2022 Season Review

by Dave Webster

W-League

The 2022 W-League was an odd, disjointed season with a combination of COVID, bad weather and a late withdrawal from the W-League, disrupting the season meaning several teams didn't play more than 2-3 games in row before having a break.

The late withdrawal was Wairarapa United. Last season's coach Paul Ifill had left as had a few players, some to other clubs and some to University in the USA. As a result, Wairarapa dropped down to Division One for the 2022 season. Despite attempts by Capital and Central Football to get another team in, none were prepared to with the short notice and so the W-League was again a seven-team league.

It was Waterside Karori's season, going through the league unbeaten and breaking Wellington United's dominance of the W-League. Coach Sam Morrisey had a good off season recruiting last season's player of the year, Kennedy Bryant from Wairarapa United and Renee Bacon from Dunedin Technical. They also scored a coup recruiting Football Fern Anna Green, but unfortunately, she only made one appearance due to picking up an injury. They started the season with an 11-0 thrashing of Victoria University and didn't look back the only points they dropped were in a 1-1 draw with Seatoun at the end of the season when they had already secured the title. Renee Bacon led the scoring with 15, while Kayley Ward chipped in with 10.

Palmerston North Marist under new coach Cam Smith, managed to do the double over Wellington United a team they hadn't managed to beat since 2019. They had two losses to Waterside Karori, two surprise 1-1 draws with Seatoun and a 4-1 loss to Petone and that saw them finish in their familiar runners up position for the third year in a row.

Defending champion Wellington United struggled with departures and injuries, coach Maika Ruyter-Hooley unable to field the same starting line-up at any time during the season. Of the 28 players they used during the season only five made it into double figures for appearances. They lost four games and drew one, something they hadn't done in the league since 2017. Young defender, Lara Smith was called into the New Zealand U17 team and attended the World Cup in India.

Petone were another team with a new coach, Ryan McGlinchley taking the reins. Like last season they managed to take points of every team in the league except the Champions, Waterside Karori. However, an inability to string more than two wins in a row together led to them finishing in 4th place. Rebecca Otte top scored with 17 goals in the league and cup.

Seatoun were again the team that used the least number of players with just 22, although they were a revitalised team under new coach Luis Villegas Beron, picking up draws with the top two teams Waterside Karori and Palmerston North Marist (twice) while making Wellington United work very hard for a 1-0 win. The club has also managed to add to the number of women's teams, now having three in all divisions.

Victoria University struggled up front managing just 10 goals all season, while conceding heavily at the other end, eight times they concede four or more goals in a game and conceded 53 in all. Their only wins against Seatoun (1-0) & North Wellington (2-1) saw them finish in 6th position.

Last season's Capital Premier winners, North Wellington, knew it was going to be a hard season and they didn't manage a win until the last game of the season when they beat Victoria University 2-1. Due to postponements, they had the unfortunate occurrence of meeting league champions Waterside Karori twice in a week, games which they lost 10-0 & 5-0. Despite finishing last, due to the league being just a seven team one, they will remain in the W-League for 2023.

Women's Premier

After three seasons of finishing in second place, the Wellington United Sapphires took the league by storm. There only loss coming at the end of the season when they had to default due to a fixture clash with the National Schoolgirls tournament. Coach Guillermo Schiltenwolf led a young team with an average age of just 18. They knew how to score goals scoring five or more in seven of their games, Liv Deane, who was named player of the year for the league, led the way with 20 goals. At the other end the defence was miserly conceding just four goals on the field.

Upper Hutt City had a new coach in Tori Schiltegen, who had been in charge of Women's football at the Ole Academy, finished in second place losing just one game all season and drawing three. Ashleigh Gill top scored for the team and the league with 25 goals. As Wellington United Sapphires couldn't be promoted, Upper Hutt City earned the right to playoff for a spot in the W-League with Taradale, the Central Region champions, the club however, opted not to take this up and will play in Capital Premier again next season.

Kapiti Coast United, pushed Upper Hutt City close for second place, but after a 16-0 thrashing of Western Suburbs they could manage only two draws and a loss in their last three games which saw them finish in third place. Long-time club stalwart, Vannessa Addy top scored with 18 goals, taking her to 151 goals in total for the club.

Newcomers North Wellington Reserves suffered from the usual reserve team issues and used 31 players during the season. They struggled with consistency winning the first two, losing the next four, winning three, and then picking up just one win in the last four games.

Brooklyn Northern United, who have established themselves as a mid-table team in recent years, did exactly that finishing in fifth place. In previous seasons they tended to beat the teams below them and lose to the teams above. They changed that trend this season picking up points against Upper Hutt City, Kapiti Coast United & North Wellington but surprisingly dropped points against Island Bay United & Victoria University.

Victoria University Reserves took four games to register their first points and were another team that struggled with a high turnover of players, using 28 in total. The highlight of the season was to 8-2 victories over Western Suburbs.

Island Bay United started with two draws in their first three games but after that could manage only two more wins on the field all season, they did get a third win when a 1-0 loss at North Wellington was reversed to a 3-0 victory to them due to a rule infringement. Azalia Cowlin led the scoring with seven goals.

League newcomers, Western Suburbs, found the step up from division one football a step to far and lost all their games. They managed just eight goals while conceding 105. They struggled for depth having one of the smallest squads in the league using just 22 players.

Cups

Kate Sheppard Cup

With the 2021 final having taken place in March, it was pretty much straight back into the competition.

Miramar Rangers entered for the first time since 2010 but the Division Two side was no match for W-League Petone who ran out 14-0 winners in the first round.

The big match was in the third round when cup holders, Wellington United travelled to Palmerston North Marist. An entertaining match ended 2-2 and Palmerston North Marist won 6-5 on penalties.

Palmerston North Marist then beat Waterside Karori, 1-0, in the next round before being beaten 5-2 by eventual winners, Auckland United, in the Semi-Final.

Kelly Cup

New Zealand's oldest women's football trophy, the Kelly Cup, celebrated it's 50th season. Having undergone several format changes over the years, it is now played as a pre-season competition for teams in W-League & Capital Premier.

Waterside Karori set the tone for their season getting to the final by beating Upper Hutt City 11-0, Seaton 6-0 & Victoria University 12-0. They met the defending cup holders, Wellington United who had only played one game before the final, receiving two defaults before beating Palmerston North Marist 2-0 in the Semi Final.

In the final goals to Kayley Ward and Eve Barry gave Waterside a 2-0 win to win the cup for the 4th time in their history.

Executive Plate

Due to an increased number of teams in the women's leagues the Executive Plate wasn't played for in 2022

MATCH REPORT

Ten years on from scoring both goals in the 2012 edition of this time-honoured fixture, Martine Puketapu was the match-winner once again as Auckland United edged Northern Rovers 1-0 in the NZ Football Foundation Kate Sheppard Cup Final at North Harbour Stadium on September 11.

"Super Marty" was a fourteen-year-old when her brace bagged the cup for Three Kings United a decade ago, since when much has happened in her life - injury, international honours and an ill-fated US scholarship which prompted her early retirement from the game among them.

But after an experience which reignited her love for the game earlier this year, Auckland, the club into which TKU has morphed, asked Puketapu if she would help them through a challenging season, during which they were set to lose over half their young squad at various times of the campaign due to international requirements, scholarship departures and futsal commitments.

Her rewards for doing so were to finally realise two personal milestones for her club - 100 appearances and 100 goals, fittingly reached in the same fixture at the end of July - and once more score the winning goal in the biggest fixture in New Zealand women's club football.

Things would likely have been a tad different, however, had the other former player United lured out of retirement to help shore up their ranks hadn't been on the park. Without the presence, influence and experience of former Football Fern Katie Duncan at the heart of their defence, United would almost certainly have been watching Rovers celebrating a Lotto Northern Premier Women's League - Kate Sheppard Cup double come the Referee Anna-Marie Keighley got things under way in her record tenth Cup Final appearance, and within 25 seconds Northern were pressing for a goal. Duncan's clearance found its way to Danielle Canham, whose angled ball through for Leanna Ryan prompted Aimee Feinberg-Danieli to hurtle off her line and save at the speedster's feet.

Within ninety seconds, Ellie Blount also had reason to warm her gloves, solidly saving a stinging drive from Isabella Richards which flew past four players after she let fly from the edge of the penalty area.

When these teams met in the league under the Becroft Park lights on 4 August, they produced far and away the best game of the season, and the early signs were that both had picked up where they left off on that occasion.

Sure enough, the intensity levels were sky high from the off, and rarely reduced over the course of ninety compelling minutes of Cup Final action between two clubs which didn't even exist in their current form at the start of the decade.

As noted earlier, United emerged from Three Kings United, specifically via a joint venture with Onehunga Sports which saw both clubs retain their identities at social grade level, while competing as Auckland United in senior level football. Sports withdrew from that arrangement after the 2021 campaign, leaving TKU to change their Rovers, meanwhile, were formed at the end of 2020 following the amalgamation of two former Cup-winning clubs, Forrest Hill-Milford United and Glenfield Rovers. Between them, they had featured in eight Cup Finals, with the 2014 and 2016 versions being clashes twixt these local rivals who are now very much in union, something very few would have envisaged happening in days past.

United swiftly took charge of the contest, dominating possession and territory throughout the opening twenty minutes. But it was Rovers who engineered the openings in this spell, Estelle Harrison's eighth minute ball forward seeking out Canham, only for Feinberg-Daniell to dash off Her line and clear off the mildielder's toes.

Eleven minutes later, Greer MacIntosh picked out Suya Haering on the left, allowing the fullback to work a onetwo with Harrison before delivering a deep cross which picked out Alexis Cook arriving on cue beyond all-comers on the far post. Her header was turned round the post by Feibnerg-Danieli, for whom this match was to become the game of her life to date - she was magnificent twixt the sticks.

The resulting corner from Harrison forced Puketapu into a headed clearance narrowly past the near post. Guarantee she'd have directed the ball inside the upright had she been the intended recipient of a delivery of such high quality, which this most certainly was!

Within seconds, Rovers were pressing again, this time via Michaela Foster, who, with team-mate Chelsea Elliott, had already played in the Kate Sheppard Cup Final this year - for Hamilton Wanderers in the 2021 version, which was delayed until the last weekend of March due to Covid.

Coach Ben Bate had deployed her on the right of a front three in this contest, not a position the former Junior Ferns captain has played in too often throughout her carreer. As usual with Foster, it was a case of "just let her on the park", as evidenced by the delicious pass she played which allowed Cook to bust United's offside trap.

Her driven cross was headed narrowly past the far post by the unmarked figure of Canham, whose elusiveness was proving as worrisome for United's rearguard as Ryan's pace, which Duncan employed foul means to thwart in the 23rd minute, earning herself a yellow card and a nervous "half-and-a half", given any mistimed challenged twixt now and the end of the contest could well bring her fourth Cup Final appearance to a premature

Rovers continued to press, Breeze Durham inspiring an attack which featured Cook but culminated in a tame Ryan finish in the 25th minute, a raid which roused Auckland from their attacking slumber and prompted a concerted spell of goal-threatening raids over the course of the next ten minutes.

Ruby Nathan linked with Bree Johnson in the 29th minute, the latter's round-the-corner pass inviting Emma Leaming to continue the run she'd made to start the attack. The fullback's cross had Puketapu on the far post as its intended target, but Blount intercepted at the near post.

A vital block tackle by Elliott thwarted Johnson's progress soon afterwards, while Milly Clegg's angled drive was spilled by Blount in the 32nd minute, only for the 'keeper to recover possession before the fast-arriving figure of Johnson could pounce on the loose ball.

Cue a counter-attack, featuring Foster's run down the right and a deep cross beyond Duncan to Ryan, who lashed her shot past the post. Seconds later, Foster and Ryan combined again, after Harrison had capitalised on a mix-up between Alosi Bloomfield and Nathan on half-way. Ryan this time fired an angled shot towards the target, but it crept past the far post.

Seven minutes before half-time, Nathan pinched the ball off Durham and sent Puketapu charging downfield. She slipped a pass into the stride of Johnson, whose shot was blocked by MacIntosh - she was rock-solid in Rovers' rearguard throughout proceedings, as was Georgia Martin at the heart of United's defence - she hardly missed a header all day long.

In the moments before the half-time whistle, both teams carved out chances to break the deadlock. Clegg sent one sizzling over the near post angle after Richards had picked out her run with precision, while Foster sent Cook careering towards goal, only for the combined efforts of Duncan and Feinberg-Danieli to foil her goalscoring intentions on this occasion.

A booking on the stroke of half-time for United captain Jess Philipot meant she joined Duncan in walking a disciplinary tightrope in this showpiece affair, one in which Rovers offered plenty of threat via set-pieces, without executing any of them as intended. There was the feeling, however, that if United could open up their opponents, something of which they were quite capable, things might get rather interesting indeed ...

Straight from the resumption of play, Richards sent a twenty-yarder sizzling narrowly past the post, to which Rovers responded via Ryan, who was played through by Harrison. Duncan hurtled back and executed a perfectly timed tackle in the area, directing the ball off the opponent and back to a grateful Feinberg-Daniel.

Cue another United raid, with Martin and Richards combining with Nathan, whose delightfully weighted pass invited Clegg to chip the approaching figure of Blount. The 'keeper looked on with relief as the ball landed on the roof of he net in the 49th minute.

Two minutes later, another timely tackle by Elliott foiled Johnson once more, the speedster having been played in by Richards, who is such an important player in this United team - her energy is infectious!

Rovers' set-piece prowess remained United's biggest concern, however. Elliott delivered a free-kick from distance downtown in the 52nd minute, and Duncan left it for Feinberg-Danieli to deal with. The 'keeper misjudged it, however, the ball ricocheting off her and towards the surprised figure of Foster, who was unable to capitalise on the opportunity before United's custodian retrieved the situation.

Two minutes later, Rovers forced a corner, one which Foster delivered with devilry to the near post. Feinberg-Daniell punched the ball out from beneath her crossbar but collided with the upright, prompting a brief break in play while she recovered her senses.

Once the action resumed, United set the cat amongst the pigeons by opening the scoring against a side which had lost just once this season, sixteen days previously, to be precise. Richards brought the ball out of defence before inviting Bloomfield to fend off a tackle as she powered over the halfway line.

The Samoan international brought Clegg into play, and her first time through ball invited Puketapu to surge through Rovers' rearguard and deftly lob the advancing figure of Blount, the ball bouncing once before hitting the net to give Auckland the advantage -1-0 after 57 minutes.

Straight from the kick-off, Northern looked to get back on level terms, Ryan rampaging down the left past Philpot before delivering a low cross into the stride of Harrison. Her low drive was smothered by Feinberg Danieli, who spilled a cross at the feet of Foster in the 63rd minute.

As the 'keeper scrambled in a desperate effort to foil her opponent, Foster played the ball back to MacIntosh, whose shot was blocked by Martin and subsequently cleared. Feinberg-Danieli, however, was seeing stars again, prompting a further spell of treatment before she was allowed to continue - her concussion test was closely monitored by referee Keighley, given this latest head knock had come so soon after Feinberg-Danieli's collision with the post.

Relieved that their number one had been given the all-clear, United looked to ease the pressure on her by doubling their advantage. Puketapu and Nathan combined for the benefit of Johnson, whose shot riccocheted off the approaching figure of Blount and back off the striker before heading towards the target. The retreating figure of captain Talisha Green ensured Northern remained a goal behind on this occasion.

Martin was having issues dealing with the pace of Cook, something which the youngster exploited in the 69th minute as she raced clear on the right. Her pullback was superbly intercepted by Duncan, who read the situatio brilliantly and positioned herself perfectly to prevent any prospect of Rovers drawing level on this occasion.

Back came United three minutes later, Feinberg-Danieli clearing to Richards, who sent Puketapu surging through once more. As before, she lobbed the approaching figure of Blount, who looked on with relief as the ball bounced past the upright on this occasion.

Cue a Rovers response, Ryan and Cook combining on the left. The latter got the better of Duncan, but Feinberg Danieli proved equal to her shot, the last of note which she had to deal with during the next ten minutes as United kept their opponents at bay, largely via the efforts of Duncan and Martin at the heart of their defence.

The latter's timely tackle on Foster in the 84th minute prompted a United counter-attack, Richards leading the charge. She fed Clegg, who swept past Haering before directing her shot straight at Blount.

She immediately launched a counter-attack via Foster on the right, from where she crossed beyond all-comers for the benefit of Ryan, racing in off the left. After controlling the ball, she evaded a challenge before shooting across Feinberg-Danieli, only to see her shot cannon off the inside of the far post back into the goalmouth, where the soalkeeper swiftly swooped on the sohere to souff out the daneer.

When things like that happen, and you're the team they happen to, you somehow get that feeling it's not meant to be your day. Nonetheless, Rovers pressed again, Haering releasing Ryan down the left, from where her 87th minute cross-shot grazed the roof of the net.

Six minutes of stoppage time were signalled - not surprising, given Feinberg-Danieli's unpleasant experiences. Needless to say, Northern continued to hammer away, with Foster's ball forward allowing Cook to get the better of Martin on the right before she played the ball inside to Elliott, who by now had been pressed into an emergency striker role.

She brought Ryan into play once more, but once again Feinberg-Danieli rebuffed her attempt to revive Rovers' Cup dreams, Duncan completing a clearance which eventually prompted a Clegg-led response from United.

The Junior Fern set sail from halfway, outpacing Kate McConnell before entering the penalty area, only to see Blount rebuff her bid to pick out a team-mate at the near post. Downfield the ball was swiftly despatched, Canham taking it on before Cook set sail once more down the right.

She in turn fed Elliott, whose shot was blocked by the combined efforts of Philipot and Duncan, soon to be named the Maia Jackman Trophy winner - just the third player to receive the honour twice, Duncan's previous triumph coming in her last final in 2009.

That proved to be Rovers' last chance, for seconds later, the final whistle blew, to the unrestrained delight of those sporting Auckland's all-white kit, among them coach Mauro Donoso, who led Eastern Suburbs to Cup Final success in 2019 and in masterminding this victory, ensures Andrew Clay is no longer alone in having coached two different clubs to Kate Sheppard Cup Final success.

2022 GRAND FINAL

MATCH REPORT by Jeremy Ruane

They began the 2022 season chasing a three-peat of Lotto Northern Premier Women's League titles. And while they fell short in that quest, and were also beaten quarter-finalists in the NZ Football Foundation Kate Sheppard Cup, Eastern Suburbs ensured their annual pursuit of silverware was fulfilled in emphatic fashion at Mt Smart Stadium on December 18, as they thrashed Western Springs 4-0 in the National Women's League Grand Final.

In doing so, "The Lilywhites" became the first club to win an honour which, since its inception in 1976 in the guise of the National Tournament, has always been contested by the representative sides of the various regional associations and, more recently, federations.

That was until 2021, when NZ Football revised and revamped the format of the national competition, making it a hybrid of club entries from the northern region and representative sides from south of Taupo.

The untimely appearance of Covid-19 put the skids on the new-look National League, but a year later, there was no such hindrance, and Northern Rovers, Western Springs, Eastern Suburbs and Auckland United were the four clubs whose endeavours in the Lotto Northern Premier Women's League earned them spots in the revamped competition, pitting them against Capital Football, Central Football, Canterbury United Pride and Southern United.

Suburbs were the dominant team from the outset, winning their first ten matches and eventually qualifying for the Grand Final with two rounds to spare. A week later, their opponents were confirmed, "The Hoops" booking their Grand Final berth as runners-up to the runaway leaders, "The Lilywhites" eventually winning the round-robin phase of the league by seven points.

Along the way, Stephen Hoyle's charges had scored a highly commendable 140 goals in the 38 games they had played since the season kicked off on the last weekend in March. Only three teams have scored more in a season - Claudelands Rovers (147 goals in 19 games in 2012), Three Kings United (166 goals in 22 games in 1998), and the all-conquering Eden 1987 team.

In days when women's matches were played over eighty minutes, that side struck a staggering 194 goals in 23 matches, with three of those wins being by the default 2-0 scoreline which applied in those days. Virtually everyone in that Eden side was a New Zealand international, and nine of them were involved in our historic 1-0 win over the USA in Taiwan at the end of that year ... that's how good that team was!

In contrast to Suburbs' free-scoring campaign, Ryan Faithfull's "Hoops" amassed a mere 89 goals in their 36 matches in 2022 - the lowest tally of the four northern region contenders in the National Women's League. And having lost home and away to "The Lilywhites" in NWL round-robin action, they went into the Grand Final as underdogs.

Suburbs swiftly set about affirming their favouritism, dominating the early stages of proceedings with a plethora of chances, any of which could have seen them open the scoring. Charlotte Wilford-Carroll's stinging twenty-yarder, in the sixth minute following a Nicole Mettam corner, was the first broadside fired, while Mettam fired narrowly wide from the poor goal-kick arising from that opening salvo.

Olivia Page then looked to get in on the act with an eighth minute lob which landed on the roof of Angelique Tuisamoa's net. The winger's next act saw her bring Tayla O'Brien into play, and the NWL's Golden Boot winner took on three opponents before getting to the by-line and whipping in a cross.

Lily Jervis failed to clear it, allowing Deven Jackson to pounce from close range. Her shot slammed against the post, ricocheted onto the back of Tuisamoa's head and rebounded off the unfortunate goalkeeper into the net - a ninth minute own goal which delighted the favourites.

Springs looked to get back on level terms in fairly short order. Arisa Takeda, who, with Rina Hirano and Emma Pijnenburg was playing her final game for "The Hoops" before heading abroad, scampered down the right and sent a cross screaming across the goalmouth, but too far ahead of Sofia Garcia for the striker to capitalise upon.

The powerful American front-runner was ever a threat, however, and in the seventeenth minute saw her angled run rewarded with a pass which allowed her to get in behind Suburbs' rearguard and unleash an eighteen vard drive which clioped the stanchion holding up the goalnet.

Five minutes later, Jess Innes picked out Sammi Tawharu, whose defencesplitting pass allowed Hirano to surge into the penalty area. As she pulled the trigger, Suburbs skipper, Rebekah Van Dort, timed her lunge to perfection and diverted the shot inches past Brooke Bennett's left-hand

Cue an arm wrestle, as both teams strove to be the one which next altered the scoreboard. A few naughty challenges went in during this phase of play - O'Brien was afforded a final warning by referee Anna-Marie Keighley - but defences largely dominated, that of Suburbs in particular, with Van Dort at her commanding best, and Saki Yoshida, in front of her, producing an eyecatching performance in midfield.

Jaedici Uluvili was Springs' defensive rock, epitomised by her block tackle in the 36th minute, which ultimately allowed Tawharu to send Garcia galloping through once more. With Van Dort on her shoulder, the striker let fly with a shot which flew past Bennett but narrowly past her right-hand post as well.

Eastern Suburbs 4 (Jackson '53, '82, Yoshida '42, o.g. '9) Western Springs 0 at Mount Smart Stadium, Auckland 18 December 2022

Western Springs: Angelique Tuisamoa, Lily Jervis, Jaedeci Uluvili, Lily Taitimu (Maia Lythe '80), Sofia Garcia, Rina Hirano, Arisa Takeda, Sam Tawharu (Sophia Dyer '53), Jess Innes, Emma Pijnenburg (Kitty Jacob '62), Celia Mayo (Helena O'Connor '80). Coach: Ryan Faithfull

Referee: Anna-Marie Keighley Assistant Referees: Heloise Welch & Courteney Bremner Had Springs scored then, things would have got very interesting, but Suburbs' response was soul-destroying for "The Hoops". Tuisamoa produced a brilliant save to keep out Mettam's dipping twenty-five yarder seconds after Garcia's effort, but three minutes before half-time, "The Lilywhites" delivered a blow from which their opponents never recovered.

Mettam secured possession on halfway and instantly picked out Jackson, who deftly turned Jervis some twenty-five yards out from goal. Her shot was blocked by Lily Taitimu, but the ball ricocheted into the stride of Yoshida, who controlled the ball deftly before expertly finding the gap between the diving figure of Tuisamoa and her right-hand post - 2-0.

Springs had to score first after the interval if they harboured any hopes of getting back into the contest, but Suburbs had other ideas. A driving forty yard run by Jackson two minutes after the resumption of play was undone by a "two-pointer" (this is the Warriors' home ground, of course!) as she sent her shot on the run sailing over Tuisamoa's crossbar

"The Hoops" responded through Celia Mayo, who got the better of Page before delivering a pass which ignited "the battle of the RHs", as Rina Hirano and Rachel Head locked horns. The defender prevailed, aided and abetted by Repnett

Both teams went close to scoring in the next four minutes, with Suburbs going desperately close to netting a third goal in the 49th minute. Wilford-Carroll bore down on goal through the inside-right channel, and drew the defence before setting up Jackson.

Her shot was superbly parried away from goal by Tuisamoa, but Mettam was on hand to pick up the pieces and invite O'Brien to chance her arm. She turned past an opponent before unleashing an angled drive which cannoned off the post and ricocheted off the head of the diving Tuisamoa, this time to safety.

Three minutes later, Pijnenburg finally got a break in midfield, and instantly showed the qualities which see her heading to Dutch giants Feyenoord in the new year. Her pass through the inside left channel to Tawharu was precision personified, and invited an instant shot which crashed off the inside of Bennett's right-hand post and careered across the face of goal to safety - a real let-off for "The Lilywhites".

And how they made Springs suffer as a result. Erinna Wong picked up the pieces from Tawharu's close call and sparked an attack which culminated in a dazzling O'Brien run through Springs defence to the byline, from where she delivered a low cross into the goalmouth. It was parried by Tuisamoa straight into the stride of Jackson, who was never going to miss from six yards - 3-0, and game effectively over after 53 minutes.

Springs instantly introduced the jet-heeled Sophia Dyer to the fray, and the pint-sized powerhouse made an instant impact, drawing a save from Bennett with her first touch. But Suburbs responded via Jackson, who drew a save from Tuisamoa after Wong and Yoshida had combined to present her with the chance for a second goal in three minutes.

Substitutions began to influence proceedings, but Suburbs continued to enjoy the upper hand, Annie Byrne's eye-catching runs down the right quickly emerging as another noteworthy feature of their play. On the opposite flank, Wong linked with O'Brien, whose bid to work a one-two with Jackson was foiled by Tuisamoa's dive at the league's leading markswoman's feet in the 66th minute.

Five minutes later, Springs went desperately close to getting back into the contest. An Innes corner was spilled by Bennett, forcing Suburbs to scramble the ball past the far post for another corner. Takeda drilled this right into the danger zone, and in the ensuing melee, Bennett, despite being on her back, produced a reflex save to paw the ball off the line and to safety.

After Suburbs' custodian saved at the feet of Dyer, with Hirano and Garcia having sought to inspire a fightback via a left flank raid, the game was up for Springs eight minutes from time, as Suburbs struck their fourth goal of the game

Substitute Juliette Lucas played a delightful pass into the stride of Jackson, who moved menacingly into the penalty area before battering the ball goalwards. Tuisamoa parried it, while Maia Lythe blocked Jackson's follow-up attempt on the line. The ball rebounded once more to Suburbs' well-performed frontrunner, who rammed it into the top corner to put the outcome well and truly beyond doubt - 4-0.

Springs somehow failed to score a consolation goal soon afterwards, Jervis failing to turn the ball home at point-blank range after Takeda's free-kick had been diverted towards her captain by Garcia.

Hirano then went on a dazzling sixty yard run, only to be crudely fouled by both Arya Blackler (shirt-pulling) and Nicole Cooper, whose scything challenge earned her the game's only yellow card.

Do you think the offender cared? The scoreboard told you all you needed to know on that front, and after the usual quota of stoppage time had been played, the 1239 fans present saw referee Keighley blow the final whistle in this marathon women's footballing year, one which saw the first club to win the Northern Premier Women's League six years running making history again over forty years later, Eastern Suburbs becoming the first club to win the National Women's League title.

History, too, for the captain, for as Rebekah Van Dort triumphantly raised the heavy trophy aloft, she emulated the feat of her father, John, who captained Metro to the Bluebird Superclub title in 1996 - quite possibly the first occasion in NZ footballing history of two generations of the same family captaining teams to club-based national league titles. How special is that?
