2000 Season Review

(by Jeff Adams) National League

In 1999, the two New Zealand Island soccer leagues were run to replace the National Summer Soccer League which had finished at the end of the 1998 season. The two leagues, one for the North Island (the NISL) and one for the South Island (the SISL) were followed by a play-off between the two champion sides to determine the national champions.

The games were mainly played during winter, in direct contrast to the previous summer league.

The format proved to be both controversial and unpopular, and so from 2000 a New Zealand National Soccer League returned.

Participants in the 2000 league were the top seven teams in the 1999 NISL and the top three teams in the 1999 SISL. The National Soccer League was launched for the third time in 2000 as the National Club Championship. Like the original in 1970, it was played during (mostly) winter months and a promotion and relegation system was used.

In the first season, a bonus point was awarded for scoring four or more goals in one match but that system was dropped in subsequent seasons. The championship play-offs system at the end of the league was the major difference when compared with the competition launched in 1970.

Seven teams, participating in the first edition, came from the NISL (Central United, Waitakere City, Napier City Rovers, Mt Wellington, Miramar Rangers, Metro and Manawatu AFC) and three came from the SISL (Dunedin Technical, Nelson Suburbs, Woolston WMC).

The three Central Region Teams were:

Napier City Rovers who finished second in the league were the National League playoff Champions beating University Mount Wellington in the final 4-2 on penalties (0-0 AET). They also made the semi-finals of the Chatham Cup in the year 2000 but lost 4-1 to Miramar Rangers.

Napier had a very good squad. Their top scorer was Martin Akers with 9 goals in 20 games, closely followed by Leon Birnie (18 games) and Chris McIvor with 8 goals (19 games). Perry Cotton was a very good Player-Coach for them also playing in 20 games. Jimmy Cudd also had an outstanding season that year. Mark Paston was their goalkeeper and another important squad member.

Their best league win was in their first league game of the season beating Dunedin Technical at home 4-0. They only ever lost at home and by one goal and in only 5 games.

An excellent season for the Hawke's Bay side.

Manawatu finished fourth in the National League. A very good finish for the smallish area they are. Trevor Nutter was their coach and did a good job for them in the year 2000. Duncan Lowry, Ian Robinson and Jeremy Seales were their rocks, all 3 playing in 19 games. Jeremy Brown, Shane Cunliffe, Cameron Jones, Tristan McCormack and Mark Tesar were others who contributed greatly to their fine national league season.

In the Chatham cup however they were eliminated early when they met a strong Wellington Olympic team but only lost 1-0.

Their best league wins were 3-0 over Christchurch (at home), 4-1 against Metro (at home) and 3-0 against University Mount Wellington (at home). Their only really heavy loss was a 4-0 loss to Central United (away). All in all a very pleasing season for the Manawatu lads.

Miramar Rangers finishing in eighth place was a little under whelming for the Miramar club. They had a top coach and player in Stu Jacobs, but scoring goals were of concern that season.

They had a few quality players like ex Sheffield United player Tim Butterfield, Gary Minshull Dion Adams and Wiremu Patrick. But lacked prolific goal scorers. Curtis Bernard being their top scorer with just 6 goals.

They had a goal difference of -5, 28 scored but 33 against. Their best result a 4-0 win over Metro (away). But a few heavy losses also 0-3 to Dunedin Technical and 0-4 to Napier City Rovers did not help. And so they finished down the ladder in 8th place. Not what one would have expected from the usually strong Miramar Rangers club.

Capital Premier

Western Suburbs were winners by just one point but that was enough to secure the 2000 Capital Premier League. They won 13 of their 20 games. Coach Andrew Eales did a fine job of keeping them strong throughout the season.

Their defence was solid and that ensured they never needed to secure large wins. They conceded just 24 goals. But they also had a couple of good strikers and goals coming was generally assured. Martin Disley 11 goals and Tony Meinen 9 goals were super. Dene Mckay in midfield was a good and Greg Parish played in all 20 games. The only one to do so.

As a team they scored 5 goals in 3 of their matches against Island Bay, Miramar Reserves and Upper Hutt City. An excellent season for West's Lower Hutt City finished second in the league, just a solitary point behind Wests. But for a couple of losses in July to Waterside Karori 3-4 and Western Suburbs 1-2 was their downfall in that regard.

But they like Wests had a very strong side. Three top scorers in Janes (9 goals) Mays (8 goals) and Kevin Stone (10 goals) meant they scored the most goals in the league. But they had other influential players in Mark Foster, the Patterson brothers and Alec Wilson. Tom Randles was their coach in the 2000 season and could be proud of what his team achieved, just short of a champion ending season.

Waterside Karori ended In third place in the year 2000.

With players like Tony Buick-Constable Steve Conroy, Craig Riddle, Ben Coney and Ryan Trenberth in their side they were always going to title contenders. But 5 losses and 4 draws meant to many points were dropped to win the title.

But Terry Oughton and later Bruce Duncan who coached did well enough ensuring they made 3rd place.

Miramar Rangers Reserves fourth place in 2000 seems a little low when you exam their squad. Dion Adams, Geoff Brown, Tim Butterfield Matt Calcott, Carl Ede, Jamie Farrington and Nasser Mohammed were all class players. But around them in the 2000 seasons were very many younger players making up the gaps.

Top coach Dave Farrington did his best but I think the club were trying to bring some of their younger players through rather than aim to win the title. A 6-2 win over Tawa would have been a season highlight.

Paraparaumu United a fifth place would have pleased coach Phil Crawshaw. From their small catchment area they rallied a good squad. With players like Paul Bleyanga, Peter Jeffery, Bevan Holdaway (6 goals) and Peter Vine they had the Skeleton of a good side.

And they were hard to beat particularly at home. With some more goal scorers they probably would have been serious challengers. But they did well with what they had.

Petone had a mid table sixth finish. They had some good players but some were only available infrequently. Besim Balicevac, Danny Blackbourn (8 games), Grant Turner (9 Games).

In Paul Whitmarsh (8 goals) and Mike Gendall they had a couple of scorers but others did score in those sort of numbers.

Others to mention were Jonathan Winkworth and Jamie Smith who played in all 20 games. Coach Grant Turner would have hoped he might of been able to finish higher but it was a very competitive league in the 2000 season.

For Olympic seventh was something of a rare sight. They had a huge squad of available players but they never really fired under coach Ian Porteous who was a former top professional in Scotland. They had a good keeper in Paul Kotrotsos and he only conceded 21 all season.

But I think it was scoring goals that Olympic lacked. The aging Chris Christie top scored with just 8 goals. But he did not have the service he had in past seasons.

They had some experienced players - Ian Adamson, Jared Curtis, Basil Mitrakis Paul Kotroutsos and Jeff Sole. But there was definitely something missing, and I think it was scoring goals.

Island Bay United's eighth place finish was not probably where the Italian enthused side wanted to be. Brian Johnstone scored 14 goals which was great in this league but the next best scorers only scored 4 each. Tony Maresca and Duncan Edwards.

They had good squad with Salvi Vinaccia in midfield, Craig Thompson in goal, Barry Lewis in defence. But like Olympic they just coul not get the results wanted in any regular fashion.

Tawa was coached by top coach Bill Bradley to finish ninth was disappointing really. It was a very competitive league, but Tawa had handy players like Richard Martin, Rocky Rogan and up front Nigel Searancke (4 goals). But to many goals conceded (51) and just 25 scored says a lot really. You have to score goals to be among the top sides.

North Wellington was coached by Bruce Polyanzsky it was a long season with a tenth place finish. Like the other clubs mentioned just above, goal scoring was lacking to finish higher. Brian Bullen top scored with just 5 goals. And that alone said much really.

Not a season to remember but a 3-2 win (at home) over Miramar Reserves would have been a happy highlight.

Upper Hutt City were eleventh and bottom. Not the place where any team wants to finish. But someone has to. Scott McLead as coach was very experienced, but could only manage to squeeze 3 wins all season out of his team.

Jeff McKenzie (5 goals) and Craig Meiklejohn (6 goals) did well scoring, but the defence was full of holes and conceded 51 goals. They did have 3 wins over good opposition. 2-0 over Olympic (at home), 3-0 over Waterside karori (away) and a close 4-3 win over Western Suburbs (at home) and they were their happy moments.

Capital One

Wellington United were comfortable winners of the capital One league in 2000. Derek McKillop was there coach and he did well, the team not losing a game all season. Imre Foldi (22 goals), Mark Clare (17 goals) and Jason Pine (10 goals) were prolific. Mark Wala, Karl Ttiefenbacher and Ron Zonneveld were also stand outs.

Brooklyn Northern United (BNU) finished runners up. Coached by Brian Blellock they were consistent all season only losing 3 games all season. Rob Mallon up front was great, smashing in an outstanding 23 goals. Keith Morrison with 12 goals from just 14 games was also brilliant. Probably one of BNU best seasons since they were a top club as Northern in the 1960's.

Kapiti Hearts were third losing just 3 games. Their 8-0 hiding against Stop Out in their second game terrific. Scott Meacham and Adam Steinmetz top scored. Coach David Wright did a good job making them consistent all season.

Seatoun were fourth. And two 4-0 wins over Stop Out and Waikenae in July were probably season highlights, and if I know the club well, the wins were well celebrated post match.

Wainuiomata were in a mid table fifth. The well known Sean Kelly was their coach and Mark Manzone (15 goals), Scott Kelly (9 goals) were top scorers and coach Kelly also scored 3 from 3 games he played. Ralph Chenery was another important team member as was Stephen Jones.

Marist were also mid table finishing sixth. The fantastic Marist club man Kevin McGrath took on the coaching role and played also (scoring 2). Chris Bland top scored with 15 goals from his 16 games. Mark Crowhurst and Tim Ratcliffe were also important to the team.

Victoria University seventh were competitive as usual. Mark Ewing with 13 goals from 15 starts was excellent for them. A 5-2 win over Wairarapa United away may have been a great result because Wairarapa were usually a hard nut to crack for visitors.

Wairarapa United eighth found the away games difficult, losing 8 of them. A 1-6 loss to BNU would have hurt, as would have their 1-7 loss to champions Wellington United. But they battled hard under coach Mark Taylor and scored 36 goals, but defence was their problem letting in 50 goals.

Stop Out were ninth. A very poor finish for a once top Wellington Club. They had a huge base but quality was low and goal scoring non-existent in 10 of their games. A major shake-up needed for the once proud club coached in 2000 by Stephen O'Conner.

Waikanae were outclassed and finished with the wooden spoon. Coach Shane Robertson found himself in a top league with little in the way of class to boost their team. Just 14 goals scored all season but a whopping 94 conceded. That says it all really.

Capital Reserves

Eleven Reserve teams took part in the 2000 Season.

1. Upper Hutt City 2. Western Suburbs 3. Petone 4. Island Bay 5. Olympic 6. Waterside Karori 7. Lower Hutt 8. Miramar Rangers (Wellington College) 9. North Wellington 10. Tawa 11. Paraparaumu United

Top of the Reserve league was Upper Hutt City who finished one point in front of West's Reserves. Petone, Island Bay and Olympic Reserves filled the top five places. Mid-table were Olympic Waterside Karori, Lower Hutt and Miramar Rangers. And below them in order North Wellington 9th, Tawa 10th and Paraparaumu 11th and wooden spoon holders. There were some quality players in this league namely Stu and Ali James (Upper Hutt), John Barton, Bruce Walker (Island Bay), Greg Kempt and Tony Morrison (Lower Hutt), Rupert Crump and Trapper Rogan (Miramar), Harry Kotsapas (Olympic) Ben Feld, Phil Neal (Paraparaumu). Gary Romijn and Mike Ramaekers (Tawa) and Matt Carnihan (Wests).

Central Premier

There was also a Central Premier League made up of 10 teams from outside of Wellington but inside the Central Region.

Those teams were: Manawatu Reserves, Havelock North Wanders, Napier City Rovers Reserves, Moturoa, Taradale, Gisborne City, Wanganui Athletic, Palmerston North Marist, Red Sox Riverside and Wanganui City in that finishing order

2000 MATCH REPORT - GRAND FINAL

The longest-running saga in New Zealand domestic soccer got even longer last night before Napier City Rovers clinched the inaugural national club soccer championship 4-2 in a penalty shootout over University/Mt Wellington.

The shootout at North Harbour Stadium, after 120 minutes of tense football had failed to produce a goal, finally ended a week of turmoil - on and off the field. In a game which struggled to get out first gear at times through the first 90 minutes but came to life under the threat of what would have been a match deciding "golden goal" in extra time, a penalty shootout was perhaps appropriate as the top two sides from the Ansett national club championship season played each other to a virtual standstill.

In the end. Napier, who had been taken to extra time and a penalty shootout a week earlier and then played another 90 minutes on Thursday in the controversial replay against Dunedin Technical fully deserved their win. It was just reward for their persistence and ability to lift themselves when leaden legs had long cried enough. "We were dead on our feet" said Rovers captain Martin Akers as he celebrated the first leg of what he hopes will be a club championship-Chatham Cup double. "It was hard work but Mark Paston [in goal] and the back four were awesome." And when it came to the shootout Akers was in no doubt his side would win. "We had a practice run last Sunday [in the later null-and-void win over Tech] and like I said then, I told the boys Paston would save two."

The former All Whites' keeper duly obliged when he saved University/Mt Wellington's first two penalties.

With Akers, Perry Cotton, Paul Jackson and fittingly, Jonathon Taylor who had been the lynchpin of Napier's defensive effort, hitting home without fail, the trophy and winner's medals were headed south.

The opening 45 minutes, punctuated by 32 freekicks, produced few chances, but the second spell came to life with the visitors having seven scoring attempts to University/Mt Wellington's two.

A solid rearguard effort led by Graham Pearce kept University/Mt Wellington In the game and saw them through to extra time where both teams were all too aware that a golden goal would decide it.

Napier midfielder Ricky Ravenhilll could have spared everyone the agony of extra time and more when he broke clear in the dying minutes but shot wide. In extra time Jeff Campbell had a couple of chances and set up his University/Mt Wellington team-mate Leigh Kenyon for another. while assistant coach Andy Brown, whose 79th-mlnute introduction sparked some life into his team, had another. Kara Waetford came closest when his header, 25-minutes into extra time was cleared off the line.

"We did everything but score," rued University/Mt Wellington coach Clive Campbell. "I was proud of the guys but It is always a hard way to lose."

Napier will be back at the stadium this Saturday to square off against Central In the Chatham Cup. It gives Akers, and others, the chance of a double-double after being a member of the side that won both seven years ago.

2000 MATCH REPORT - FINAL

Napier City Rovers completed the "double" for the second time in eight seasons on September 9, overcoming Central United 4-1 at North Harbour Stadium to clinch the Bluebird Chatham Cup, just six days after overcoming University-Mt. Wellington at the same venue to clinch the Qantas (formerly Ansett) National Club Championship.

"The Blues" third Chatham Cup triumph - they first won the highly coveted prize in 1985 - owed much to an outstanding performance from midfield dynamo Jimmy Cudd, who deservedly collected the Jack Batty Trophy for his man-of-the-match display.

He it was who broke the deadlock in the fourteenth minute of a highly attractive spectacle, this despite the appalling playing surface which these two football-oriented sides were forced to endure.

This rocked Central, who had settled the better of the two sides to this point. And within four minutes, the Auckland side was left with a mountain to climb, as Napier doubled their advantage.

Chris McIvor broke down the left as Scott Pilcher fired over a cross from the right, targeting Martin Akers. Neither the striker nor Gareth Rowe and the incoming Noah Hickey made contact with the ball, which fell perfectly at the feet of McIvor, whom Hickey had left completely unmarked as he attempted to head clear. The midfielder deftly controlled the ball before slamming it into the roof of the net from a tight angle.

At 2-0, Napier were cruising, with Cudd capably directing operations from the flight deck. Central had no answers to the orchestrations of the much-travelled midfielder, who was ably assisted by McIvor and Akers in carrying out "The Blues" game-plan to perfection.

The best Central could muster in response to Napier's four minute double-strike was a twenty-five yard effort from Mark Elrick, which Mark Paston dealt with at the second attempt.

It was no surprise when the National Club Champions extended their lead still further nine minutes before the interval. Akers' donkey-work in attack saw him ultimately lay the ball off for Ricky Ravenhill, who certainly appeared to be in an offside position when the ball was played through to him.

While Central appealed, the Barnsley import played to the whistle, and drilled his shot across Nicholson and in off the far post - 3-0, at which point the many "Blues" fans who had travelled north went into serious party mode.

They were almost celebrating a fourth goal within seconds, Cudd sending McIvor spearing through Central's shell-shocked rearguard. The midfielder fired this opportunity straight at Nicholson, who saved a low cross-shot from Pilcher three minutes later, this via the legs of Michael Ridenton, after the Napier man had been picked out by Wayne Atkins' crossfield pass.

Such was his frustration at the way things were going for his side that Central's attacking lynchpin, Fred de Jong, had been guilty of a number of niggling fouls, the persistence with which he was infringing finally forcing referee Derek Rugg to issue him a yellow card two minutes before the interval.

Right on the break, de Jong was finally afforded the opportunity to create a worthwhile opening for Central, and his threaded through-ball released Hill on a forward break down the left. His attempted lob of Paston was turned over the crossbar by the advancing goalkeeper, thus confirming Napier's 3-0 advantage at the break.

Central made a couple of changes at half-time, reverting from their standard 3-5-2 formation to 3-4-3, and throwing on Brian Hawke and Stephen Mack in a desperate attempt to salvage the game.

Within seconds of the restart, the ploy appeared to promise plenty. Hawke careered down the left at pace, and whipped in a cross which Hill sent flying past the near post with a diving header. Hawke himself rattled the sidenetting in the 49th minute, after Matthew Vuksich's through ball.

Within a minute, Central were on the board. De Jong and Ridenton teamed up deep, the latter knocking the ball forward for Hickey, breaking down the right. His first-touch was superb, while his low cross was steered home at the near post by

As it turned out, the game, as a contest, lasted just six more minutes. Another de Jong tackle of marginal nature was one too many for referee Rugg, and he banished the talismanic striker to the dressing rooms for the remainder of the final.

Without their experienced frontline lynchpin, Central's fightback plans took on K2-like proportions. At a time when imagination was required in abundance, none was immediately at hand, and, after Paston had saved at Mack's feet in the 66th minute, the game gradually drifted away from the Auckland side.

Napier continued to press on, and had the ball in the net in the 72nd minute, after Akers and McIvor had interchanged passes down the left. The former's shot cannoned off the base of Nicholson's right-hand post, but Paul Jackson's gleeful celebrations, upon sweeping home the rebound, were quickly curtailed by the sight of the offside flag.

"The Blues" didn't have too much longer to wait before they could start their double-winning celebrations, however. Nicholson capably dealt with a McIvor effort seconds after Jackson's effort, but was unable to keep out the first touch of substitute Leon Birnie fifteen minutes from time, the substitute steering home McIvor's low cross to the near post, after the midfielder had broken to the byline on the left on receipt of Atkins' pass.

At 4-1, there was no way back for Central, although you wouldn't have known it. For they poured forward in search of another goal from the restart, and were desperately unlucky to see Mathew Urlovic's piledriver crash off the base of Paston's right-hand post, with the incoming Mack directing the rebound against the same upright as the goalkeeper watched helplessly.

Eight minutes from time, Vuksich curled in a free-kick which Rowe, rising high, headed across Paston. Unbelievably for Central, the ball cannoned back into play off the left-hand post, and Urlovic skied the rebound.

4-1 it remained, although Birnie came close to adding a fifth goal in stoppage time, lobbing the ball over Nicholson but just over the crossbar as well, after Cudd - who else? - had released him through Central's rearguard.

Moments later, the Chatham Cup, and a second league-and-cup double, was Napier's, much to the delight of their travelling supporters, whose efforts earned the appreciation of the Napier players at the after-match function, by way of a applauding guard of honour at the door as their fans filed out

The gulf in women's soccer between the northern region and the rest of the country was emphasised in emphatic fashion at North Harbour Stadium on September 9, 2000, as International Wire & Cable Lynn-Avon United battered Wairarapa United 6-0 to win the Uncle Toby's Women's Knockout Cup for a second time.

The Bluebird Northern Premier Women's League champions made up for their penalty shoot-out defeat by arch-rivals Three Kings United in the Auckland Women's Knockout Shield Final three days prior by recording the biggest-ever margin of victory in the final of the national knockout competition.

Lynn-Avon set about the task of keeping the cup in Auckland with a vengeance. Wairarapa goalkeeper Amy Cotterill saved at the feet of Amanda Crawford within seventy seconds of the start, Angela Vujnovich outpacing Lisa Gibson to supply the cross.

Cotterill was almost guilty of putting through her own net in somewhat bizarre fashion in the third minute, after Crawford and Melissa Wileman had worked a short corner on the right. The latter played the ball to Jill Corner, whose lob into the box was touched past the bemused goalkeeper by Melissa Reber.

The ball hit the post and rebounded towards Cotterill, who, amazingly, kicked it goalwards, but was able to smother the ball right on the line to thwart Lynn-Avon on this occasion.

She had less joy five minutes later. After smothering Crawford's shot, following a strong run by the SWANZ striker, Cotterill was left gazing helplessly as the international's twenty-five yard drive seared past her en route to the top right hand corner of the net in the eighth minute.

The early goal enabled Lynn-Avon to settle, but in doing so, they allowed Wairarapa back into the game. After saving Nicky Smith's twenty-five yard effort in the seventeenth minute, Yvonne Vale gifted possession to the newly-crowned International Young Player of the Year with a woeful clearance two minutes later, who struck a first-time shot towards the open goal some thirty yards away.

Much to Vale's relief, the ball swerved to safety on this occasion, but Lynn-Avon's last line of defence wasn't given much opportunity to recover her poise, as a thirty yard screamer from Wairarapa's player-coach, Wendi Henderson, needed saving solidly two minutes later.

The Central League champions, who had enjoyed an unbeaten season prior to this match, kept pressing for an equaliser, Smith's header of a Gibson corner being blocked by Dana Heiford in the 27th minute. Rachael Calvert's attempt to convert the rebound was deflected to safety.

Two minutes later, another Gibson corner - her fourth in succession in this sequence of play - was cleared to Smith, who fired a drive through the crowded penalty area which Vale was right behind. A similar effort from Henderson was capably dealt with by the goalkeeper on the half hour, as last season's beaten finalists continued to strive for parity before the half-time whistle.

It wasn't to be, however, as a Lynn-Avon goal against the run of play ten minutes prior to the interval knocked the wind out of Wairarapa's sails. After Melissa Wileman had spectacularly missed the ball completely on receipt of a Crawford pass, namesake Reber showed her team-mate the road to goal in the 35th minute.

Latching onto Crawford's through ball, the two-goal hero of Lynn-Avon's Shield Final efforts three days prior careered past Mandy Hall's challenge before sweeping the ball inside Cotterill's near post to double the Auckland side's advantage.

It was a blow from which Wairarapa never recovered, and Lynn-Avon should have had a third goal right on half-time to emphasise the fact. Vujnovich's low cross from the right targeted Crawford - she had a whale of a game, and richly deserved her recognition as Most Valuable Player.

Her lay-off to Rebecca Parkinson saw the youngster's shot parried into Heiford's path by Cotterill. Unfortunately, the midfielder couldn't direct the rebound on target on this occasion.

The second spell was largely one-way traffic. After what, by Crawford's standards, was an awful miss - she shot wide with just Cotterill to beat after Parkinson sent her clean through in the 48th minute, the striker got her geometry spot-on three minutes later, her powerful run down the left from half-way culminating in her slamming the ball inside Cotterill's near post from fifteen yards - 3-0.

Last year's beaten finalists were still reeling from this blow when Vujnovich went close with a shot on the turn from inside the penalty area. And, following a brief respite when a strong run and shot from Henderson was smothered by Vale in the 56th minute, the northern representatives forced a fine double-save from Cotterill on the hour, Crawford and Wileman those thwarted by the shot-stopper.

Wairarapa's goalkeeper was left totally exposed in the 64th minute, however, as Vujnovich scampered through a square defence down the right in pursuit of Crawford's through ball. There was no stopping the striker as she careered goalwards, and around Cotterill she ran before calmly rolling home the fourth goal of the game.

After Vujnovich and Heiford had forced saves from Cotterill, Vale produced a fine diving save to her left to deny Michele Keinzley's twenty yard effort, after Pip Meo, Wairarapa's best performer on the day, had broken down the left.

A rasping Smith drive from twenty-five yards cleared Lynn-Avon's crossbar by not a lot seconds later, while the same player sent the ball sizzling wide from just outside the penalty area in the 72nd minute, after an initial break by Keinzley.

She it was who forced Vale to turn her shot onto the bar ten minutes from time, following Gibson's deep corner, seconds after Heiford, with two team-mates free to her right, had squandered a great chance at the other end of the park, the playing surface of which left a great deal to be desired, given the occasion.

There was no stopping Lynn-Avon, however, and nine minutes from time, Crawford crowned her personal tour de force with another solo effort, taking the ball all the way through before rounding Cotterill and ramming the ball into the empty net from close range - 5-0.

Sharleen James prevented Crawford from notching a fourth goal two minutes later, heading to safety as Reber's cross entered the danger zone, this after the midfielder had been released by Wileman.

Substitute Amber Hearn and Parkinson both rattled the sidenetting in the remaining minutes, while a cross-shot from the latter sizzled across the face of goal in the dying seconds. And with the last touch of the ball in the match, veteran midfielder Lyn Pedruco headed home from close range to conclude in appropriate fashion a memorable Lynn-Avon United performance - no-one can deny that winning a national cup final 6-0 is certainly that!
