2019 Season Review

by Dave Webster

W-League

The W-League was increased to 8 teams for the 2019 season with 2018 Capital Premier champions Waterside Karori and runners up Victoria University stepping up. This wasn't the only change as 2017 Champions, Upper Hutt City, withdrew. They were replaced by Petone who had finished fourth in Capital Premier.

It was Wellington United's year again, winning the league for the second year in a row and winning their third league title in four years. Amazingly they used 35 players and only had three players, Captain Sarah Alder, Asha Strom and Jemma Robertson that made double figured appearances in the league. Jemma Robertson was top scorer with 14 goals in the league. Midfielder Charlotte Wilford Carroll was called up to the NZ U20 side, Jemma Catherwood was named in the NZ U17 squad and goalkeeper Ronisi Lipi captained Samoa to a silver medal at the Pacific games.

Wairarapa United moved to the top of the table in the second week with a 3-2 win over Wellington United, and they stayed on top until they met the Diamonds in the league again, this time a 2-1 loss at Newtown Park saw them drop to second. Meisha Boone top scored with seven goals, seven of Wairarapa's players scored four or more. Nina Kondo travelled to China with the NZ U17 team.

Palmerston North Marist, rejuvenated under new coach Barry Scullion, made the title race a three way battle and while Marist managed to take points off all teams in the league it was a surprise early 3-1 loss to Petone and a later 5-2 defeat at home to Waterside Karori that ultimately cost them. Charlotte Lancaster (12), Mikaela Boxall (10) & TJ Lynne-Lewis (9) led the way in the goal scoring. Charlotte Lancaster went to China with the NZ U17 team and TJ Lynne-Lewis represented Samoa at the Pacific Games.

Newly promoted Waterside Karori gave a good account of themselves in their return to the top level. Bill Robertson's team finished fourth on goal difference and at one stage in the last couple of weeks looked as if they could sneak into second place. Find of the season was American student, Kayley Ward, who top scored in for the team as well as the league with 15 goals and she was named W-League player of the year.

Seatoun again had a small squad, they had managed to pick up Sam Kendrick and Hannah Wignall from Wellington United, but at times struggled to get 11 on to the field. Their five wins all came against teams that finished below them, while they lost all their games to teams above them so fifth place is quite apt for them.

Western Suburbs picked up Olivia de Ronde, Emma Lavery and Caelin Patterson from Upper Hutt City as well as bringing in a couple of American imports, but it was more the loss of Maya Hahn to college in the USA that made a difference in what could be described as a disappointing year. They did record a surprise 2-1 win away to Wairarapa United but they only managed 16 goals in total and finished in eighth place.

Petone, who only found out they'd be in the W-League a few weeks before it started, struggled with the step up. Although it didn't appear they would when they beat Palmerston North Marist 3-1 in the second week, but after that there were seven straight losses. They broke that run with what proved to be a vital 1-0 win over Western Suburbs as they finished in seventh place with nine points.

Victoria University started the season with an upset knocking Kelly Cup holders, Wellington United, out in the first round but unfortunately for Uni that was as good as it got. In the league they struggled from the start, conceding 19 goals in their first four games and only finding the net once. That goal was scored by Nicky Ries and on top of the hat-trick she got in the Kate Sheppard Cup the week before, Uni looked to have solved their goalscoring woes, but alas she only played one more game in the season. There was a glimmer of hope when they beat Petone 3-0 to bring themselves level on points, but in the return game played two days later they went down 2-1 and will find themselves back in Capital Premier next season.

Women's Premier

Due to Upper Hutt City's withdrawal from the W-League and Island Bay United opting to remain in Capital One, there were only seven teams in Capital Premier this season. It was North Wellington who dominated the league going through the season unbeaten and scoring more than four goals on seven occasions. They had picked up Cushla Litchwark (who played up front rather than in goal) and Briar Sargent from Upper Hutt City and these players combined with the young team that won Capital One the previous season were very successful with their direct style of play. Ashleigh Mason top scored with 12 goals.

Wellington United Reserves (Sapphires) finished in second position and were often described by opposition coaches as the best footballing side in the division. Maika Ruyter-Hooley's team used 41 players in total, showing the depth of the club. The young team was balanced out with a core of three to four senior players. NZ Secondary School international Kelsey Wilkinson top scored with nine goals in five games, six of which came in one game, an 11-0 win over Brooklyn Northern United.

Kapiti Coast United started the season with two wins, and then lost two in a mix of results. A four game winning streak towards the end of the season saw them comfortably into third position. Emerson Haley-Pearce top scoring with six goals.

Victoria University Reserves, who were promoted from Capital One, had the same issue as their first team in finding the net, scoring just 15 goals. Consistency was an issue with the team using 45 players during the season. While they only managed three wins, they had five draws and had they had a goal scorer probably could have pushed those games in their favour. But football can be a cruel game and despite finishing midtable with 14 points, they will be relegated to Capital One due to the rule that states clubs can only have one team per division in the top two tiers.

Brooklyn Northern United struggled through the season, a small squad wasn't helped by effectively having a mid-season break when the way the fixtures fell meant they didn't play for almost a month. Sophie Wilkinson top scored with seven goals, which was half the teams total and the defence didn't have a great time, six times conceding four or more goals.

Waterside Karori Reserves were a new team set up in the wake of the club's first team gaining promotion to W-League. The team used 31 players and scored 12 goals, seven of them coming in one game, which was the highlight of their season a 7-2 defeat of BNU.

Stop Out had the smallest squad in the league using just 19 players, they managed just one win all season a 3-0 victory over Waterside Karori reserves.

Cups

Wellington United made it to the semi-final of the Kate Sheppard Cup for the second year in a row, this time they met Coastal Spirit of Christchurch. In a close game where they hit the bar, had shots cleared off the line and missed others that on any other day would have gone in they went down 1-0,

The oldest Women's trophy in New Zealand, The Kelly Cup, was moved to a pre-season competition with tiers added to ensure all teams got the same number of games. Western Suburbs beat Wairarapa United 3-2 in the final, and while it adds a new name to the cup, it is technically the third time they have won the cup as they had won it in 1987 and 1989 as Porirua-Viard United.

The defending champions, Wellington United, suffered a shock 1-0 defeat to Victoria University and ended up in the Plate competition where they beat Palmerston North Marist 4-0. Brooklyn Northern United won the Shield competition.

Due to the small number of teams in the Premier division, the Capital Premier Cup was reinstated, and it was won 3-1 by Wellington United Reserves over Victoria University Reserves.

Island Bay United won the lower division Executive Plate with a 4-0 victory over Upper Hutt City.

2019 MATCH REPORT - FINAL

The Canterbury United Pride have claimed back-to-back titles in their seventh consecutive appearance in the National Women's League final but were made to do it the hard way after being given a gruelling battle by the Northern Lights. In what was a repeat of last season's final, the Lights were out for revenge after coming up short in heart-breaking fashion a year ago.

It took extra-time to separate the sides on that occasion and today's encounter at English Park in Christchurch again extended beyond the 90 minutes but went even further this time, penalties being required for the first time ever in this competition after a hard-fought 1-1 draw.

Canterbury held their nerve to slot home each of their spot kicks while Chloe Knott – ironically Northern's best performer on the day – sent her attempt over the bar and Kelli Brown saw hers saved by Una Foyle, allowing the Pride to claim their fifth title in seven years.

"It's just amazing, you would have seen how much it meant by the way we celebrated," captain Rebecca Lake said.

"We're so stoked but well done to Northern, it's really tough to lose on penalties and it makes winning much more important for us because we really had to put up a fight to win it. We had to bring a whole lot of heart and strength and I think the girls did that amazingly well."

Coming into the game, it was hard to know whether to expect a goal-fest or a tight encounter as these sides were the highest scorers in the league but also had the most miserly defences. The first half gave the impression that one moment of magic might be enough to claim the title as chances proved hard to come by and the teams appeared very evenly matched.

But the action opened up in an entertaining second half and it didn't take long after the restart for the deadlock to be broken, Nicola Dominikovich racing onto a well-weighted Gabi Rennie through ball to prod past Northern goalkeeper Lily Alfeld.

The visitors were soon level in stunning fashion though, Kelli Brown taking aim from outside the box on an unfavourable angle but somehow finding the top corner with one of the goals of the season.

Clear sights of goal continued to be a rarity but there was plenty of goalmouth action regardless as the play swung from end to end. The energy-sapping nature of such a physical contest began to take its toll though, Northern co-captains Saskia Vosper and Claudia Bunge both needing to be replaced in extra-time.

Their cool heads may have come in useful in the penalty shoot-out, in which Alfeld appeared to have given Northern a lifeline when saving from Lauren Dabner but was ruled to have come off her line, allowing the Canterbury substitute to tuck home her retake.

With Lake, Bel van Noorden and Britney-Lee Nicholson also finding the net for Canterbury, all that was left was for Foyle to become the heroine by making an outstanding save low to her left.

But Vosper had nothing but praise for the efforts of her Northern team mates and was already setting her sights on a return to the biggest stage in domestic women's football.

"All the girls fought their socks off, two of us had to go off with cramp and people at the end couldn't really stand up," she said.

"So we did fight our hardest and it was just really unlucky that we went out in the way that we did," she added.

"But that's how the game goes sometimes and next year we'll definitely come back and fight again. We've got some young players coming through so I think you'll see us in the final again next year."

2019 MATCH REPORT

Eastern Suburbs have won the NZ Football Foundation Kate Sheppard Cup for the first time after defeating Coastal Spirit 4-0 in the final at North Harbour Stadium in Auckland this afternoon.

The Mauro Donoso-coached side, who had made the final twice before in 2005 and 2017, claimed their first cup win and also completed a first double after earlier winning the Lotto NRL Women's Premier League.

It was a fitting reward for the members of the Lily Whites squad who were on the wrong side of a heart-breaking 5-4 loss to Glenfield Rovers in the Kate Sheppard Cup final two years ago.

Hannah Pilley and Tayla O'Brien scored two goals apiece in the first half as Suburbs dominated to lead 4-0 and effectively put the Kate Sheppard Cup beyond reach.

O'Brien was jointly awarded the Maia Jackman Trophy along with impressive Suburbs fullback Erinna Wong for being players of the final while O'Brien finished as Suburbs' leading goal scorer in the Kate Sheppard Cup with six goals. The Lily Whites controlled the game from the outset. In the fourth minute, O'Brien threaded a ball through for forward Pilley to finish from close range and Suburbs were off to the perfect start.

There was more to come for the Auckland team as they controlled the middle of the park. They won a corner and after intricate passing around the 18-yard box O'Brien was in space to slot home in the ninth minute.

Coastal Spirit, looking to relive their 2013 success, held the ball well but couldn't penetrate the Lily Whites' defence. The Christchurch side had their best chance of the first half when Laura Dabner pulled a left-foot shot just wide of the right post.

With every turnover the yellow and black wave kept pouring forward. Pilley showed her great pace to score a fine goal on the counter-attack before O'Brien hit a powerful shot which hit the crossbar and found the back of the net. It was a 10-minute period when Suburbs put one hand on the Kate Sheppard Cup.

They ran to the changing rooms with a 4-0 lead and were in control of the cup final. Coastal came out in the second half intent to add some credibility to the scoreline. They proved harder to break down but couldn't find a way through a well-organised Suburbs' defence who were comfortable in protecting their lead.

The victory completed a special year for the club. In April, Danny Hay coached Eastern Suburbs to their first ever win in the ISPS Handa Premiership and the women have backed up that achievement in fine style. They claimed the NRL title, losing only two games, before winning the Kate Sheppard Cup for the first time. "Winning this trophy means a huge amount to this team and to our club," Eastern Suburbs coach Mauro Donoso said.

"I don't know if many teams have completed the double before but it is a great result for this team. They have worked hard all season and today is the reward for that. We knew that Coastal would be a very competitive team so I am very proud of the way the girls performed and what they have achieved."
