COVID-19

For the second time in two year, football competitions were affected by the COVID pandemic.

The Coronavirus disease (shortened to COVID-19) is an infectious disease. It mainly affects older people or those with underlying medical problems such as cardiovascular disease, diabetes, chronic respiratory disease or cancer.

The virus spreads primarily through droplets or discharge from the nose when an infected person coughs or sneezes.

Football Leagues in the region were suspended for a month in mid August.

Some of the various competitions in the region affected by COVI-19 -

2021 Mens National League (National Round with Northern League teams)

2021 Oceania Football Confederation Champions League (cancelled)

2021 FIFA World Cup Championship (delayed until February 2022)

2021 Chatham Cup (semi finals & final delayed until 2022)

2021 Womens National Knockout Cup - Kate Sheppard Cup (semi finals & final delayed until 2022)

2021 National Secondary Schools Tournament (cancelled)

2021 Central League XI vs Wellington Phoenix (cancelled)

2021 Hilton Petone Tournament (Second Divison Final cancelled)

2021 National Age Group Tournament (cancelled)

2020 Season Review

by Dave Webster

South-Central Series

There was a major change in the Central League in 2021. New Zealand Football ended the franchise based National League and introduced what the called a new set up. It was actually a fall back to the early 1990's Superclub, where the top teams in the regional leagues then play in a National League.

The top four from the Northern League, Top three from Central League, Top two from Southern and the Wellington Phoenix Reserve team would compete in the National League.

Alas due to COVID this never happened, with the Northern League unable to complete their season due to lock downs, NZF came up with a competition called the South-Central series for the top Central and Southern League teams.

Miramar Rangers, Wellington Olympic, Western Suburbs, Wellington Phoenix, Cashmere Technical and Selwyn United played each other once. The final positions pitted Miramar Rangers against Wellington Olympic and they played a final at Porirua Park which Miramar gained revenge on Olympic for the Central league title and won convincingly 6-2

Central League 2021

Wellington Olympic won the Central League, losing just one game all season (2-3 to North Wellington), and drawing two (3-3 with North Wellington & 0-0 with Miramar Rangers). Gianni Bouzoukis led the scoring with 14 goals. But it was Kalian Gould's goal against Miramar in the second to last game of the season to give Olympic a 1-0 win that effectively won them the title.

Miramar Rangers led the way from the start of the season, not losing a game until their 15th when they went down 4-2 to Lower Hutt City. Sam Mason-Smith with 14 and Joao Moreira with 10 led the scoring. But a 1-0 loss to Wellington Olympic in the second to last game of the season proved costly for Scott Hales team and they finished runners up.

Lower Hutt City, celebrating their 100th year, had a memorandum of understanding with the Wellington Phoenix which meant their team was effectively the Wellington Phoenix reserve team. It also meant that this team was guaranteed entry to the National League and Paul Temple's boy's were conscious of this. This however made them more determined to show that they deserved the place on merit. They started slowly with just four points from their first four games but after that they dropped just four points more for the rest of the season. They scored 70 goals with George Ott getting 21 and Riley Bidios 16.

Western Suburbs continued their partnership with Ole Academy and their young team finished fourth and qualified for the National Round as Lower Hutt City's MOU with Wellington Phoenix meant they were ineligible to enter. Ihaia Delany finished top scorer with eight goals all the more impressive given that he spent the first half of the season at North Wellington.

Wairarapa United had a new coach in ex Tasman United national league coach, Davor Tavich. They also had Wellington Phoenix and Millwall legend Paul Ifill playing for them. While Jarred Cuniff lead the way with 15 goals, their record of six wins, six draws and six losses saw them finish mid table in fifth place.

Waterside Karori had a new coach in Sam Smith. Consistency was their issue this season only twice being able to string two wins in a row together, but in the end they finished comfortably in sixth position

Napier City Rovers started the season fantastically with three wins in their first four games but after that they managed just two wins for the rest of the season. Their source of quality players being greatly effected by the closure of New Zealand's borders due to COVID-19.

North Wellington under coach Matt Calcott continued their aggressive recruitment of players but it came to nothing. When it became clear that Norths wouldn't make the top four many left to play for clubs that had a chance of making the National Round. Despite being unbeaten by eventual champions Wellington Olympic, they managed only four wins all season and on seven occasions conceded more than four goals.

Petone struggled with just four wins all season and nine times conceding four or more goals in a game and finished in ninth place and would likely have been relegated had it not been for Wainuiomata.

In 2020, Wainuiomata, perhaps unexpectedly, won the Capital Premier League and then the playoff to get promotion to the Central League. This provided the club with some challenges to field a competitive team. They decided to enter a partnership with the Ole Academy. With Ole already having a partnership with Western Suburbs, Wainuiomata took second place and their very young team were relegated only managing one win, on the last day of the season, 3-1 over North Wellington.

Capital Premier

Capital Premier was won by Steve Coleman's Lower Hutt City. Thanks to the MOU with the Wellington Phoenix, Lower Hutt City was effectively the Phoenix Academy team. During the season they suffered just four losses, scored four or more goals five times with Josh Rudland leading the scoring with 16 goals.

Wellington United conceded just 20 goals all season and were unbeaten until the 10th game of the season. In all they lost just three games, twice to Lower Hutt City and once to Island Bay United. Guillermo Schiltenwolf's team played some attractive football and finished in second place. As Lower Hutt City were ineligible for promotion the Diamonds entered the playoff for Central League against Havelock North Wanderers. The first leg at Newtown Park ended with a 5-3 win to United, Wanderers scoring a consolation goal in the last minute that would prove vital. In the return leg in Havelock North, it was Wanderers with the last minute goal which made the score 6-6 and Wanderers won on the away goals rule.

Island Bay United had a bad start to the season with James Prosser's team winning just one of their first five games. However once they found their stride they excelled from there including winning their last five games and almost snatching second place.

Stop Out, who had been relegated the season before, started with a brilliant run. One loss in nine games meant they were looking at heading towards the playoff and promotion back to Central League. But they then recorded just four wins for the rest of the season (one of those by default) and finished the season in fourth place with Jerram Tuck top scoring with 10 goals.

Tawa, who used just 20 players all season, had just one win in their first seven games but then managed five wins in their next six games. Lachie Hill led the way with a massive 21 goals.

Miramar Rangers Reserves again used the most players in the league with 43. Nathan Simes top scored with 13. A great start saw them win five games in the first eight. After that they managed just two wins, one of which was when Stop Out defaulted to them!

Wellington Olympic Reserves struggled at the start of the season with just three wins in 11 games. Matt Kolic's men managed to turn it around towards the end of the season with three wins in the last four games lifting them to seventh place and safety from relegation.

The team that should have been promoted last year, Upper Hutt City, started this year with a bang gaining 10 points from their first five games. However that was the best Mark Foster's men could summon, winning just three more games and going on a seven game winless streak. It ended up in them playing off against Victoria University to keep their place in Capital Premier, which they did after a penalty shoot out.

North Wellington Reserves managed five wins during the season, but a nine game streak without a win saw them finish in ninth place.

With Ole Academy's deal with Waiuniomata, Western Suburbs Reserves were effectively their third team and it showed with them managing just one win (4-0 v Miramar) all season.

Capital One

The Capital One title was a battle between Seatoun and Stop Out Reserves, with just one point separating the teams, which Stop Out won on the last day of the season. As Stop Out's first team is in Capital Premier it meant that Seatoun were promoted just a year after being relegated from the same division.

There was a nine point gap back to Victoria University in third place and then a further nine points to Miramar Rangers thirds in fourth.

At the bottom only five points separated the bottom four with Petone Reserves and Stokes Valley being relegated.

Referee: Matt Conger

Team Wellington signed out of the ISPS Handa Men's Premiership with their third grand final win, downing minor premiers and old foes Auckland City FC 4-2 at North Harbour Stadium this afternoon.

If the two sides' previous encounters this season had been marked by Auckland City FC taking the early advantage, Team Wellington were determined to flip the script third time around and took the early lead.

A 14th minute penalty for a foul on Jack-Henry Sinclair, with referee Matthew Conger waving away Auckland City FC protests to point to the spot. If recent form is anything to go by, there was only one man to take the penalty – yet golden boot winner-elect Hamish Watson was denied by a strong hand from City keeper Browne. Partner in crime Andy Bevin was on hand, however, to pounce on the rebound and give Team Wellington the lead.

City pushed for a response down the left hand flank, with moves often started by Alfie Rogers, and continued with strong approach play variously from Mohamed Awad and Futsal White Dylan Manickum saw the Navy Blues fashion chances, only for the Team Wellington defence to stand resolute.

While Team Wellington's opener was born of sheer determination to set the agenda for the afternoon, their second was Second goal from TW was stunning – a flowing move started and ended by the effervescent Jack-Henry Sinclair, playing in Sam Mason-Smith, who backheeled to Bevin who slipped in Rory McKeown for Sinclair to finish the move with his back to goal for a backheel finish himself.

This gave Auckland City the nudge they needed to get themselves on the scoresheet - their first of the afternoon also a penalty. Argentinan stalwart Emiliano Tade was bundled over by compatriot Mario Barcia, and emphatically burying his shot in the bottom left hand corner to put the pressure back on Team Wellington.

City had the opportunity to equalize at the 40-minute mark after a well-worked free kick routine, saw Tade slide to Manickum whose shot was blocked by Jones, only for Yousif Al-Kalisy's follow up to eventually somehow spin out for a throw in.

Not that it mattered as Awad slipped in a ball intended for Al-Kalisy and finished by a pouncing Manickum, as he picked the pocket of Justin Gulley to level the scores and wrench the psychological advantage back to Auckland City as the teams went into half time with the scores locked at 2-2.

Team Wellington head coach Scott Hales spoke before the game of the importance of Golden Boot winner Hamish Watson's rich vein of form imbuing his team with confidence and form of their own, amply demonstrated by his involvement in his side's third goal. His presence in the box was key to Team Wellington's bright start of the second half. After a cool interplay with Bevin in the Auckland City FC penalty area saw possession briefly won back by the Navy Blues, Watson's determined press won Team Wellington the ball back and he slipped a back heel to Ollie Whyte who thumped his shot into the top left hand corner past Browne.

Andy Bevin doubled his tally for the afternoon after heading McKeown's floated free kick beyond Browne in the 69th minute to bookend the scoresheet and secure the Steve Sumner Trophy for today's man of the match.

It proved to be the hammer blow for Auckland City FC's title defence. Not even a late penalty to City, after a push in the back sent Awad flying in the penalty area, could pull the game back to the incumbents as Tade's Panenka careered off the crossbar, and his tap in rebound was disallowed as no other player touched the ball.

The final whistle blew minutes later, with Team Wellington crowned the final ISPS Handa Men's Premiership champions.

NATIONAL LEAGUE | SOUTH-CENTRAL SERIES

GRAND FINAL

by Nick Robinson

It came down to this. Miramar Rangers versus Wellington Olympic in the South-Central Series Grand Final, probably the two teams most would have picked for this ultimate game when the series began, but that didn't make this match-up any less exciting. These were the duo who slugged it out for the Central League title, with Olympic winning 1-0 in the penultimate round to claim the trophy. Kailan Gould with the only goal that day. 13 out of 22 starters from this game also started that one (plus three more were on the bench).

Then when they met in this Series during league play it was a stunning 4-4 draw in which there were four goals scored after the 88th minute including an equalising penalty with the last kick of the game from Ben Mata. Ollie Whyte scored a hatty in that one. Olympic played almost an hour with ten men after Tor Davenport-Petersen's red card. It was a modern Natty League classic.

Plus these are also the two clubs where the overwhelming majority of Team Wellington players ended up after that franchise bowed out of existence with a Premiership triumph last season. Every sign pointed towards a cracking game of football at Jerry Collins Memorial Stadium in Porirua (even with no Auckland teams involved it was still a slight surprise that they didn't schedule it at North Harbour Stadium just by force of habit).

Wellington Olympic took a stumble last week after making a heap of changes with their final status already secured, going down 5-1 to Cashmere Tech in the process. Naturally those mass changes were undone here. The Greeks were as close to full strength as they could be but for the injured Theo Ettema. Toby Hunt wore the gloves. A back three of Justin Gulley, Ben Mata, and Harry Chote. Wing-backs Lukas Halikias and Rory McKeown. Tor Devenport-Petersen and Sam Mitrakas in the midfield. Jack-Henry Sinclair and Kailan Gould flanking Gianni Bouzoukis up front.

Miramar Rangers also dropped points last round when they drew late with Selwyn but that was without many alterations. However their grand final team did suffer from quite a few injuries acquired along the way. Both starting wingbacks were on crutches for the game, Haris Zeb and Jorge Akers. Plus captain Sam Dewar was sent off against Selwyn and thus suspended. Bummer. As a result, they stuck with the back four of last week made up entirely of centre-backs: Scott Midgley on the right, Flynn O'Brien as a more cautious left-back... Taylor Schrijvers and Liam Wood in the middle. Ollie Whyte had to play a little deeper to cover for Dewar though Hugo Delhommelle was the main defensive mid. Nathan Simes played up front with Owen Barnett and Sam Mason-Smith. Andy Bevin roaming in behind them. Zac Jones was in goal.

The Team Welly Derby began with lots of Olympic passing compared to a direct approach from Rangers. Toby Hunt got two hands to a Nathan Simes shot in the third minute as Rangers threatened first, before Gianni Bouzoukis made a brilliant run to force a very good Zac Jones save to keep it even. Both goalies already getting stingers on the gloves inside five minutes. Pretty good sign of what was to follow: breathless action, babv.

Boom, 1-0 to Wellington Olympic... oh no wait it was offside. Never mind. Bouzoukis had touched in a McKeown cross but it didn't count. Stink one for them because two minutes later they were losing. Andy Bevin had a crack after some scrappy stuff on the edge of the box and after a sneaky deflection Hunt was able to tip it onto the post... only for Simes to follow up with a finish that Hunt still got a big chunk of. 1-0 to Miramar Rangers instead. Advanced warning: don't try to keep up with the logic of this match because that much mental gymnastics could strain a brain muscle.

Kailan Gould dashed in behind, held off his man, and struck a ninth minute attempt that Jones saved at his near post. Soon afterwards a Sinclair corner kick was punted towards goal by Mitrakas but Bevin of all people was able to deflect it over. There was a strange call when Sinclair was bowled over by Mason-Smith and somehow conceded the foul himself... but JHS was still inviting panic with a number of tricky crosses and runs. Yet it was a cross from McKeown on the other side which got it done. Corner kick from the right which was flicked on near post by Davenport-Petersen and then put home at the back stick by Bouzoukis. There's his goal. 1-1 in the 19th minute.

Gould had a big appeal for a penalty. Schrijvers gave him a serve for having the nerve to claim it though it looked a decent enough shout to be fair. But from that same move Rangers were able to counter with Scott Midgley getting up the right flank and a beauty of a cut-back for Sam Mason-Smith allowed him to put Miramar back in front despite Gulley throwing himself at the ball and contributing a mighty deflection. 23 minutes gone.

This was a game with so many what-if moments. Big swings from small margins. Zac Jones made a great save to prevent what would have been a Schrijvers own goal... albeit Gould was flagged offside at the same time. Then soon after there was another goal up the other end.

Miramar Rangers going up 3-1. Of course it was Ollie Whyte who bagged it. Never one to refrain from trying his luck with a sight on goal, Whyte pulled the trigger opportunistically and caught a deflection that drifted into the bottom corner with the keeper wrong-footed.

In response, Gould went on a jinking and jiving run forward – gotta match Whyte who'd just taken the lead in the golden boot race ahead of him with that goal – and he won a corner. That corner was cleared.

But Justin Gulley can always pick out a superb pass so when he collected the ball and saw Jack-Henry Sinclair had some space in the box it was easy loot. JHS smashed it across goal and Harry Chote turned it in. Still hanging forward from the corner, go on then. The Greeks pulling it back to 3-2 in the 31st minute... we were almost up to 4-4 already. End to end. All over the place. Don't stop or your head will start spinning.

This was only the third game that Bevin and Whyte had started together out of Miramar's six matches. Those two were on another level with some of their interplay, working one chance that Hunt was able to smother but then a give-and-go on 39' saw Ollie Whyte go bang into the bottom corner once again, the other corner this time, to put an underline on his Golden Boot (and maybe MVP?) credentials. Probably one that Toby Hunt will feel he could have gotten down to quicker but so it goes. This was exhausting. 4-2 to Miramar Rangers at half-time.

Although not before some brouhaha as Scott Midgley took exception to Toby Hunt's contact just before the half and got up in his face. Or as close to his face as he could get. Hunt was entitled to go for the ball though. He stood his ground. Bit of fun all the same.

Okay so the half-time break offered a rare pause in the madness to allow for some reflection. In terms of chances they'd been relatively evenly distributed but Rangers had been able to scramble a little better at the back whereas one or two lapses from Olympic, and some back luck, had cost them. But if they scored next then they were still well in the contest. No reason to panic in a game chock-full of goals.

Olympic went to the bench. On came Jaga Scott-Greenfield at the break, straight swap with Lukas Halikias. It then took all of 35 seconds before Jack-Henry Sinclair had blasted a volley on target which was firmly saved. Immediately on the attack. Couple of corner kicks. Sinclair flicked one on to Davenport-Petersen on the overlap. Midgley caught him. Penalty to Olympic. Up stepped Ben Mata who had scored four outta four from the spot this South Central Series including two against Miramar in the last meeting. But, incredibly, he struck it onto the post. Finally missed one. Awful timing but nobody scores them all and he was literal inches away from getting his team back within one. Inches.

It's funny how those little margins add up in a final. Rangers almost scored on the counter except Whyte's cut-back was a little behind Simes (more about Simes overrunning it). Then Hugo Delhommelle did something rather special...

Magnifique

Olympic made two more changes, getting Alex Palezevic and Nati Hailemariam on there. Gianni Bouzoukis was one of the guys replaced and he didn't seem too happy with that decision so his manager took a sec to explain the thinking to him. Not sure what it was, Bouzoukis had already scored once (although they weren't getting enough ball to him), maybe it was down to how well they did with ten men in the league meeting when Gould went up front alone and they wanted to find a similar mixture. Who knows. Didn't really have the desired effect though because in the 59th minute Nathan Simes rolled one across for Scott Midgley, still seeking to push forward despite the three-goal lead, and he buried it for 6-2. Maaaate.

Half an hour to go and four goals down, that's a bitch of a hill to climb. Did Olympic have it in them? It would have helped if they'd been awarded another penalty when a bouncing ball caught Ollie Whyte on the hand but nah the ref wasn't having that. Then Sinclair slid in TDP whose shot was deflected onto the roof of the net. They needed one of those to go in. The Greeks were fast running out of time... and even if they did score four, there was no sign of Miramar Rangers being done themselves.

Meanwhile here's Tor Davenport-Petersen almost busting someone's

On came Joao Moreira for Rangers. Whyte drilled one wide via a slight deflection. Up the other end, another Sinclair feed for TDP got the fans sitting up but the nudged header from Davenport-Petersen didn't have enough juice. Olympic were looking pretty gassed by now - it's exhausting playing from behind. They were four goals down and chasing whereas Miramar were able to play patiently without risk.

Numbers at the back, hit 'em on the break. It was actually a lot like the women's decider the day before with Canterbury trying to find a way back in against a comfortable Southern team. It got to the point where Andrew Dewhurst and Harry Ngata on comms were talking instead about the All Whites as if they weren't there to commentate a National League final.

Long after the result began to feel inevitable, Joao Moreira scored a seventh. 87th minute rounding the keeper on the end of a mint Mason-Smith ball and he arguably took a touch more than necessary before slipping it into the net. A more experienced keeper than young Toby Hunt might've taken offence to that. Not that it would have mattered, not that it would have changed anything.

Miramar Rangers emptied the bench to get some of the young dudes out there. Olympic spirits had already been broken. The score didn't reflect the true quality of the two teams, we know that there's bugger all between them because we've seen them play so many times. It was just that thing about chasing the game in a final and having to take extra risks. Those little margins tallying up. Hey, no point settling for a narrow defeat in a final. Might as well have a crack at it. All goods. Wellington Olympic will be a force next year once again. But it wasn't meant to be this time around.

Lock it in, friends: Miramar Rangers are your South Central Series champions. 7-2 winners in the grand final... with six different goal scorers. Missing both wing-backs and a suspended captain, no dramas whatsoever. The excellence of Andy Bevin and Ollie Whyte were too much to handle in such an open contest and Taylor Schrijvers had a wonderful performance in a game where the art of defending was not high on the agenda for everyone. Let alone the goal from Delhommelle. Or Mason-Smith's reliable excellence up top. What more is there to say? They're a top team and this was their day. Savour the glory. In keeping with true South Central Series vibes, Miramar Rangers won it without keeping a single clean sheet. Wellington Olympic didn't keep one either but what Rangers also did was they scored multiple times in every match including seven in the final. Threats from all over the park... including Scott Midgley whose two games at right back saw him make wonderful use of that touchline getting forward. This was a tournament defined by an excessive amount of goals. An abundance. A plethora. An array of bangers. In the end the team that scored the most of them lifted the trophy

Speaking of trophies, Ollie Whyte got the Golden Boot in amongst everything else. Should have gotten the MVP too, let's be honest, but the way they vote for it meant that Pieter-Taco Bierema of Selwyn United got it instead. The goalie for the last-placed team. Not that he didn't have a brilliant campaign – he was already a lock for First Team goalie when the Team of the Seasons are published later in the week. But this ain't really how these awards are supposed to work. Best player for the best team tends to be preferable. Ah well. It's the New Zealand National League. It'll be like that sometimes.

The Chatham Cup has returned to the South Island for the first time since 2014, as Cashmere Technical defeated Miramar Rangers 4-2 at Jerry Collins Stadium in Porirua this afternoon.

Delayed from its usual September final due to the ongoing effects of the Covid-19 pandemic, the 2021 Chatham Cup final, typically the winter season ender became the 2022 season opener. Not that it will matter to the Cantabrians, who lifted the trophy for the third time since 2013, and ensured their 2022 got off to a winning start.

From the first whistle they looked the more dynamic of the two sides, as Garbhan Coughlan, Lyle Matthysen, Yuya Taguchi and Jacob Richards flooded forwards for the Cantabrians to apply early pressure. Cashmere Technical took the lead in the 42nd minute, after Richards was fouled in the penalty area, and Coughlan calmly slotted home from the spot.

The sustained pressure from Cashmere Technical continued to pay off in the second half. Miramar Rangers goalkeeper Foord had a moment to forget as pressure from Tech's Jacob Richards saw him misjudge his pass, giving the ball to Taguchi who rolled the ball into the back of the net to double the lead in the 60th minute.

Five minutes later Coughlan then added a third after Foord dropped the ball at his feet, with the Irishman scoring from close range for his second goal of the afternoon.

Against the run of play, Miramar Rangers pulled one back in the 75tbh minute through central defender Flynn O'Brien, who unleashed a rocket from just outside Cashmere Technical's penalty area that Danny Knight could do little about.

Miramar thought they might have been in with a lifeline in the 84th minute after a disallowed goal resulted in a corner, and a goal finally resulted from the subsequent goalbox chaos as Liam Wood finished at close range.

But Taguchi, who was awarded the Jack Batty Memorial trophy for the Chatham Cup final's player of the match, was determined not to let that be the case, and coolly scored his second of the afternoon to restore Cashmere Technical's two-goal lead, and bring the Chatham Cup back to Christchurch.
