2012 Season Review

by Dave Webster

National League

The National League was played in a conference system with Capital being in the Southern Conference. Paul Grieg's team managed two wins, two draws and two losses and finished in second place.

This gave them a semi-final against Northern, unfortunately they went down 2-0 to the eventual winners.

Women's Central League

Massey University started the season with a 7-0 thrashing of Lower Hutt City and from that point on didn't look back going through the league season unbeaten. They scored 78 goals including 11 games where they managed five or more. Emma Boyack led the way with an outstanding 35 goals in the league and 42 in all competitions. Her individual goal total was higher than all the other teams totals bar last season's champions Waterside Karori.

In the National Women's Knockout Cup they saw off challenges from Lower Hutt City, Wellington United, Seatoun and Hamilton's Claudelands Rovers before taking on Auckland's Three Kings United at Wellington's Newtown Park, where they went down 2-0.

Waterside Karori only lost twice in the league, 5-2 and 4-2, both times to Massey University. Seven times they score five or more in a game, Emma Rolston top scorer with 19 goals in her 14 games.

Seatoun started well and were unbeaten in their first five games until they lost 5-2 to Waterside Karori. They were still on track and battling for second place but only getting one point in their last three games meant they had to settle for third position. Carina Oosterbaan was top scorer with 17 in all competitions. Seaton also won the Kelly Cup for the ninth time beating Lower Hutt City 4-1 in the final.

Lower Hutt City had a terrible start to the season picking up just one win and two draws in their first 10 games and with a goals for tally of just five looked destined for relegation. But they rallied together and won their last four games in a row, scoring 15 goals in the process and rose to finish fourth on the table. They also made it to the Kelly Cup Final going down 4-1 to Seatoun.

Newly promoted Valeron Wanderers, the Palmerston North based club named in honour of Spanish footballer Juan Carlos Valeron, struggled at the start of the season. Craig Newell's team picked up just one point in their first five games, before getting 11 in the next six games which saw them move up to fourth, dropping to fifth on the last day of the season after a 4-1 loss to Lower Hutt City.

Wellington United Diamonds started brightly with seven points from their first four games but that was as good as it got for them picking up just six more points in the rest of the season and finishing sixth, using more players (24) than any other club in the league.

Marist struggled for consistency and managed only three wins during the season. They had issues at the back six times conceding four or more goals. Despite only getting one point from their last six games the three wins were enough to keep them in the Central League for another season.

A 1-0 win in their first game against Marist, saw Brooklyn Northern United briefly at the top of the table. They were brought back down to earth a couple of games later when they went down 11-0 to Massey University. They struggled in front of goal all season going more than 450 minutes without a goal at one stage. In the end they scored seven, with five of those going to one player, Fiona Pou. The managed a second win in the season beating Wellington United Diamonds 2-0 but it wasn't enough and they will find themselves playing in Capital Premier next season.

Women's Premier

Upper Hutt City, relegated from Central League last season, had a new coach in Mike Gibbs and made easy work of returning to the top league, going through the season unbeaten. Nine times netting five or more goals with former New Zealand International Wendi Henderson top scoring with 28. They met Palmerston North End in the playoff for Central League and easily dispatched of them winning 9-3 on aggerate.

Victoria University looked to be a credible challenger with 30 goals in their first four games before losing to Stop Out and Upper Hutt City in consecutive weeks effectively ended their title challenge. Tom Randles team lost just once more (3-1 to Upper Hutt City). Jess Fraser top scored with 21 goals.

Stop Out started well with nine wins and a draw in their first 10 games. But picking up just four points in their last four games, which included two games against Upper Hutt City, one which was a 2-2 draw, meant they amassed 32 points and finished third.

There was then a massive gap of 15 points separating third and fourth. North Wellington managing just five wins and struggling in defence four times conceding seven or more goals.

Then came the second teams, BNU, Waterside Karori and Marist. BNU Reserves who used 29 players during the season managed seven points in the last three games which lifted them to fifth. Waterside Karori Reserves, who used 30 players, finished two points behind them on 13. The highlight of their season coming in the middle when they beat North Wellington 4-0 and Waikanae 7-0 in consecutive weeks. Marist Reserves managed just three wins, one of them an 8-1 thumping of Waikanae and finished seventh on nine points.

Waikanae had a season to forget with just one win and one draw, conceding 85 goals while scoring just 11. Nine times they lost by a margin of five or more goals and twice the margin was over 10 and as a result are relegated to Division One for next season.

2012 MATCH REPORT - FINAL

Auckland versus Northern, Auckland versus Waitakere, Auckland versus North Harbour. The Super City Derby or the Battle of the Bridge. Call it whatever you want – how often does it all come down to this? Two Auckland teams battling it out in the final of a national competition. Whether it's rugby, cricket, football or tiddlywinks – our nation's biggest city boasts half our nation's population and on the sporting field it so often punches right around its dominant weight. Never more so than on the football pitch.

North met south in the semi-finals of the National Women's League, yet today we ended up once again right where we so often do, at Fred Taylor Park for a local grudge match.

On paper, with a much more experienced side, defending champions Northern always looked like hot favourites for this. The two sides first met in round 2 when they drew 2-2 and then again in round 4 when Northern ran out 2-5 winners. Northern cruised into the semi-finals with room to spare and easily dispatched Capital last week. Auckland scraped into the semi-finals by the skin of their teeth and needed extra time to account for Mainland Pride and advance to this stage. And with that, the two Northernmost teams in the league entered the arena today with expectations high for a close contest.

As with most finals, it was a nervous encounter in the first half. Both sides scrapped away at each other and found slim pickings as neither was able to assert much authority on proceedings. It was the underdogs who came closest to edging it. Auckland appeared to have hit the lead when Northern goalkeeper Pam Yates fumbled a fairly routine cross over the line, but she was adjudged to have been fouled by Auckland's Rebecca Tegg following through.

With that goal disallowed, a typically acrobatic Erin Nayler stop at the other end, and not a whole lot of else worth mentioning, the two sides went into the break with the score remaining bolted down at 0-0.

Things opened up a bit more in the second stanza though, when Northern finally started to play some football and Auckland were able to eke out some opportunities on the counter attack. It was Tayla O'Brien who snatched the opening goal for Northern though, by heading an Estelle Harrison cross past a sprawling Nayler. The lead was then doubled about fifteen minutes later thanks to a rebound off the post from a Harrison freekick that was bludgeoned home by Georgia Brown. From that point on, Northern parked the auld proverbial bus and there was only going to be one outcome. A well-deserved second straight title for Northern Football – New Zealand's undisputed best domestic football team!

Once again, at the risk of sounding like a broken record, it's a crying shame that this league doesn't last longer. Particularly when you think that it is a good 3-4 months between drinks until the Northern Women's Premier League starts up again. It remains a real pity that we didn't get to see more of the Southern teams in the North. Perhaps at some point in the future, we could have teams in each conference play everyone in the other conference once during the round-robin before the semi-finals take place? This would cost a little bit more to run but I'm sure the benefits would far outweigh the investment. Until then however, that ends my coverage of women's football for 2012! It's been a blast and April 2013 can't come soon enough.

2012 MATCH REPORT - FINAL

Three Kings United scored a hard-earned 2-0 win over Lotto Central Region Premier Women's League champions Massey University at Newtown Park on August 26 to win the ASB National Women's Knockout Cup for the first time since 1999.

Two Martine Puketapu goals, the second of which was struck in the ninetieth minute of the match, ended the season-long unbeaten run of the Palmerston North-based combination, who held the upper hand in the early stages of the match.

Emma Boyack tested Jo Kennedy's handling with a stinging eighteen-yarder just 100 seconds into the contest, with the 'keeper saving at the striker's feet five minutes later after Rhonda Bridges had flicked a Jane Barnett throw-in into the path of the prolific Boyack, who topped the league goalscoring charts this season.

Seconds later, Massey should have opened the scoring through captain Rosie Missen, who found herself four yards out from goal upon receipt of a Leah Gallie header. Unbelievably, the skipper sliced her seventh minute attempt horribly wide - it was an awful miss, and certainly not one to make in a cup final.

It was to prove an expensive one, for after Barnett had stung Kennedy's palms with a 35-yard free-kick, Three Kings launched their first attack of note in the eleventh minute. Hannah Hoeksema, Chloe Knott and Michelle Windsor combined to present Annalie Longo with the ball.

A lovely shimmy left Gallie standing, but the midfielder - later named winner of the Maia Jackman Trophy as the Cup Final MVP - was unable to beat Rachel Ingram from twenty-five yards.

Seconds later, the Aucklanders were in front. Morany Chek and Jessie Mathews worked an opening on the right which saw Missen block the ball. But it fell perfectly into the stride of Puketapu, who thrashed home an unerring volley inside Ingram's near post from the edge of the penalty area.

Trailing somewhat against the early run of play, Massey stormed downfield straight from the kick-off and came within the width of a post of equalising. Boyack surged into the area, stood up Hoeksema and proceeded towards the goal area, where Emily Jensen stopped her in her tracks with a stunning tackle - the defender had a cracking game.

The ricochet fell into the stride of Bridges, who battered the right-hand upright of Kennedy's goal, much to the relief of the 'keeper and her defenders, who scrambled the ball to safety.

Two efforts in a minute from Longo and Puketapu gave Ingram cause for concern soon after, but it was Barnett's dipping twenty-yarder which had Kennedy on tenterhooks on the quarter hour. The 'keeper did well to tip the ball over the bar while back-pedalling nervously towards her own goal.

Three Kings gradually began to impose their passing style on the game, with Tina Kolose knocking the ball round confidently and inspiring her team-mates to do the same. Meanwhile, a battle within the battle was unfolding, with Longo and former Football Fern Emily McColl engaging in a ding-dong go for midfield dominance.

The Massey player flexed her muscles in the 26th minute with a post-rattler, the ball falling into her stride after Jensen had again thwarted the progress of Boyack, who fired wide soon after when Hoeksema sliced a clearance straight to her.

Back came United, Knott picking out Puketapu with a darting run in between defenders, much like the move they contrived in the 23rd minute. On that occasion, the striker overran the ball, affording Ingram a comfortable save, while this time round, Hollie Cleaver stepped in to thwart the fourteen-year-old, who should have done better.

Ingram got a surprise in the 32nd minute when Longo's header, from a Knott corner, was allowed to bounce in the heart of the goalmouth. The 'keeper greedily grabbed the ball, but her resulting clearance wasn't much chop, as it invited Chek and Puketapu to link with Mathews, whose shot on the run was tipped round the post by the 'keeper.

After Boyack had lashed a volley over the bar - Kolose gifted possession to her just outside United's penalty area, the Three Kings midfielder made amends with a gem of a pass in the 42nd minute which sent Puketapu scooting clear. She surged into the area before letting fly, only to see her shot crash to safety off the upright with Ingram beaten once more.

Right on the stroke of half-time, Longo showed she was getting the upper hand in her battle with McColl. A driving run took her past three opponents before a low cross invited Chek to shoot, only for the French front-runner to be frustrated by Jess Green's timely intervention.

Three Kings began the second half brightly, Chek and Longo combining for Puketapu's benefit just 75 seconds after the resumption. Jess Oulaghan was on the striker's shoulder every step of the way as they charged into the penalty area, and it was the defender's presence which doubtless prompted Puketapu to shoot tamely at Ingram.

A stinging twenty-yarder from Longo soon followed, Ingram tipping this away in the 49th minute. Massey counter-attacked straight away, but Boyack's progress was this time halted by Hoeksema - one of her best displays of the campaign, without question.

After Missen had lashed a thirty-yarder narrowly wide just before the hour, the even contest was on a knife-edge - whoever scored next would doubtless go on to win it, because the heavy pitch and challenging wind were taking their toll on both teams, as some tired legs were becoming increasingly evident.

Cue Longo, whose brilliant jinking run past four players in the 69th minute deserved far better reward than to see her rising drive crash off the crossbar. Chek latched onto the rebound and picked out Knott beyond the far post, but Missen blocked her drive for a corper.

Knott's resulting corner curled out to the edge of the penalty area, where Longo was lurking with intent. She lashed a low drive through the crowded goalmouth which careered narrowly past Ingram's right-hand post - the 'keeper had no chance if it had been on target.

Massey came again, a couple of Barnett set-pieces giving United cause for concern, a 76th minute corner in particular. Kennedy punched the delivery off the head of Gallie, but it landed at the feet of Missen, who thrashed her shot on the turn into the sidenetting.

A Barnett free-kick two minutes later saw Gallie's header grabbed by Kennedy, who was happy to erase the memories of her last Cup Final appearance two years ago in this match - a clean sheet and a winner's medal beats five goals against any day of the week!

That was Kennedy's last save, as it turned out, for any further attempts Massey made to get back into the contest invariably foundered on Jensen, who kept the dangerous Boyack quiet throughout a second spell in which Longo was increasingly influential.

Such as in the 84th minute, when after another jinking run, she whipped in a cross which Puketapu was only a yard away from getting on the end of. But in the 90th minute, the young striker was "Jenny-on-the-spot" as Ingram spilled an innocuous long-range effort from Chek

Before she had a chance to recover her error, Puketapu, following in like any good striker worth her salt, swooped to conquer, driving the ball home into an empty net to clinch a 2-0 victory for Three Kings, their fourth triumph ending a thirteen-year drought since their last Cup win in 1999, when they completed an unprecedented "three-peat".
