time.

After the match, Herbert signed off as coach in his typically stubborn fashion. "I'm very pleased how we went about it" Herbert said when asked if he had any regrets of not blooding younger players or implementing more attacking tactics earlier in the World Cup cycle.

"I go out with my head really high and very, very proud actually."

He also accused members of the media of "vendettas" and "personal sort of agendas" before again deflecting talk back to the last World Cup.

"I might be wrong but I'm the first New Zealand coach to do it, [get to a World Cup] so that's pretty special for me. But I think there's been incredible sort of jealousy from certain areas of the market, that have never wanted to accept that success." Herbert again defended his tactics from the 5-1 first leg defeat and said his players had not properly executed the gameplan.

He denied a social media report claiming that he had not addressed the full team unit since last Thursday's loss in Mexico City.

"One, totally incorrect; two, we've had a number of meetings. I'm not here to worry about a player's opinion. Probably someone who hasn't played tonight."

2013 MATCH REPORT - GRAND FINAL

Waitakere United clinched a record fourth consecutive ASB Premiership Grand Final triumph at Fred Taylor Park on St. Patrick's Day, coming from behind to down tenman Auckland City 4-3 after extra time in a thrilling "Old Firm" derby.

On a day the earth moved in the Queen City, United began the match by forcing Auckland onto the back foot from the outset. Inside twenty seconds, Chad Coombes had charged down an Ivan Vicelich clearance, with Roy Krishna latching onto the rebound before threading the ball through to Coombes, who pulled his shot across the face of goal.

Two minutes later, Ryan de Vries played Krishna in on the left, and the Fijian striker hit the crossbar with a teasing cross-shot, which preceded some typical derby fare - a few willing tackles, most notably in the sixth minute, when Alex Feneridis became the first of four first half bookings in an incident which saw both Sam Mathews and Gustavo Souto requiring treatment.

City were gifted the lead in the sixteenth minute. Matt Cunneen - he had a horror first half - directed a pass straight to Manel Exposito, who gleefully raced forward before ramming the ball beyond the diving figure of Danny Robinson.

Within seconds, City were on the hunt for a second goal. Albert Riera spread play wide to Exposito, whose fast feet accounted for Aaron Scott and allowed the scorer to surge forth once more before threading a pass through for the chasing figure of Souto. Robinson raced out to save at his feet.

Waitakere gradually worked their way back into the contest after that setback, and drew level on the half-hour with a cracking strike. Jake Butler sprayed the ball wide to Coombes, who curled an exquisite cross with the outside of his right foot towards the far post.

Krishna, its target, controlled the sphere neatly on his chest, before swivelling as it dropped to send an angled half-volley arrowing into the top far corner of the net - a stunning strike, well worthy of such a stage as the Grand Final.

The equaliser rocked City, and only a deflection prevented Krishna from finding the net again two minutes later, following a cleared Coombes free-kick. But that was nothing compared to what followed seconds later, Coombes corner to the near post being met by Allan Pearce, whose angled header to the far post found the net despite Riera's attempts to head it off the line.

2-1 to United after 33 minutes, but there was plenty of drama to come in this barnstorming Grand Final. Indeed, just three minutes later, Scott produced a vital tackle to prevent Exposito from scoring a near-instant equaliser, after Daniel Koprivcic had slipped Souto in between defenders to get to the by-line and whip in a low cross which was missed by Robinson.

Back came Waitakere, Scott and Krishna combining with de Vries, whose splendid back-heeled pass invited Coombes to hold up until Pearce loomed up in support, the striker's subsequent low drive being parried to safety by Tamati Williams six minutes before half-time.

The second spell saw United on the front foot initially, with another Coombes freekick being cleared to Butler, whose deflected shot was eventually gathered by the diving figure of Williams, the 'keeper having initially plunged to his right before recovering to save to his left in the 53rd minute.

Krishna and Coombes - he had a terrific game - both went close soon after, while a cheeky chip of Williams by de Vries, after Coombes and Krishna had combined to play him in, deserved better fate in the 62nd minute.

City were struggling to get a grip on proceedings at this stage, but they managed to get a toe-old in the 68th minute, Bale having moved into midfield a few minutes beforehand as Simon Arms took over his central defensive duties.

The newcomer played the ball to Exposito on the left, and his neat turn took him inside Scott and allowed him to present Souto with a chance. He wriggled through three challenges before curling an eighteen-yarder inches past the far post.

Two minutes later, concerted pressure from Auckland saw Adam Dickinson, Koprvicic and Riera all probing before Robinson tipped an acute-angled drive from Bale round bis pear not.

City were gathering momentum, however, and in the 74th minute, they drew level. Riera picked out Bale, whose switch of play to Exposito allowed the Spaniard to scythe inside before burying a beauty beyond Robinson from the edge of the penalty area - 2-2, and more goals a near certainty.

Auckland should have regained the lead two minutes later. Dickinson angled a ball inside Tristan Prattley for the overlapping James Pritchett to stride onto. His low cross found Souto lurking with intent, but his shot through Tim Myers' legs was splendidly anticipated by Robinson, who launched the ball downfield.

Cue drama. Arms and Krishna got involved in a bit of an arm wrestle - not the smartest thing the central defender could have done, as he was the last man. After consulting with his assistant, referee Peter O'Leary revealed the red card, prompting

Arms was the only one to see red, however, his departure reducing Auckland to ten men for at least the next thirteen minutes, possibly longer. And they were further hampered in the 84th minute when, with Vicelich left reeling by a Coombes challenge, Krishna combined with de Vries, only for Williams to divert the latter's effort into the sidenetting.

Come the 90th minute, and with extra time looming large, the ten men took the lead once more. Andrew Milne pinged a corner beyond the far post for the now recovered Vicelich, who headed it into the goalmouth. United failed to clear their lines, and Bale slammed home a close-range volley - City, 3-2.

Immediately, the board went up to indicate a minimum of six minutes of stoppage time would be played. Inside the first of them, Waitakere drew level. Prattley's gorgeously weighted cross found Krishna careering through the inside-right channel, and the ASB Premiership's Golden Boot winner expertly guided a header over the stranded figure of Williams - 3-3!

Could more drama arise before the final whistle? You'd better believe it, especially when these two great rivals lock horns. We had barely sixty seconds to wait before the 39th "Super City Derby" was graced by one of its finest saves.

Stung by having lost a lead they had enjoyed for barely a minute, City stormed forward from the resumption, with Riera and Milne combining on the left. The fullback skipped inside before delivering a delightfully measured cross into the stride of Souto, who had the goal at his mercy.

How Robinson denied the striker with his legs in the second minute of stoppage time in this epic encounter, only he will know - the game was up for grabs, again, at that moment.

Back came Waitakere, with both Krishna and Pearce - a piledriver - being thwarted by Bale in the fourth minute of stoppage time, before Auckland were denied what looked a clear-cut penalty sixty seconds later, as Dickinson went down under the challenge of Myers.

The full-time whistle sounded, allowing all present the chance to draw breath and prepare for thirty further minutes of Grand Final derring do. Would the eleven men make their additional player count? Or would the ten men stun the odds? Indeed, given the number of bookings they'd already received, would City still have ten players on the park come the final whistle?

Luiz Del Monte entered the fray at this point, taking over from the best player of the ninety in Coombes. And the newcomer's first contribution saw him deliver a 96th minute corner which ultimately saw de Vries fire a shot narrowly over the bar.

Four minutes later, the scoreboard changed again. Another Del Monte corner this time found Pearce ghosting in at the near post, and as with his earlier goal, his glancing header found the net again - Waitakere, 4-3.

Surely City couldn't come back again? They certainly tried to, with Souto denied by the legs of Prattley in the 107th minute. Then Krishna, clear on the right, saw his low cross parried by Williams, but no one in a white shirt reacted faster to the loose ball than the blue-clad figure of Pritchett-danger averted.

With five minutes remaining, Jordan Vale's buccaneering run was curtailed by the back-tracking figure of Pearce, who instantly brought Milos Nikolic into play. The substitute sent Krishna careering through with just Williams to beat, a player the striker rounded to leave himself with the goal at his mercy. The side-netting bulged, and Auckland breathed again.

With two minutes remaining, City's last chance materialised. Milne's corner to the far post found late substitute Emiliano Tade rising high, but he couldn't guide his header under the bar, the cue for Waitakere to begin celebrating an unprecedented fourth successive ASB Premiership crown, the 2012-13 season concluding with a terrific finale between the competition's greatest clubs.

2013 MATCH REPORT - FINAL

Cashmere Technical stunned Waitakere City 3-1 in the ASB Chatham Cup Final at Christchurch's ASB Park on 15 September to bring the trophy back to the club for the first time since their predecessors, Christchurch Technical, won it way back in 1948

Spurred on by a partisan 2,600-strong crowd, the local side enjoyed the ideal start when opening the scoring from the penalty spot in the sixth minute. City fullback Kodai Hayashi felled Julyan Collett in the area, prompting referee Nick Waldron to point to the spot, from where Danny Boys sent Eamon Goodin the wrong way.

Waitakere, who had initially threatened through Denver MacDonald, went close in the twelfth minute after Sam Redwood's free-kick was neatly controlled by Roy Krishna. He laid the ball off to Rory Turner, whose surge into the area was thwarted by Tom Schwartz's timely tackle.

Three minutes later, City drew level. With the sun behind him, newly capped All White Jake Butler drove a free-kick into the defensive wall, but reacted swiftly to the rebound, lashing a thunderous twenty-five yard volley beyond the flailing fingertips of Shaun Roberts, whose cause wasn't aided by the fact the sun rendered him largely unsighted.

1-1 then, but only for eight minutes, at which point Stu Kelly took advantage of a ricochet off him following an attempted clearance by Tim Myers. The striker surged into the penalty area before coolly slotting home beyond the diving figure of Goodin to restore Cashmere's advantage.

That strike stunned City, and a Cory Mitchell thirty-yarder just after the half-hour mark nearly gave the Auckland side a real mountain to climb - it cleared the crossbar by an ever-decreasing margin, the opportunity having been generated by Collett's inspired raid.

Krishna was largely well contained by the Cashmere defence, but every so often he would escape their clutches, such as in the 36th minute. His bursting run culminated in a pass to Turner, who picked out MacDonald. He held the ball up in the area before setting up Butler, whose low drive was blocked by Shawn O'Brien

An at times rugged encounter saw referee Waldron brandish the yellow card on four occasions, all to Cashmere players, much to the crowd's ire. However, one of those yellows could easily have been red - Kelly can consider himself very fortunate to have remained on the park after he clattered into Redwood near the corner flag in the 41st minute.

City's response to this, two minutes later, rattled Cashmere - at least, their crossbar. MacDonald and Krishna combined to release Turner on the left, from where he cut inside past three opponents before unleashing a curling twenty-yarder which crashed off the woodwork to safety.

Turner squandered an even better opportunity nine minutes into the second spell, after City contrived the move of the match to open up Cashmere's defence. An interchange of passes between MacDonald, Butler and Krishna around the edge of the area culminated in the last-mentioned slipping Turner through a gaping hole to leave him one-on-one with Roberts.

What happened next ... one suspects Turner will be thinking about what might have been throughout the summer, had he not adopted the "America's Cup lean" and skied his curling effort over the bar, and instead targeted the 'postage stamps', the areas of the goal only the very best goalkeepers manage to reach when diving to save goalbound shots.

After Redwood had gone close with a headed effort from an Imraan Shah free-kick, Goodin was guilty of some awful goalkeeping on the hour, failing to take responsibility for a driven Jack Caunter cross into his six-yard box.

Myers cleared the initial threat, but Mitchell drove the ball back into the box, prompting strong calls for a penalty as a City defender appeared to handle the sphere. Referee Waldron indicated it struck the chest, however, much to the local fans' disappointment.

Goodin parried from Mitchell soon after, while twenty minutes from time, a blocked Butler drive fell perfectly for Shah to unleash a volley which Roberts parried then gathered before the incoming figure of Krishna could swoop on the loose ball.

The challenges were flying in thick and fast by now, with Waitakere's increasing urgency as they pursued an equaliser matched by the resolute defending of a Cashmere side which enjoyed the backing of the vocal locals, who cheered with no little irony on the handful of occasions referee Waldron afforded the Christchurch side the benefit of the doubt.

Cashmere threw on their substitutes in a bid to freshen things up in the final fifteen minutes, and it was to pay dividends at the death. Andrew Barton's driving run and cross, intended for Kelly, was well anticipated by Goodin six minutes from time, while after Roberts had grabbed the ball under intense pressure following Butler's stoppage time free-kick, a cleared Waitakere corner saw Cashmere spark a counter-attack.

Jamie Smith's raking angled ball forward, from deep inside his own half, found fellow substitute Dan Ede in yards of space on the left, with Goodin, who was miles out of goal, the only player standing between him and Chatham Cup glory.

A deft long-range lob ... cue joy unconfined, as Cashmere clinched the Cup at the death to crown the career of retiring veteran Andy Pitman, the winner of the Jack Batty Memorial Trophy as Cup Final MVP.

2013 MATCH REPORT - GRAND FINAL

Auckland City claimed a third consecutive OFC Champions League title - and their fifth in all - at Mt. Smart #2 on May 19, seeing off arch-rivals Waitakere United 2-1 to book a trip to Morocco for the FIFA Club World Cup Finals in December.

Having seen their cross-town rivals claim the domestic triple crown - ASB Premiership, ASB Premiership Grand Final and ASB Charity Cup - this season, City were hell-bent on preventing Waitakere from hoarding all the silverware out west, and set about the task with a vengeance from the first whistle.

Throughout the opening half-hour, United were chasing shadows as City dominated possession and bossed the game in a manner one rarely associates with New Zealand football, given the tendency to play long balls forward at almost every opportunity.

Ball retention and precise passing were Auckland's twin fortes throughout this opening period, engineering their first opening from a short corner in the eighth minute.

Alex Feneridis exchanged passes with Albert Riera before delivering a cross which Adam Dickinson inexplicably missed. Fortunately for City, Chris Bale was racing in behind him, and hit the ball flush on the volley, forcing a fine blocking save by Danny Robinson.

When Bale next let fly, on the quarter hour, his volley flew high, wide and far from handsomely past Robinson's goal. But from the resulting goal-kick, United quickly gifted City possession, and paid the price.

Manel Exposito, who took to the field in honour of his grandmother, who died suddenly during the week, weaved his way in off the left flank before unleashing a cross-shot which took a wicked deflection off a defender to send the ball goalward-bound.

Robinson's reflexes were razor-sharp, and he kept out the ricochet, but unfortunately for the custodian he succeeded only in diverting the ball into the stride of Dickinson, who slammed home the opening goal in the Waitakere were still reeling from that setback when the uphill task facing them steepened significantly further four minutes later. Exposito was again the outlet for City's attack, and this time when he crossed, Dickinson was his target, with Daniel Koprivcic lurking beyond the targetman lest he dummy the ball.

Dickinson had no such intention, however, controlling the ball before rolling it into the stride of Feneridis. From twenty-five yards, and with the sun right behind him, the midfielder let fly with a fulminating half-volley which sizzled past the partially unsighted figure of Robinson en route to the top corner of the net - 2-0.

It was a double blow from which Waitakere struggled to recover. The largely anonymous Roy Krishna fired United's first shot in anger in the 22nd minute, but Tamati Williams was little troubled by the effort, one of only two of note which the West Auckland outfit engineered during the opening half.

The other, five minutes before half-time, halved the deficit. Auckland had continued to dominate possession after their double-strike, but Waitakere slowly but surely worked their way back into the game, and when Jake Butler lobbed the ball over the defence, Krishna nipped in behind to beat the offside trap before setting up Chad Coombes for a tap-in - 2-1, game on.

The second half began in much the same fashion as the first, with Auckland enjoying the majority of possession. Exposito unleashed a twenty-five yarder at Robinson, before working a one-two with Koprivcic which saw the Spaniard dash deep into Waitakere's penalty area before rattling the stanchion by the near post as he attempted to beat the OFC Champions League's Golden Gloves winner.

United enjoyed the bounce of the ball in the 58th minute, a Coombes back-heel ricocheting off a retreating City player straight into the stride of Krishna as he dashed down the right. His shot rattled the side-netting next to Williams' near post.

Sixty seconds later, fortune wasn't so kind to Waitakere, as Tim Myers committed his second bookable offence of the game. Having earned the ire of referee Peter O'Leary for a rugged foul on Koprivcic just after the half-hour, the challenge which felled substitute Darren White prompted an instant flag from referee's assistant Jan-Hendrik Hintz, followed soon after by the yellow card once more, then the dreaded red.

It was a blow which United could ill afford, as City's passing game is perfectly suited to exploiting numerically challenged opponents on the counter-attack, an approach they were swift to employ.

Within four minutes of the dismissal, only a timely Aaron Scott tackle prevented Exposito from taking full advantage of having caught Brian Shelley in possession, while seconds later, Takuya Iwata sent Exposito scampering down the left before steering the ball inside for Dickinson, who burst into the penalty area, only to blaze the ball wildly wide of the near post.

United rode their luck again in the 66th minute, as City again hit them with a counter-attack. White rampaged down the right before driving in a low cross which Robinson could only parry - not ideal when Exposito and Feneridis are closing in with the chance to score the clinching goal in a match worth $US 500,000 - the FIFA Club World Cup Finals qualification prize-money - to the winners.

Thankfully for Waitakere, Scott was again on hand to avert the danger, although his clearance, while effective, wasn't exactly how its prescribed in the textbook - the ball cannoned off Exposito for a goal kick, yet it could so easily have ricocheted into the gaping goal ...

More City pressure materialised in the form of a Feneridis corner in the 69th minute. His delivery picked out Ivan Vicelich, who was almost unbeatable in the air in this match, a late first half clash of heads notwithstanding. On this occasion, City's captain sent an unchallenged header flashing past the far post.

Had United conceded then, there would have been no way back for them, but they clung to the hope that another goal would at least earn them extra time, and were given hope when Krishna had an effort ruled out by the offside flag as the game entered its final twenty minutes.

Try as they might throughout this period, however, Waitakere could find no way through the Vicelich-inspired Auckland rearguard. Short of throwing the kitchen sink at City - and no doubt that was contemplated - the ten men tried everything they could think of to fashion an equaliser.

But City, urged on by their ever-vocal supporters, rebuffed them at every turn, and when the final whistle sounded, there was jubilation aplenty among those of a navy blue persuasion - Auckland were Oceania's champions yet again.
