2020 Season Review

by Dave Webster

2020 was a unique season, football had just started when the government announced a full lockdown due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Women's football had started with the Kelly Cup so the league hadn't kicked off and it was possible that we may not have got any football at all. Luckily when the alert levels dropped we were able to kick off the league.

W-League

The W-League was a two horse race that went down to the wire with the title being decided by goal difference on the last day of the season. Wellington United had the edge with a three goal advantage going into the last game, they were away to Western Suburbs, while Palmerston North Marist were at home to already relegated North Wellington. Incredibly both games ended 8-0 to the teams at the top of the league meaning that Wellington United were crowned champions for the third year in a row and the fourth time in five years. It was a great success for ex Melbourne Victory player, Maika Ruyter-Hooley, who stepped up from the assistant role last season as Guillermo Schiltenwolf took over the club's men's first team. It was a challenging year as United suffered a large amount of serious injuries with six players being out for several weeks.

Jemma Robertson won the league's golden boot with 26 goals, scoring in every game bar one, a 0-1 loss to Waterside Karori, where she played most of the game at right back. She also notched up 100 appearances for the club. Asha Strom also achieved this feat, while Charlotte Wilford Carroll (U20) and Jemma Catherwood (U17) were called up to New Zealand training camps. Wilford Carroll also had a unique treble at the end of season Capital Football awards winning Player of the Year, Young Player of the Year and Goal of the season.

Palmerston North Marist were hot on the heels of Wellington United all season, but they were the only team they failed to beat, losing 0-2 and drawing 3-3. Scoring goals wasn't a problem for them, nine times getting four or more goals. Despite getting six hat-tricks in her 25 goals Captain Michaela Boxall just missed out on the golden boot, while Kaitlyn Watts and Aniela Jensen chipped in with 12 & nine goals respectively.

Samantha Wooley, who they had signed early season from Wellington United, Charlotte Lancaster, Jana Niedermyar and Georgie Furnell were called up to the New Zealand U17 training camp.

There was a 13 point gap between second and third place, which was taken by Waterside Karori. It was an up and down season for Waterside Karori, they had lost the Barrott sisters (Katie and Zoe) and Courtney Stone to Wellington United and goalkeeper Aofie Gallagher-Forbes to Petone, although they did pick up NZ U17 keeper Georgia Candy, still they were left with one of the smaller squads in the league. They struggled for consistency only once managing to string two wins in a row together. They had a change of coach when Bill Robertson resigned after eight games and Nigel Burn took over. American Kaley Ward led the way on the field again scoring 16 goals in 14 appearances. The highlight of the league season was the 1-0 home win over the League Champions Wellington United.

Wairarapa United had a good team on paper and while they had lost Anna McPhie to college in the USA, they had picked up former Capital Football captain, Kennedy Bryant, who had returned from overseas. They had a slow start picking up just three points from their first four games and never really recovered and would have been disappointed with their league showing. Youngsters Nina Kondo and Tui Dugan their shining lights.

Petone who had Kevin Torres take over as first team coach from his brother Roger started well with three wins in their first four games but they were unable to record any wins over teams that finished in the top four with the exception of a 4-3 win over Wairarapa United and getting only one point in their last four games saw them finish in fifth place. Libby Boobyer top scored with eight goals while Eleanor Humphries got six goals in six games.

Western Suburbs had Maya Hahn back from college in the USA and also added NZ U17 star Macey Fraser. The rest of the team was very young and despite playing some nice football found themselves out of their depth in the W-League managing only three wins all season. Although those three wins along with a draw were enough for them to finish in sixth position.

Seatoun had a small squad again with a core of just 11 players. They had a rough start conceding 17 goals in their first three games. They surprised everyone with a 1-1 draw against Wairarapa United and went on to win two and draw on of their next four games. That was as good as it got and they finished the season with six straight losses.

Newly promoted North Wellington had some good experienced players in Briar Sargent, Cushla Litchwark and Nicola Ingham but found the step up to W-League too much and only managed one win and one draw and scored just eight goals while conceding 51. A bright spot was the emergence of young Olivia Ingham, daughter of Nicola who played well enough to earn selection into the Capital National Women's League team.

Women's Premier

Victoria University who were relegated from W-League last season, bounced straight back winning every game except for one draw and one loss. Eight times they scored four or more goals with Reina Flavell (13) and Nicole Baird (10) leading the scoring. Baird was also awarded Women's Capital Premier Player of the year.

Wellington United Reserve team the Sapphires finished second despite scoring more, conceding less and nine times scoring four or more goals. A 2-1 loss to Victoria University, a shock 1-0 defeat at Petone and a 3-0 loss due to fielding an ineligible player against Kapiti Coast United cost them the chance of winning the title. Liz Crowe and Coco Murphy led the scoring while club stalwart Sandy Cumpstone bought up her 150th appearance.

Kapiti Coast United started their season with two losses and finished with two losses in between they went nine games unbeaten with eight wins and one draw. One of the wins was via a protest but it was the losses at the start and end of the season that saw them finish in third place. Vanessa Addy lead the way with 17 goals, she also bought up her 150th appearance for the club and also has an impressive 170 goals to her name.

It was touch and go for Brooklyn Northern United, who a couple of weeks before the season started were seriously considering withdrawing as they only had seven players returning from last season, But they managed to find enough players and had a good season for a squad put together at the last minute. A tough draw saw them start with losses against Wellington United (0-6) and Victoria University (1-4). A run of five win after that saw them up into third place, they finished the season in fourth, Sophie Wilkinson top scored with 12 goals.

Newly promoted Petone Reserves suffered from being a reserve team and used 28 players with only four getting into double figure appearances. Despite a lack of firepower up front, managing just 16 goals on the field, they still won five games (one was by default) but seven losses saw them finish in fifth place.

Island Bay United Sharkettes started the season with a 9-1 win over Stop Out and a 2-0 win over Petone Reserves, but after that they had only two more wins in the season. Veteran Carenna Ooosterban scored more than half their goals with 13.

North Wellington Reserves used 33 players during the season but after two early wins they struggled to find the net scoring just six goals and losing 10 in a row and finished seventh. However due to their first team being relegated from W-League the reserve team will also be relegated as the rules stop two teams from the same club being in the premier division.

Stop Out had a disastrous season and after six games hadn't scored a goal, while conceding 43 goals. After discussions with Capital Football the club withdrew from the premier division at the half way point of the season and started again in the third division.

Cups

Due to Covid-19, New Zealand Football cancelled the Kate Sheppard Cup for 2020. Meaning the Kelly Cup was the only cup competition played for by Capital clubs.

The Early round produced some upsets with Petone beating Wellington United Diamonds 1-0, North Wellington hammering Palmerston North Marist 5-1 and defending holders Western Suburbs going out 2-1 to Wairarapa United.

North Wellington met Waterside Karori in the semi final at Alex Moore Park, the result was a 0-0 draw and while penalties were supposed to be used to decide the winner, the lights went off leading to a replay instead, which Waterside Karori won 2-1.

It was Waterside Karori's third final in a row and unfortunately for them it was their third loss in a row as they went down 2-0 to Paul Ifill's Wairarapa United.

Victoria University beat Wellington United Sapphires 5-0 in the Executive Plate Final

2020 MATCH REPORT - FINAL

Canterbury United Pride became the first team in ISPS Handa Women's Premiership history to win three successive Grand Finals on December 20, thrashing Capital Football 4-0 at English Park to retain the title in what was their eighth successive Grand Final appearance.

United carved out the game's first chance inside seventy seconds. Alvssa Whinham's through ball inviting Britney-Lee Nicholson to work a one-two with Gabrielle Rennie which was only foiled by Ellen Fibbes' timely challenge on the former, who was the Mainland Federation's Player of the Year in 2020

The home team were briefly reduced to ten when Mikaela Hunt went down with a head knock - she was eventually forced to succumb to the injury, and this allowed Capital the chance to exploit their hosts' temporarily reduced numbers.

Anna Green's probing balls forward invited both Michaela Robertson and Kaley Ward to take on Rebecca Lake and company, with Capital's strike force unable to make much headway, not aided by the fact they were playing into a stiff southerly

United soon started to settle into their stride, and in the tenth minute, Nicholson slipped a ball through which allowed Rennie to hurtle past comparatively static defenders en route to unleashing a shot which Georgia Candy turned round the Four minutes later, hesitance by Hope Gilchrist and Candy was pounced on by Lara Wall, who instantly teed up Nicholson for a chance on the edge of the area. Gilchrist swiftly recovered her poise to prevent the striker from opening the scoring.

United pressed again two minutes later, this time via a Lake free-kick. Rennie headed it down for Nicholson, whose looping twenty yard volley arced narrowly past the far post with Candy beaten.

There was no let-up from the home team, with Nicholson releasing Wall down the left moments later. Her low cross arced behind Rennie but perfectly into the stride of Kate Taylor, who had stormed out of defence to join this attack. Candy dashed out and bravely blocked at the defender's feet on this occasion, but it seemed only a matter of time before the home team would make the breakthrough.

The chance to do so presented itself in the 23rd minute. Seconds after Nicholson had lashed one over the bar, Wall was felled in the box by a late challenge from Fibbes, prompting referee Sarah Jones to point to the spot.

Up stepped Lake, whose penalty-taking record in round-robin play had been impeccable. But on this occasion, she met her match, Candy saving with her legs to Buoyed by this let-off, the visitors engineered a rare opening of their own in the 28th minute, with Jemma Robertson intercepting a Taylor pass and powering forward from half-way. But she failed to test Una Foyle with her finish, and on occasions such as this, such shortcomings can't be afforded.

Rennie's rampaging run down the left in the 33rd minute forced Candy to save at the feet of Wall seconds later, while the full-of-running Rennie was in again seconds later, this time tearing through the inside right channel at pace before opting to cross when shooting appeared the more likely option. Wall was unable to get on the end of the delivery.

Five minutes before half-time, a clash of heads between Charlotte Wilford-Carroll and Jemma Robertson saw both players requiring treatment, briefly reducing the visitors' ranks to nine.

During this time, Fibbes and Katie Barrott didn't aid their team's cause by trying to play out from the back, with the captain's pass back to Candy putting the 'keeper under enormous pressure, with Emma Clarke, Hunt's replacement, storming in to add to the confusion.

Somehow Candy came up trumps, saving with her legs to maintain the scoreless scoreline - her part in that being the case cannot be understated. Little wonder she was later named as the 2020 competition's Most Valuable Player - she's had a superb season twirt the sticks.

'Twas at the other end of the park where the next noteworthy event took place, and this time Capital were furious that a penalty wasn't awarded - they certainly had a strong case.

Green sent Jemma Robertson racing through the inside left channel, but on ploughing into the penalty area she was clipped by Clarke, who instantly applied the Italian sign of innocence - hands raised in protest; a sure sign, in this writer's experience, that you're guilty as charged of the offence you've committed.

Referee Jones sided with the defender on this occasion, but when she's reviewing the game on video later on, methinks she'll realise she made an error of judgement on this occasion. This was just as much a penalty as that she awarded earlier in the contest.

Unperturbed, Capital pressed again, this time via the personification of perpetual motion that is Tui Dugan, who once again got through a truckload of work in midfield without gaining a great deal of reward for her tireless efforts. On this occasion, she saw her deflected shot ricochet to safety as Capital finished the half strongly.

But the visitors had to be wary of Canterbury's counter-attacking potential, with Wall, Nicholson and Rennie each capable of turning defence into instant attack should they be the beneficiary of a clearance. As was the case deep in stoppage time, when the charging figure of Rennie powered past Green, only for Candy to career out of her penalty area to avert the danger.

More was forthcoming for Capital from the resulting throw-in, this time in the form of another penalty, awarded by referee Jones after Fibbes had gone through Wall in an effort to avert the danger the winger posed.

Nicholson took on the spot-kick-taking duties this time round, but Candy responded by producing a brilliant save, plunging to her left to turn the last kick of the half to safety and give Capital a huge boost as the half-time whistle blew.

They looked to build on that momentum early in the second spell through Michaela Robertson, who was thwarted by some fine covering defensive work by Tahlia Herman- Watt as the fullback matched the striker stride for stride across the penalty area before blocking her fiftieth minute effort to safety.

Canterbury's response, two minutes later, coincided with the introduction off the bench of Annalie Longo. Thirty seconds after she entered the fray, Amelia Abbott threaded a delightfully weighted pass through the heart of Capital's rearguard to send Rennie sprinting through on goal. The approaching figure of Candy proved no obstacle for the striker, whose finish was unerring - 1-0.

Capital had it all to do now, but now had the added burden of Longo's presence to contend with. In the 54th minute she got in between Wilford-Carroll and Dugan and set off on one of her jinking runs through midfield, despite being matched stride for stride by Dugan.

Eventually Longo laid the ball off to Clarke, then took up a position which allowed the fullback to work a one-two with the playmaker, whose return pass invited Clarke to fire in a vicious cross which Nicholson just failed to capitalise upon.

The game soon became a bit of a midfield tussle, with Whitney Hepburn's presence more noticeable - the veteran of all Canterbury's National Women's League triumphs had been rather anonymous in the first spell, Capital's boxed midfield quartet rather negating her influence on the home team's play.

Not now, though. With Capital needing to snare an equaliser, Hepburn's influence was growing, as was that of Lake, who, on the hour, careered over halfway in swashbuckling fashion before working a one-two with Nicholson and playing in Rennie, who was denied by Candy's save at her feet.

Seconds later, Nicholson played in Wall, who outfoxed Barrott before seeing her shot blocked by Gilchrist. This was Capital's captain's last contribution to the contest in a season which saw her make her fiftieth appearance for her federation, a milestone Michaela Robertson realised in this match, one which Capital never expected to find themselves playing a fortnight ago.

They had given a good account of themselves to this point, but when Canterbury doubled their advantage nineteen minutes from time, the game was up for the visitors. Hepburn picked out Longo's darting run through the inside left channel, from where the Football Fern's clipped cross arced over Nicholson.

Racing in behind her was Rennie - a fabulous front-running performance - and she met the dropping sphere with a first-time drive which ricocheted off the retreating figure of Green and arced over Candy, whose despairing attempt to keep the ball out proved fruitless.

2-0 became 3-0 seven minutes later. As she had with the first goal, Abbott split the defence with a peach of a pass, this time for the benefit of Nicola Dominikovich. The substitute swiftly set up Nicholson, whose confident finish arrowed across Candy and into the far corner of the net.

The reigning champions twisted the knife still further four minutes from time with a quite terrific goal. Longo was its principle architect, her lofted ball over the top with backspin from half-way bounced perfectly for Rennie, whose first time lobbed pass took a defender out of the equation.

Nicholson was the beneficiary, and continued the move with a further lobbed pass which picked out Dominikovich. One touch to control, the other to thrash the ball unerringly into the corner of the net from the edge of the penalty arealittle wonder Candy was rooted to the spot. She would never have saved this quite splendid team goal.

And still they pressed, Hepburn twice going close in stoppage time, but only her first effort gave Candy cause for concern. Not that either attempt mattered, for the damage had long since been done, and when the final whistle sounded, chants of "Three-peat" resounded from the Canterbury players, champions once again.
