2014 Season Review

by Dave Webster

National League

The National Women's League was age restricted and effectively a youth competition with a couple of older players allowed to compete.

Natalie Lawrence took the Capital team and after starting with two losses managed four wins in their next five games and finished in third place which gave them a semi final against the NZ Development team where they went down 5-1

Women's Central League

Massey University won their third title in three years, pipping Seatoun to the title by two points. They went ten games before suffering a loss and then only suffered two losses (3-1 to Seatoun & 3-2 to Wellington United). Their average winning margin from 12 wins worked out at five goals. This was helped by goals from Jane Barnett (29), Michaela Boxall (18) & Rhonda Bridges (16).

Seatoun lost only two games and drew one but that was enough for them to finish in second place. Annie Olsen (16) & Grace Surridge (15) led the scoring. While they were unable to win the league off Massey, they won the Kelly cup for the 10th time beating Wellington United 3-0 in the final

Wellington United started well with three wins, but then four losses in a row effectively ended their title challenge. Twice in the season they managed double figures in goals (11-2 v Valeron Wanderers & 11-0 v Wanganui Athletic). Dutch import Marianne van Brumlein top scoring with 15 from seven games. While locals Jayme-Lee Hunter scored 14 from 12 games and Mickey Robertson got 10 from her 15 appearances.

Waterside Karori struggled for consistency. Mike Greene's team using 28 players and only six making it in to double figure appearances. They started well but only one win in their last six games saw them finish mid-table in fourth.

Wendi Henderson stepped back from playing at Upper Hutt City to concentrate on coaching. The team was a very young one with a couple of older heads such as Briar Sargent and Cushla Litchwark. They had some big wins (8-1 v Wellington United 12-0 & 7-1 v Wanganui Athletic) Emma Main top scored with 12, followed by Emily Morison with 9.

Valeron Wanderers, the Palmerston North based club named after Spanish player Juan Carlos Valeron managed three wins against teams that finished below them (10-0 twice over Wanganui Athletic and 4-3 over Lower Hutt City) but a leaky defence that saw them concede three or more goals on 11 occasions saw them finish in sixth place.

Lower Hutt City were another club with a very young team and struggled to match the teams above them in the league. Highlight of the season from them would have been defeating Waterside Karori 2-1. Renee Bacon top scored with 12 goals

Newly promoted Wanganui Athletic found the step up too much Tanja Gruenwald managing to score the only goal of season. They conceded a whopping 119. Eight times their goals conceded were into double figures. The best results were a 3-0 loss to Wellington United at the start of the season and a 3-0 loss to Waterside Karori in the last game of the season.

Women's Premier

The Capital Premier division was a close one for the top four with only five points separating them.

Brooklyn Northern United (BNU) started the season with a 4-2 loss to Victoria University, they only lost once more (again to University, 3-1). They had ten wins but Brian Blellock's Women didn't get to the top of the table until the last day of the season when a 2-0 win knocked Stop Out off the top position and gave BNU the Premiership title. Juliet Conway & Fiona Pou top scored with 13 goals each.

BNU met the Central region champions, Moturoa, to play off for a place in the 2015 Central League. They secured their place with two comfortable 2-0 victories to win 4-0 on aggregate.

Stop Out started well with 19 goals in their first four games before a 4-1 loss to Wellington United Sapphires. The Elliott Taylor coached had some big wins, Seven times scoring four or more goals and they side stayed in the pole position right up until the last day of the season where a 2-0 loss to BNU saw them concede the title to them. Melanie McDougall top scored with 10 goals.

Despite winning five of their last six games and being the only side to beat eventual champions, BNU, it was two early defeats (1-5 v Stop Out, 2-3 v KCU) that ultimately cost Victoria University their challenge for the title and they finished in third place. Nicole Baird and Lauren Hakkart top scored with 13 each.

Wellington United Reserves (Sapphires) started the season well and looked to have secured second spot but they only managed two wins in the second half of the season and this saw them drop to fourth spot.

The league was effectively a 4/4 split with 11 points separating fourth place Wellington United and fifth place Kapiti Coast United. KCU got four out of their five wins in the first half of the season and stayed comfortably in fifth place for most of the season.

Lower Hutt City Reserves suffered from the perennial problem reserve teams suffer from, a high turn-over of players, using 32 in all based around a core of five players. They managed three wins but conceded 50 goals, the most of any in the league and finished sixth.

Waterside Karori Reserves suffered from the same issue using 34 players during the season. They had just two wins and MacKenzie Hughes top scored with five goals.

North Wellington coach by Darren Rewi had a season to forget, scoring just nine goals and finishing bottom with just one point from a draw with Waterside Karori.

Women's Knockout Cups

There were ten entries from the Capital & Central region into the National Women's Knockout Cup. Massey University were the team that made it the furthest beating Waterside Karori 4-0 in the quarter final before going down 5-0 to Glenfield Rovers in the Semi-Final.

There were 23 entries into the Kelly Cup. Seatoun won the trophy for the 10th time with a 3-0 win over Wellington United.

Wellington United won the Capital Premier Cup, beating Victoria University 3-0 in the final.

Upper Hutt City won the lower grade Executive Plate thrashing Wellington United 10-0 in the final, including four goals from first teamer Emily Morison

2014 MATCH REPORT - FINAL

Mainland Pride recorded back-to-back titles in the ASB National Women's League on December 7, comfortably fending off the NZ U-18 Development Squad 3-1 in the Grand Final, to the delight of a boisterous crowd at ASB Park.

The Mainlanders were all over their rivals like a rash from the first whistle, with Annalie Longo's jinking run through four challenges just seventy seconds into the contest setting the scene.

While Aimee Phillips and Monique Barker over-ran her cross on this occasion, the menace posed by the genial Football Ferns midfielder was there for all to see, and Longo's threat was something which the U-18s struggled to contain all game long.

Her next forward foray earned a seventh minute corner, which Ashleigh Ward delivered into the goalmouth. The ball was headed out towards Chloe Jones, whose low drive was cleared off the line by Daisy Cleverley.

The early goal which Mainland sought, and which seemed almost inevitable given Longo's initial promptings, materialised in the ninth minute. Phillips latched onto a loose ball and instantly linked with Lauren Dabner, who worked an opening with Barker before evading the challenge of Liz Anton - she had a terrific game despite being on the losing side - and thrashing the ball beyond Emily Derlin, the U-18s goalkeeper, into the far corner of the net.

It was a blow from which the young representative side never really recovered, and Mainland kept the pressure on. The U-18s gradually got a foothold in the match, however, but rarely got to sight the goal defended by Mainland captain, Victoria Esson, who was afforded an armchair ride twixt the sticks by the efforts of those in front of her.

Mainland went close to doubling their advantage in the 25th minute. Whitney Hepburn picked out Phillips with a pass which allowed the striker to hold off the challenge of Anton and let rip - the ball flew narrowly wide.

Five minutes later, Meikayla Moore picked out Barker with a long ball forward, and the striker instantly linked with Longo. Emma Proctor was promptly brought into play, and she evaded a challenge before being thwarted by Claudia Bunge's despairing lunge, the defender's effort taking the pace off a shot which tamely rolled through to Derlin.

Nine minutes before half-time, Mainland doubled their advantage. Proctor, Phillips and Dabner combined to send Barker bursting through the inside-right channel. Into the penalty area she powered before pounding a shot through the legs of Derlin, who was covering the near post, the ball arrowing into the net next to the far upright.

With Longo directing operations, there looked to be no way back for the U-18s, who could well have been three-down before half-time. Johanna Hamblett and Phillips combined on the right, with Barker and Dabner swiftly brought into play thereafter. The latter played the ball into Phillips' stride, and she unleashed a fierce drive which careered over the near post.

The U-18s changed goalkeepers at half-time, Kelsey Dzaferic taking over twixt the sticks for the second spell. Her first task was to look on with relief as Dabner sent the ball flashing past the post in the 52nd minute, on receipt of a well-flighted free-kick from Moore.

Four minutes later, another vital tackle by Bunge denied Dabner, after the midfielder's initial burst was supplemented by a gorgeously weighted through ball from Longo, a pass which deserved the reward of the ball hitting the back of the net.

Dzaferic was in action again seconds later, for all the wrong reasons. She directed a clearance straight to Phillips, and with the untended goal yawning invitingly, last season's Golden Boot co-winner curled a twenty-five yarder goalwards.

The crowd's roar turned to a collective groan as the prevailing wind directed the ball against the near post, much to the frustration of Phillips, who was doing everything possible to mark her final game on home turf with a farewell goal before moving north to further her game.

When a goal came, two minutes later, it did so very much against the run of play - from nowhere, the U-18s were back in the contest. Issy Coombes' corner was cleared to Cleverley, who unleashed a twenty-yarder which took a wicked deflection off a defender and sent the ball arcing over Esson's head - 2-1.

Mainland's response was instant, and decisive, despite the fact it began with an U-18s attack. Jasmine Pereira played the ball across to Tayla Christensen, who slalomed through three challenges before being stopped abruptly by Jones' blockbuster tackle.

That sparked a lightning-quick counter-attack down the right, substitute Mikayla Wieblitz releasing Phillips through the middle. She played the ball wide to Barker, who buccaneered on before battering a shot past Dzaferic to restore the title-holders' two-goal margin.

There was no way back for the U-18s after this, and while they strove to reduce the deficit, Mainland kept their rivals at a comfortable arm's length through to the final whistle, when they enjoyed that title-winning feeling again.

2014 MATCH REPORT - FINAL

Glenfield Rovers won the ASB National Women's Knockout Cup for the second time in four years on 7 September, coming from behind to down Forrest Hill-Milford United 3-2 in the "North Harbour Derby" final at QBE Stadium.

It didn't look likely just 76 seconds into the contest, however, as "The Swans" opened the scoring. Briar Palmer opened Rovers up down the left, jinking inside Lisa Wooles before scything between two defenders en route into the penalty area, at which point she set up Emma Rolston for a steered finish beyond Erin Nayler, whose first touch of the ball involved fishing it out of her net.

Stung, Glenfield sought a swift riposte, and after Katie Rood had headed an Emily Oosterhof cross wide in the third minute, got it five minutes later. Rood robbed Emily Jensen twenty-five yards out from goal and promptly smashed the ball into the top far corner - 1-1.

Last season's beaten finalists were buoyed by the goal, with Alice Bresnahan going close in the sixteenth minute as they sought to gain the ascendancy on the scoreboard. United had other ideas, however, and two minutes later engineered a terrific counter-attacking move, after Jensen had blocked an Oosterhof drive.

Palmer latched onto the loose ball and evaded a couple of challenges before releasing Tayla O'Brien on the left. She held up possession before working a one-two with Palmer, who had raced up in support. O'Brien crossed towards the far post, where Catherine Bott raced in to beat a hesitant Estelle Harrison in the air and direct a downward header towards the target. Nayler, clad in all-red, was all over it like a rash.

In the twentieth minute, Oosterhof, Rebecca O'Neill and Rood combined to good effect, with the last-mentioned directing an angled eighteen-yarder beyond the flailing fingertips of the diving Elise Donovan and inches past the far post - Rood was desperately close!

Unperturbed, the player later named the recipient of the Maia Jackman Trophy as Cup Final MVP tried again four minutes later, twisting and turning her way through a couple of challenges on the edge of the area before engineering space for a shot which Donovan smothered.

Rood would not be denied, however, and in the 28th minute, fired Glenfield in front. She benefited from a ricochet off Katie Jackson on the edge of the area, a defender's attempted clearance striking the midfielder and providing Rood with five yards of space, leaving her one-on-one with Donovan, who hadn't a prayer of preventing Rovers from taking a 2-1 lead.

Now it was "The Swans" who were stung, and their pursuit of an equaliser duly began in earnest. Jensen's free-kick from half-way was flicked on by Kate Seatter into Rolston's stride. Her hooked volley cleared the far post by a narrow margin.

Another Jensen ball forward, four minutes before half-time, wasn't cleared. Instantly, Bott swooped, with only the bounce of the ball and the fast-advancing figure of Nayler combining to curtail her goalscoring chance, seconds before the midfielder was crudely chopped down by Ashleigh Ward, who earned the only booking of the game for her blatant foul.

After Palmer had seen a teasing cross-shot grabbed under the bar by Nayler on the stroke of half-time, United went desperately close to drawing level in first half stoppage time. Bott raced past Harrison before picking out Rolston with a cross to the near post.

The striker controlled the ball before squeezing a shot on the turn in between Nayler and Armstrong. It was almost slow-motion stuff as the sphere rolled across the face of the gaping goal and agonisingly past the far post, with Palmer a stride away from turning it home and preventing Glenfield from going to the dressing rooms the odd goal in three to the good.

Rovers started the second half strongly, and were denied strong penalty claims seven minutes into it when Jensen appeared to use her hands to block a shot struck at her. Penalties and referee Anna-Marie Keighley are rare bedfellows, however, and even though this one had "stonewall" written all over it, the official decided agin.

Immediately, United counter-attacked, Oosterhof's teasing cross being fumbled by Nayler, whose error was cleared to Daisy Cleverley. Her twenty-yarder was headed over her own crossbar by Michele Hogg, while from the resulting O'Brien corner, Jensen and Nayler contested the ball in the air, with Rolston's resulting shot being blocked to safety.

Back came Glenfield, Rood leading the charge in the 56th minute. She played the ball across towards Ward, but Donovan was wise to it and instantly sparked a counter-attack, utilising the pace of O'Brien down the right. She surged into the area before passing to Rolston, whose shot on the turn was directed straight at Nayler.

Only a vital headed clearance by Harrison denied Rolston three minutes later, as O'Brien weaved through traffic on the left to get in a telling cross. Three further minutes elapsed, at the end of which Glenfield were celebrating for a third time.

Michelle Windsor's clumsy foul on Rood invited Ward to whip in a free-kick to the near post. Donovan came and missed it, with the ball clipping the head of Jensen and ricocheting into the net behind her as she bested Jackson in an aerial duel - an own goal for the second final in succession, but would it be decisive?

At 3-1, Glenfield certainly hoped so, but Forrest Hill-Milford, unbeaten all season long going into this final, weren't going to give up that record without a hell of a fight. And for the bulk of the next half-hour, they duly proceeded to throw everything but the kitchen sink at their near-neighbours, who pulled everyone back to within thirty yards of their own goal inside the final fifteen minutes as they looked to hold on to what they had - a one-goal advantage.

For after Palmer's 65th minute corner had hit the crossbar, and O'Neill had unsuccessfully auditioned for "Swan Lake" in Forrest Hill-Milford's penalty area, "The Swans" set up a grandstand finish by netting a second goal in the 68th minute.

Cleverley's slide-rule pass played in Rolston with daylight for company on the edge of Glenfield's penalty area. She picked her spot beyond Nayler - 3-2. Game on, big time!

United pounded away in search of an equaliser. O'Brien's break, from a Palmer ball down the left, was thwarted by Armstrong in the area, at the expense of a corner, which O'Brien delivered to the far post. Nicole Stratford's drive was blocked by Nayler.

Seconds later, Cleverley and Stratford combined to contain Rood, with Jensen picking up the pieces and picking out Rolston with a ball forward. The striker's flicked header invited Palmer to take on Harrison, a challenge she accomplished. Beating Nayler from twenty-five yards on the run proved beyond the winger, however - the 'keeper had a top game.

The Football Ferns' number one was kept busy soon after by efforts from Bott and, on two occasions, O'Brien, before a rare Glenfield counter-attack, led inevitably by Rood, saw Ward outpaced by Cleverley as Rovers looked to put the Cup Final beyond doubt. The resulting Oosterhof corner was punched out by Donovan to Bresnahan, whose volley drifted harmlessly past the far post.

It was Glenfield's last chance, United's pressure in the last ten minutes prompting understandable "hold what we have" tactics from Rovers. They held on, but only just, with United only prevented from taking the game into extra-time by a stunning reflex save from Nayler, who tipped substitute Casey Ridsdale's point-blank range header over the bar in spectacular fashion after Bott and O'Brien had combined down the right in the 89th minute.

Palmer's resulting corner saw Jensen's attempt to score at both ends in this Cup Final flash past the far post, and after Stratford's hanging cross had been headed narrowly past her own post by Armstrong, the final whistle sounded, to the undisguised relief of Glenfield Rovers, ASB National Women's Knockout Cup winners once more.
